GERMANS TAKE DIXMUDE

TROOPS OF KAISER BATTER WAY AHEAD

Paris, Nov. 11.—(2:50 p. m.)—The French official statement this afternoon says the firghting was resumed yesterday morning with very great severity between Nieuport and the Lys.

The French forces were successful in maintaining their front, but it is admitted that the Germans, toward the end of the day, succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude.

The British troops are described as having repulsed the enemy at several points.

At other points on the line the French claim slight progress. The text follows:

"On our left wing the fighting was resumed yesterday morning between Nieuport and the Lys with a very great degree of severity. Generally speaking, our front was maintained, in spite of the violence and the strength of the German attacks directed against certain of our points of support.

"To the north of Nieuport we were even able to re-occupy Lombertsyde and advance beyond this town, but toward the end of the day the Germans succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude. We still hold our positions on the approaches to this town, along the canal from Nieuport to Ypres, which has been firmly occupied. The fighting was very hot at these places.

"The British troops attacked also at several points and succeeded everywhere in stopping the enemy.

"On the rest of the front the general situation shows no change with the exception of slight progress by our troops to the north of Soissons and in the region to the west of Vailley, on the right bank of the Aisne. Out side of the two points the state of the weather permitted only minor engagements, which resulted successfully for us. Particularly at Coincourt three kilometers north of the forest of Parroy we routed a detachment of the enemy."

SAN FRANCISCO NEXT IN LINE

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 11.—There were rounds of handclapping in the convention of the American Federation of Labor today when telegrams from the state of California and city of San Francisco were read inviting the federation to hold its 1915 convention in the exposition city. According to delegates and officers there appears to be no doubt that the invitation will be accepted.

The special committee appointed to bring about an agreement between the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Sheet Metal Workers over their jurisdictional dispute was appointed as follows: James Kirby, P. H. McCarthy and John A. Metz, for the carpenters, John J. Hynes, Thomas Redding and Hugh Frayne for the sheet metal workers, and Matthew Well, photo engraver; James J. Sweeney, granite cutter and William Green, miner, representing the federation.

Committees not being ready to report on matters referred to them the convention spent the morning hours in listening to the addresses of fraternal delegates and then took a recess until 4 o'clock. Mortimer M. Donaghue, president of the Montana Federation of Labor, fraternal delegate to the Canadian Trades and Labor congress, made his report of the recent work of that body, and R. A. Rigg, the fraternal delegate from the Canadian organization to the federation, spoke. Delegate Riff told of efforts made by Canadian employers to break the bonds that tie the workers of the United States and Canada in international unions. These efforts he said, have been unsuccessful. He touched on the war in the eastern hemisphere only long enough to say that it was the hope of the Canadian trade unions that the great conflict might soon be ended.

CLEVELAND LOAN OFFICES RAIDED

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 11.—In a raid upon the offices of four down town salary and chattel loan companies today the books and records of the companies were confiscated by detectives under direction of Police Prosecutor Polsen. Three men, said to be managers of the companies, were arrested.

Warrants were issued for Leslie Harbison, of Chicago; Norman L. Noteman, New York, and E. H. French, Toledo, said to be owners of three of the companies. Violation of the Ohio law regulating salary and chattel loan companies is charged.

The companies raided were: The Cleveland City Loan company; Peters & Co., Globe Loan company and the Cleveland Household Loan company.

Prosecutor Polsen says he has affidavits that the companies charged rates of interest in excess of legal rate and that they violated other provisions of the law.

HAWLEY GIVEN A TERM IN PRISON

Warren B. Hawley got swift justice for neglecting his child as he was sentenced in the circuit court Wednesday afternoon to serve a term of one to seven years in prison for the offense. He entered a plea of guilty and had nothing to say in his defense.

In sentencing him Judge John W. Eggeman stated that he is inclined to give every father who neglects to support his child a chance but that Hawley's case is aggravated and that he, in common with others guilty of the same offense, must suffer the penalty of the law.

Hawley was arrested at Bloomington, Ill., and is also married to another woman in Toledo, to whom he was wed after he left Fort Wayne.

Homer Brown, charged with the theft of a horse and buggy, Edward Hensler, charged with burglary and entering a house to commit a felony and Charles A. Butcher, held for obtaining money by false pretenses, were to be arraigned late Wednesday and it was understood that each would enter a plea

Today's War News Given in Summary.

The German war machine has battered its way into the Belgian town of Dixmude. Today's official French statement contains the admission that the allies were obliged to fall back from this point of vantage in the great battle for possession of the eastern shore of the British channel. As an offset the French war office states that the allies' forces have advanced along the north sea coast, pushing back the Germans and taking Lombaertzyde, a small Belgian town a few miles northeast of Nieuport.

The warring nations awaited with keen suspense the outcome of the struggle in Belgium, which for the moment overshadows the conflicts on the many other fields of battle. From no other point came reports of important changes in the situation.

The capture of Dixmude was the first indication that the new attack of the Germans, described as their supreme effort and as probably marking a turning point in the war, had brought definite results. Between Dixmude and Ypres, which lies to the south close to the French border, the fighting has been most intense, since the Germans elected at the opening of the week to begin the new onslaught with the help of their reinforcements of fresh troops and new artillery.

On Oct. 15, during the advance on Ostend, the Germans occupied Dixmude, but later were compelled to fall back. The allies gained possession of the town temporarily, but their presence there was challenged repeatedly by the Germans, resulting in some of the most important and sanguinary fighting of the war. Whether the German victory will exert an important influence on the outcome is not as yet disclosed.

Along the remainder of the battle line, says the French war office, there is no change, except for slight progress by the allies at a few points. The Berlin view of the situation, however, is optimistic. Comment is made there of the use of the expression "good advances" in the latest official German reports concerning the fighting in the west, being the first occasion on which the term has been employed in this connection.

Paris is also hopeful as to the outcome in Belgium. Military critics there take the view that the Germans are faced with the imperative necessity of defeating the allies, in order that they may turn their attention to the menacing armies of Russia. The German crown prince is reported to have been placed in supreme command of the German and Austrian forces in the east.

Petrograd contradicts the German claim to an important victory along the northern border, asserting that a brilliant success has been won there and that the Russians have begun an invasion of East Prussia. On the southern end of the line Cossacks are approaching Cracow while the investment of Przemysl, from which the Russians were swept back several weeks ago, is said to have been com-

Fort Wayne Will Have Big Additions to Tennis Court Equipment When This Work Has Been Completed

Eight men, one big steam shovel, three teams with the necessary complement of scrapers and other devices have been getting ready for lawn tennis in Fort Wayne next summer. The grading is being done by Contractor Harry McAfee and when the entire job is completed ten courts on a space 236 by 234 feet will have been constructed in Swinney park at a cost estimated by the Fort Wayne park department at $1,500.

The courts will be located in the southeast corner of the park and an immense amount of filling has been done. Last season the demand for courts was so heavy that the city could not supply them and is preparing to supply plenty of amusement and sport in 1915.

CANADA LEAGUERS ASK CONCESSIONS

Would Close Parks Next Year Without Losing Standing.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 11.—Only an afternoon session of the National Association of Professional Baseball clubs was on the program for today. With the question of policy regarding organized baseball settled the delegates were prepared to begin the routine business of the convention.

Representatives of Canadian leagues were on hand to ask concessions. The Canadian league and the northwest Canada leagues are confronted with European conditions and have requested that they be permitted to close their parks next year without losing their standing. That this would be granted was apparently assured, numerous delegates already having expressed themselves as favoring such action.

The national board of arbitration was busy a greater part of the night considering claims of clubs and players, but when it adjourned early this morning was far from having finished its business. There were 268 cases to be heard, most of them being for salaries, carfare and waiver fees. The board expects to conclude its work during the day.

The Western league continued its annual meeting during the forenoon. The members had a number of important matters to consider. Among these were whether or not the Wichita and Topeka clubs would continue to have places in the league. There was some talk that St. Paul might become a member of the Western league but any action of that nature will be held in abeyance until the minor league association matters are settled. The question of releasing the Canadian clubs from their obligations for one year was expected to come up at the afternoon session.

CENTRAL MUST BE PATCHED UP

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 11.At the meeting of the Central baseball league here today, with President Louis Heilbroner, of Fort Wayne, presiding, the question of rearranging its membership was taken up.

It was stated that the league must be patched up by adding three new cities to its circuit.

ORDERS WILL COME SOON

Wilson Ready to Withdraw American Troops from Vera Cruz.

GUARANTEES ARE HELD SUFFICIENT

Washington, Nov. 11.—American troops probably will be ordered out of Vera Cruz very soon, leaving the Mexican factions to settle their own differences, as a result of the recent developments which brought the guarantees the Washington government demanded.

Carranza's promises not to reimpose customs duties collected by American officials during the occupation and to protect natives who have served Brig. Gen. Funston, probably will be accepted as sufficient.

Similar pledges from Gutierrez, new provisional president, are expected. The American officials have collected several millions in customs duties which are to be turned over to the Mexican government. That fact is taken by many officials as a guarantee that the Washington government's demands will be complied with.

The Carranza Decree.

Copies of Carranza's decree were received today by the state department. It grants amnesty to all Mexicans who served the American government at Vera Cruz. Nothing is said about protection for nuns and priests who took refuge in Vera Cruz.

Orral assurances, however, have been given that they would not be harmed and the general opinion is that the

NO CHANGE IN BELGIAN RELIEF

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Secretary Bryan announced today after a conference with Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that there had been no change in the plan originally approved by the German government for the transportation of relief supplies to Belgium.

In the conference with the German ambassador and Mr. Bryan today were William Phillips, third assistant secretary of state, and Hugh Wallace, a Washingtonian. It is understood that a plan was discussed for the selection by President Wilson of a central committee to take charge of the entire question of Belgian relief and prevent duplication of efforts. Mr. Wallace will probably be a member of the committee.

Officials at the Belgian legation here don't believe that Germany is planning to stop food supplies for their destitute countrymen sent from the United States through England. They pointed out that Germany herself was sending food.

There seems to be no disposition in official circles here to object to the demand of German military authorities in Belgium that inhabitants seeking relief go to work if able to do so.

PORTER COUNTY IN QUARANTINE

Valparaiso, Ind., Nov. 11.—Because of the prevalence of the foot and mouth disease Porter county was officially placed under quarantine today and deputy sheriffs were ordered to patrol each township to see that the quarantine was rigidly enforced. All stray dogs were ordered killed to prevent them acting as carriers of the disease.

It is estimated there are more than 20,000 head of cattle in the county and infected animals have been found in practically every township. The quarantine, it was explained, as yet, does not prohibit the shipments of produce out of the county.

MICHIGAN KILLS ANIMALS.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 11.—According to a report made to Gov. Ferris today 2,885 hogs, 1,478 cattle, 516 sheep and 31 goats infected with hoof and mouth disease have been killed in Michigan since the epidemic started a few weeks ago. The chairman of the state live stock sanitary commission who made the report vigorously denied that any persons in Michigan had caught the malady.

TRADE BALANCE IN OUR FAVOR

Washington, Nov. 11.—Exports at ten principal American ports for the week ending Nov. 7, exceeded the imports by more than $10,000,000, the department of commerce announced today although there were but five business days that week because of elections.

The imports totalled $26,129,895 and the exports were $36,645,767, leaving a balance of trade in favor of the United States of $10,515,872.

More than $3,000,000 were collected in duties. Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, Galveston, San Francisco, Seattle, Buffalo and Detroit furnished the record.

BOY CAUSES EXCITEMENT

Residents Feared He Had the Hoof and Mouth Disease.

CASE REPORTED TO COUNTY AGENT

Members of American Veterinary Association to Meet.

Suspected cases of the hoof and mouth disease were reported to C. Henry, county agent, late Wednesday afternoon on a nearby farm on the Huntington road. No particulars were given. As soon as Mr. Henry received the report he went out to investigate.

In the opinion of Dr. Van Buskirk, county health officer, who Wednesday afternoon investigated an alleged case of the hoof and mouth disease in a little boy who has been attending school at No. 6B, there is little cause for alarm. The doctor believes that the lad is suffering from an infectious disease, but not the hoof and mouth disease.

The case, at least, is peculiar, and Dr. Van Buskirk will make another investigation in a couple of days, plenty of time to give the disease an opportunity to develop.

The case was reported to C. Henry, county agent, and from the description given to him there was every reason to believe that the lad was suffering with the hoof and mouth disease. As a result he had the health officer investigate.

Some days ago John Martin, jr., aged 14, son of John Martin, sr., a foreigner living in what is known as the Commercial district, near the rolling mills, came to school after being absent for several days. Miss Pearl Townsend, one of the teachers at school No. 6B, west of Fort Wayne, noticed that he held his hand up to his mouth continuously. She decided to investigate and when the boy removed his hand at her request she could see that his mouth was badly inflamed and swollen. Sores had commenced to form. The teacher immediately ordered the boy home. He could give no explanation, except that he did not feel as well as usual.

Returns to School.

A couple of days later he returned to school and while the mouth was swollen and red it seemed to be somewhat im-

LAST-MINUTE NEWS

BESIEGE AMERICAN RELIEF DEPOTS.

London, Nov. 11.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuters Telegraph company, says:

"Dutchmen returning from Antwerp report that distress there is very great and that the depots of the American committee for the relief of the Belgians are besieged from 8 in the morning till 2 o'clock the next morning by a multitude of starving Belgians.

GERMANS LOSE HEAVILY IN OFFICERS.

Paris, Nov. 11.—(2:50 p. m.)—A Havas agency dispatch from Petrograd says:

"It is estimated here that during the recent fighting in East Prussia, the Germans lost 70 per cent. of their officers. From October 23 to November 5, the total Russian captures amounted to 323 officers, 21,750 soldiers, four mortars, 52 cannons, 52 quick firers and a large amount of munitions of war, including a quantity of provisions."

NEUTRALITY BOARD TO PASS ON ISSUE.

Washington, Nov. 11.—If it finally develops that a foreign belligerent actually has placed an order for twenty submarines with an American ship yard, as reported, a neutrality board probably will be convened to look into the situation. TRAIN CONTINUES TO SCORE SIEGEL

Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Assistant District Attorney Train today resumed his outline of the state's case against Henry Siegel, former banker and merchant of New York, charged with grand larceny. "The four wheels of the car of Juggernaut," was the way he characterized the four "big and losing" enterprises created by the defendant.

BERLIN WOULD DICKER WITH CZAR, IS CLAIM

London, Nov. 11.—Coincident with the news that every German soldier has been swept from Russian soil comes a whisper of peace negotiations in the report from Petrograd that Berlin has approached Russia with overtures looking toward a cessation of hostilities.

Contrary to the German report that the Russians had been checked on the frontier of East Prussia, Petrograd declares that a brilliant success in that region has been succeeded by an actual invasion of German territory.

An equal triumph is reported from the other end of the long Russian battle line. With Cossacks, raiding within twenty miles of Cracow, the commandant of which fortress has ordered the civilian population of the city to leave Prezemysl, is said to be fully invested again and the reduction of this fortress is likely to precede any further advance by the Russian left wing.

Petrograd is not wholly satisfied with the scope of the victories reported against the Germans—for the belief prevails in military circles that if the Russian strategy of the Napoleonic era had been followed further, even to the extent of surrender of Warsaw, the invaders never would have remained in their own country with intact organizations. Others feel that political motives quite justified the government in its determination to defend Warsaw.

Contrary to practice infantry and not artillery has been the dominant force used by the Russians along their western battle front in pushing the invaders back across the border. Showing disregard of the German batteries, superior forces of Russian infantry time after time have advanced and won positions by the use of cold steel. From Moscow comes a report that during the fight near Aerodz, on the river Warthe, the Russians captured Gen von Makenge, commander of the seventeenth German army corps, together with members of his staff. It is also reported that Gen. von Liebert, who was in command at Lodz when the Germans occupied that city, also has been captured by the Russians.

Rome reports that the Austrian army is abandoning entirely its positions in western Galicia and will winter at the foot of the Carpathians, renewing the war from that base in the spring. But the stubborn defense of Przemysl and the evident determination to defend Cracow hardly confirm this report.

Dispatches reaching London from Belgium and Holland continue to insist the Germans are withdrawing many of their troops from their western battle front, but the official communications from the headquarters of the allies do not indicate any dimunition in the force of the German attack, which is continuing with its usual fury.

The situation in Belgium is daily becoming more critical. Even Antwerp, which is the best supplied of the Belgian cities, is clamoring for the provisions brought into the country by the American commission.

LUXEMBURG IN A STATE OF UNREST

Luxemburg, Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, Nov. 11.—(Via The Hague and London, 11:55 a. m.) This small country, which has almost been forgotten since the commencement of the war, is beginning to show signs of unrest under the prolonged German rule.

Entirely cut off from the rest of the world and obliged to read newspapers, which under a strict German censorship, are giving exclusively pro-German information, the people show the same tendencies to fly into panics and to believe historical news as are so familiar in Brussels, Liege and Namur and other Belgian cities where the people systematically are kept in the dark. They are now willing to believe even the most incredible rumors.

The Luxemburgians have suffered greatly since the Germans three weeks ago stopped the iron industry, the main support of the country, by forbidding the use of dynamite. After prolonged negotiations the operation of the mines has been allowed again but the miners are obliged to use other and less violent explosives.

Continual friction is apparent between the Luxemburgians and the Germans on the frontier village. The people, ordinarily are bilingual, under pressure of the Germans now are using French exclusively as the only means at their disposal of showing resentment, at their country's invasion.

EXPECTS DEATH; WRITES OBITUARY

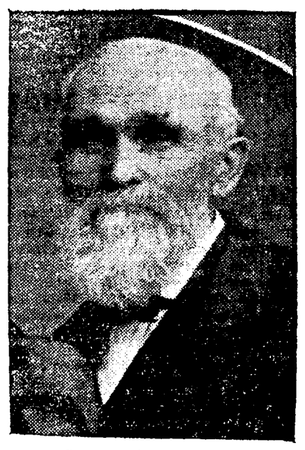
Expecting his demise at any time, C. Henry Leinker took the task of writing his own obituary before death overcame him at his home at 1219 Marion street, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon following an illness of more than eight years' duration. Death came at the age of 74 years, after suffering for a year from nephritis. During the time of his extended sickness he underwent two operations.



C. HENRY LEINKER.

He was a pioneer settler of Fort Wayne as is brought out in the following translation of the obituary which he wrote himself:

"On the twenty-fifth of September, 1852, I, Christopher Heinrich Leinker, in company with my brother, Ernest, and parents, arrived in Fort Wayne, and on the same day moved into the home of my uncle, Henry Rahe, who at that time lived on High street. He owned a strip of land which extended from High street to the point where No. 2 pumping station is now located. There were but few houses in Bloomingdale at that time, not more than twenty and of these five were on High street,four on Berthold and the others on Wells and Fifth streets.

"My brother, Ernest, was born on September 30, 1848, at Essen, Amy Wittlage, Hanover, Germany, and I was born at the same place on December 28, 1839. After our arrival in this city I entered the St. Paul's Lutheran parish schools and received my early education under Teacher Wolf. I was confirmed by the late Rev. Sihler. In the year 1856 I became an apprentice in the business of Louis Peltier and learned the cabinetmaker's trade. Mr. Peltier's shop was located at that time on the present site of the Rurode Dry Goods store. Four years later I took employment with John M. Miller on East Main street with which firm I remained for twenty-eight consecutive years.

"On January 11, 1866, I was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Weisheit and the following year I built the home where I am still living today. My wife died on April 5, 1875. The following year I was married to Miss Wilhelmina Schoppman. I was elected a member of the city council in 1877 and served in that capacity for one term.

"During the year 1906 I submitted to two surgical operations at the Lutheran hospital. I took sick on May 19 of that year and submitted to the first operation on June 5. Two weeks later a second operation became necessary."

The deceased was a deacon of the St. Paul's Lutheran church for twenty-one years and when the Trinity Lutheran church on Hoffman street was organized he became a charter member of that congregation.

Besides his wife he leaves surviving the following children: Henry F., William, Fred, Louise, Catherine, Clara Leinker, all of this city, and Mrs. William Schmidt, also of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence, 1219 Marion street and at 2:30 at the Trinity Lutheran church, Rev. Jacob Miller officiating.

GERMANS REPORT GOOD ADVANCE IN THE WEST

Berlin, Nov. 11.—(By wireless.)—The significance of the latest official reports concerning the situation in the western arena of hostilities is favorable in the opinion of German critics by the facts that words "good advances" are used in referring to the conflict in the Argonnes. This is the first time such an expression has been employed in describing the fighting in this district.

The Turks are meeting with considerable success in their operations in the Caucasus and on the Egyptian frontier according to official announcement made by the Turkish government and given out in Berlin. They have occupied Sheikzar fort at El-Arish, Egypt, and taken four field guns from the enemy. The Russians in the Caucasus have been forced to retire to their second lines of defense.

El-Arish is on the Mediterranean near the boundary of Egypt, and Palestine. It is of importance as a point of water supply.

Crown Prince Ruprecht of Bavaria, has addressed a general order to his army containing the following passage:

"Soldiers—the eyes of the whole world rest upon you. Our present task is not to relax our struggle with our hated enemy until we break his arrogance once for all. He is already weakening and already numerous officers and privates of the enemy have voluntarily surrendered but the great decisive blow remains to be struck.

"You must hold out to the end and the enemy must be put down. You must persevere. Don't let the enemy slip from between your teeth. We must conquer!"

The governor of the province of Brandenburg publicly calls attention to the fact that certain persons are trying to buy German gold for export, offering a slight premium. He appeals to the patriotism of the people to give no assistance to such efforts and advises that they put a stop thereto by turning over "these agents of foreign countries." to the police on the spot.

GERMANS MAKING FRONTAL ATTACK

Paris, Nov. 11.—It is becoming more and more evident to French observers that Germany is now making a maximum effort in Belgium to carry out her determination to penetrate the battle line of the allies with a frontal attack and reach either Dunkirk or Calais, on the English channel.

This attack seems to be taking place south of Dixmude. What is described in an official bulletin as "very violent fighting" in the north, continued this morning. The foggy weather of the last few days apparently has cleared and the Germans are pushing the attack.

Nevertheless the allies seem well satisfied with the situation.

The German position, however, is being given considerable close study. French military critics from the standpoint of strategy, regard the German position between two adversaries too far from each other for united efforts in the same operation, as a favorable one for the reason that it permits the use of what is called "internal lines." This strategy is simple in theory, but not always so in practice.

JAP TORPEDO BOAT IS SUNK BY A MINE

Tokio, Nov. 11.—(2 p. m.)—Official announcement is made that torpedo boat No. 33, of the Japanese navy, was sunk by a mine early today at the mouth of Kiao Chow bay while dragging for mines. A majority of the crew was rescued.

Other torpedo boats made an attempt to tow No. 33 into shallow water but failed. Six men on board No. 33 were killed or wounded and three are missing.

Many of the men aboard the German cruiser Emden, which was beached and burned on Cocos Island, in the Indian ocean, after a fight with the Australian cruiser Sydney, were killed or wounded in the battle, according to announcement made here today.

CHRISTMAS TOYS ARRIVE.

Dutch Steamship Brings Consignment From Rotterdam.

Boxes containing the toys were marked "American property." Capt, Dejong said he had taken the precaution to protect the goods from possible confiscation.

The Westerdijik was stopped by British war ships in the English channel and forced to proceed to Southampton where [illegible]

WAR SESSION OF PARLIAMENT OPEN

English Cabinet Ministers Will Be Under Fire of Criticism.

London, Nov. 11.—9:55 a. m.—King George opened today what probably will prove to be a purely war session of parliament. No controversal political question will be deliberated, but this does not mean that entire harmony will prevail, for the cabinet ministers will be asked some pertinent and uncomfortable questions about their conduct of various phases of the war.

The labor party leaders are especially primed with questions in regard to pay for the soldiers, allowances for their dependents and pensions, but criticism of the government by the opposition [illegible]

Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, is expected to make a report on the situation in regard to alien enemies in England and the extent of the spy peril, but additional legislation in this direction is expected. The most immediate before the house of commons will be to provide sinews of war in men and money. The recruiting situation may lead to some steps towards compulsory service and the $500,000,000 granted in August, having been practically spent, a further credit of a like amount will probably be proposed under the special war loan act passed at the last session.

One hundred and five unionists were missing from their seats, being absent in various capacities in connection with the war, while thirty-two ministerialists are actually at the front and many others are absent on government business.

The usual ceremony accompanied the opening of parliament, the king making a military progress through the streets to Westminster palace. But like the lord mayor's show the customary color was lacking. Instead of the brilliantly uniformed household guards lining the streets and forming the escort, somber khaki marked the military features of the display.

ADMITS MURDER TO CLEAR SOUL

Wood told the district attorney and the sheriff that he and three companions slew the couple with an ax, robbed them of $800 and then burned down the farm house. The charred bodies were found in the cellar.

The district attorney placed [illegible] under arrest and [illegible] and confessed the crime.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and the dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Adv.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

HOLD-UP MEN WORK GAME AT KINGSLAND

James Foley, Railroad Agent, Robbed of $110 in Cash and His Gold Ticker.

Kingsland, Ind., Nov. 11.—James Foley, joint agent for the Lake Erie and Western and the Chicago and Erie railroads, was held up by two masked men last night and robbed of $110 in cash and his gold watch. The bandits fled and posses which were soon organized are as yet without trace of the men. It is believed they boarded a westbound freight train, which was passing at the time.

Foley was closing his office for the night and preparing to take the cash to the Wiseburgh store for deposit in a safe when the robbery occurred at 6:30 o'clock. One of the men seized the agent, but as the latter jerked away the second robber covered him with a pistol and forced him to remain quiet until they had relieved him of $75 of railroad funds in an envelope, which he carried in his hands, $35 of his own money in his pocket and his gold watch.

JAILED ON LARCENY CHARGE.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 11.—Ross Palmerton, of Butler, is in the county jail here, charged with the theft of $1,200 from his uncle, William Deems, who lives near Butler. The money was alleged to have been taken about a year ago from Mr. Deems' house during his absence, and as there was $2,400 in the roll and only half of it was taken, suspicion at once pointed to Palmerton and he was continually watched by officers, who lately found him spending money freely and counting on taking a trip. He left Butler yesterday on the Vandalia, but Sheriff Hoff met him at the depot here and escorted him before Judge Powers, where he pleaded not guilty. The judge fixed his bond at $1,000 and in default of same was taken to jail.

HOME BURNS AT LISBON.

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 11.—The home of Edwin Ibrie at Lisbon, together with a portion of the contents, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday morning shortly after 8 o'clock. The loss is several thousand dollars, partially covered by insurance, in the Farmers' Mutual of Noble county.

It is believed the fire started from a defective flue. It was first discovered by a number of workers who were shredding corn at the Wade Herrick home. Clouds of smoke were first seen coming from the roof of the residence and soon flames were shooting upward. The gang of men at the Herrick home were the first fighters on the scene.

MAY CLOSE PUBLIC PLACES.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 11.—All public gathering places for children and young people may be closed within the next day or two by the order of City Health Officer, Dr. C. H. Mead as the result of the great effort to prevent the spread of smallpox in the city. The public library was ordered closed this morning after a consultation between Dr. Mead and the library board, and will be closed until the Central school is reopened. It is the opinion of the health officer that the picture shows, too, may be closed if the disease continues to spread.

There have been hundreds of hunting licenses issued in this county. Quail are said to be plentiful in this section. Game wardens have been notified to see that each Nimrod has a license, that he doesn't take "pot shots" at the quail, and that he doesn't violate any one of a dozen other state and federal regulations.

The pleasant warm weather of the early fall and the splendid conditions of the small grains of the state and the rank growth of weeds late this fall has given the quail family a chance to fatten itself as never before.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderdine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

11 Chronicles 34:24-33.

24 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the L ord God of Isreal concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the Lord.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same.. So they brought the king word again.

29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusale m, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the Lord.

31 And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the Lord their God. And all his days they departed not from following the Lord, the God of their fathers.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1914.

The War and Immigration.

Statistics just supplied from compilations by the department of labor show in striking fashion war's continued effect on immigration to America. There has been a decrease of more than 77 per cent. at Atlantic ports, and 75 per cent. for the entire country during the three months in which Europe has been embroiled in conflict.

Aliens arriving at Atlantic seaports of the United States and Canada from August 1 to November 7, last, numbered 97,458, compared with 451,584 for the same period last year. The number of arrivals at those ports on November 7 was 740, compared with 3,270 on the same day last year. The total number of immigrants arriving at all ports from August 1 to November 7, 1914, was 135,474, compared with 459,401 for the corresponding period of 1913.

The situation is not, of course, at all surprising. In many of the countries from which has poured a steady stream of population to seek new homes in America, it would be impossible for the emigrant to get away under conditions now prevailing. The military demands of the mother country upon him, the sincerely patriotic desire to remain and fight for his country's cause, the lack of means and the lack of ships in which the trip could be made all combine as insuperable obstacles against the outflowing tide of emigration there.

But unless all forecasts shall prove at fault, the cessation of war will tell a different story. Uncounted millions, weary of conflict, sickened of bloodshed and perhaps utterly impoverished, will lose no time in seeking a new existence as far removed as possible from those war-torn lands. Nor does the prospect give occasion for alarm. Coming under those conditions the alien will be in frame of mind to most quickly and most deeply appreciate the privileges and the benefits of American citizenship and to blend into the composite whole that constitutes the ideal of citizenship in this land of ours.

If there has been anywhere a suspicion that there might be a dearth of candidates for speaker of the house in the next Indiana legislature, those timorous souls who entertained it can be asured their fears are wholly groundless. Candidates are springing up like mushroom in the night, and some of them have already developed formidable backing. Perhaps the man most frequently mentioned in connection with the place is Charles H. Bedwell, of Sullivan county. But the list also includes Mason J. Niback, of Vincennes; John C. Branaman, of Brownstown, Bailey Hawkins, of Hamilton and Tipton, Fred L. Feick, of Garrett, and one or two others who have achieved mention. The race for the gavel promises to be the liveliest sort of a contest.

The desire of the Barr street merchants to have the wholesale market removed from that thoroughfare is based on wholly tenable grounds. Congestion is inevitable at a street market wherever it is located, but on Barr street it is particularly dangerous by reason of its proximity to the central fire station. It vastly increases the danger of accident in the response of No. 1 apparatus to an alarm of fire.

Under the law both the succesful and the defeated candidates for office at the recent election are filing sworn statements of their campaign expenses. And however modest their expenditures may have been, it is the unanimous verdict of those who failed to win that it wasn't worth it.

MUNICIPAL NURSES SAFEGUARD THE HEALTH OF BERKELY CHILDREN.

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 11.—Medical or health inspection is among the youngest offsprings of the school department here.

Nurses are employed by the school department to examine the children and report of their condition, the schools being divided among the nurses so that each one keeps as nearly as possible the same schools and records the results.

The child is taken into the room set aside for this purpose and examined for vision, hearing, throat or mouth trouble, condition of breathing, general nutrition, etc. The child is not disrobed, but any malformation that can be detected is noted. And effort is made to get the confidence of the child and excite interest in health. For this purpose a mental picture of the ideal man or woman is kept before the pupil and the means of attaining that ideal, rather than the defects found are dwelt upon.

The children are examined for decayed teeth, and are given a mouth breather. Eyes, ears, nose and throat are examined by the nurse and recommendations are made to parents of serious cases.

The throat is examined by a wooden blank tongue which is afterward thrown into a waste can. They are especially made for the purpose of examination.

Six per cent. decrease of retarded children in the public schools here during the school year of 1911-12 is no doubt largely the result of the Berkeley health inspection. Infectious diseases have materially lessened and the appearance and cleanliness of the children has very much improved.

PRESS ON GROWTH OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

"Reason to Be Encouraged."

Philadelphia Press:—"The woman suffragists have reason to be encouraged in the growth of suffrage states from nine to eleven as the result of last Tuesday's election."

"Settles Question."

Boston Herald:—"One victory for this cause of woman suffrage settles the question for all the future. One defeat merely postpones its discussion."

"Party Managers."

Indianapolis Star:—"The woman vote gives an importance to western states in general elections that will call for serious consideration from party managers with an eye to the balance of power."

"Far West a Unit."

New York Tribune:—"The far west is now a unit in accepting votes for women. That is to say, where the change has been thoroughly tested and observed its adoption comes naturally."

"A Phenomenon."

Providence Journal: "The expansion of the equal suffrage area is a phenomenon that sociologists cannot afford to ignore, any more than they can the increase in the territory where the saloon is out-lawed."

"None Ever Go Back."

Cleveland Leader:—"So far, every state which has adopted woman suffrage has stuck to the new basis of voting. None ever go back to the conditions they leave behind."

"Will Stimulate Women."

Philadelphia Ledger:—"In Pennsylvania the result of the elections in the west, in which the suffrage question figured, will undoubtedly stimulate the women to more active efforts to carry their amendment through the next legislature."

"Neutrals Among Males."

Albany Knickerbocker Press:—"As long as both the suffragists and anti-suffragists are satisfied with Tuesday's election, neutrals among the males, if there be such, ought to be satisfied, too."

HOMICIDES AND THE DEATH PENALTY.

(Indianapolis Star.)

State Senator McCormick announces that he is about to launch a vigorous campaign for the abilition of the death penalty in Indiana; that he will introduce a bill to that effect in the legislature this winter. It is interesting, in connection with his program, to consider the fact that Milwaukee has the fewest murders of any city in the country. The ratio in that city is two for each 100,000 people. New York has 5.5 each year; Cincinnati, 10.7; St. Louis, 12.9; Charleston, 30.6; Memphis, 58.3; Minneapolis, 3.5. The figures for Indianapolis are not given in the compilation made for the Spectator.

Milwaukee and Minneapolis, the cities making altogether the most favorable showings, are the only two on the list in which the law does not impose the death penalty. If the electric chair or the gallows is a deterrent and would-be murderers are not afraid of anything short of death sentences Milwaukee and Minneapolis might be expected to figure at the top instead of the bottom of the percentage column. Experience indicates that the electric chair and the gallows tend to increase instead of decreasing the number of murders.

It is well recognized that juries will not vote to execute a criminal except in extreme cases. Unquestionably a very large percentage of those acquitted in Indiana and other states inflicting capital punishment would be convicted, if conviction meant imprisonment. Instead of being turned loose to commit other crimes the murderers would be safely under lock and key and society would be more secure than it is at present.

Advocates of capital punishment believe that the death penalty is a preventive of crime. And when they have said all they have to say, the answer to their argument is in the simple fact

MERCHANTS WILL GIVE THEIR AID

Like Proposal to Relieve the Congestion on Barr Street.

Merchants along Barr street between Berry and Columbia will give their aid to the proposition to remove the wholesale market from in front of their places of business to the city property on Clinton street north of Superior as it will relieve congestion and eliminate an annoyance they have endured for a number of years.

The matter was presented to the city council at its session Tuesday night in the form of a resolution asking the board of public works to investigate the advisability of erecting a building on the property in question. This resolution was confirmed and will be duly presented. The property is now used for a hay market but is of sufficient area to accommodate the wholesalers.

Listing Measure Passes.

The ordinance providing that trucking companies and draymen supply weekly lists of changes of residence to the chief of police was passed with Members Rogge, Kinder, Welch and Korte voting against it. They explained it was a measure to establish a collecting agency through the police department but the other councilmen thought it would be of great assistance to the lighting department, waterworks department and to other public service corporations.

Members Schlebecker, Agne and Deitschel will take up at once with the board of public works the question of supplying the Spy Run district with an adequate sewer system. This matter has bothered the present and former administrations for years on account of the difficulties it presents.

The ordinance appropriating $100 to pay the expenses of Mayor W. J. Hosey and President W. A. Bayer, of the city council, to Washington next month to attend the session of the national rivers and harbors congress went to the finance committee. The Erie and Michigan canal will be under consideration at the meeting.

Report is Submitted.

Ordinances appropriating $450 to the police station account; $372.26 to the park board account to pay for walks along Hayden park, and $1,500 to the street cleaning account were referred to the committee on finance. An ordinance amending the ordinance relative to the construction of vaults, providing that they shall be constructed of brick, stone or metal and water tight and shall not be located within fifty feet of a residence was referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances, and an ordinance authorizing an increase of $15 per month in the salary of the clerk of the board of health was sent to the committee on fees and salaries.

According to the report of Comptroller W. C. Baade for the first nine months of 1914, which was submitted, the general fund at present has $60,026.65, as against a balance of $156,216.24 January 1. The total receipts were $252,709.47 and the expenditures $318,899.06. The balance at the first of the year in the general fund was $108,709.83, while the receipts of the first nine months are $126,242.01 and the expenditures $115,363.54, leaving a balance of $119,588.30, from which must be taken $35,883.32 transferred from the general fund, leaving a net balance of $115,999.98. This balance, with the general fund's balance, gives a total of $176,026.63, with unredeemed warrants amounting to $15,928.27, leaving the balance in the hands of City Treasurer [illegible] on the assembly hall proposition will be held on Monday evening, November 23. This date was selected and announced by President Bayer at the close of the council's regular session last evening.

Taken Under Advisement.

Coal bids to the number of thirty-seven for the fuel supply of the lighting plant did not show the expected increase in prices but on the contrary indicated a decrease of five to six cents a ton. They were taken under advisement until Nov. 19 along with the bids of the Westinghouse company, of Pittsburgh, the General Electric company, of Fort Wayne and the Bissell company, of Toledo, to supply lamps for the lighting department.

Making Investigation.

Members of the board of public works are making an investigation of the complaint that the Pennsylvania company had raised its tracks at the Lafayette street crossing two feet above grade. This makes it difficult to haul heavy loads over the tracks and the company says it was done to make the grade easier for locomotives going up the Calhoun street elevation.

Three Were Reported.

Of twelve cases of pulmonary tuberculosis developed in Fort Wayne during the month of October only three were reported to the health department and Dr. J. H. Gilpin has sent letters to all physicians citing the state law that requires immediate notice to the health department.

The capital stock of the Tri-State Loan and Trust company has been increased from $300,000 to $500,000.

Here Is Good News For Old Rheumatic Sufferers
A Remedy That Ft. Wayne Citizens Recommend

A remedy that has been tested and recommended in your own city. Hundreds of cases have been cured and you won't doubt it because we always give their name and address. Mr. Ernest Kayser is the next citizen to testify for Miller's True Herb Remedy. He says: "I had rheumatism, lumbago and kidney trouble. It was difficult for me to walk or even turn myself in bed. I used a half bottle of Miller's True Herb Remedy and my pain was all gone. This remedy was recommanded to me to be good, but I did not expect so much relief from only one small bottle. I have been employed at the Electric works on Broadway for many years and my address is 810 Wilt street, Fort Wayne, Ind., and I would heartily recommend this good medicine to anyone afflicted with rheumatism, lumbago or kidney trouble."

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Orders for the 1914 Red Cross seal in unprecedented quantities are being received at headquarters in the Public Savings Insurance building, this city. The interest indicates that Indiana proposes to look to the relief of its own cripples and to repulse the invading army at its own doors even though it does extend some help to the war victims in Europe.

Red Cross seal money enables Hoosier communities to combat the advancing hosts technically known as "tuberculosis bacilli," but generally referred to as "consumption germs." These germs kill more Indiana men, women and children each year than all other contagious diseases combined.

As an indication that these germs are going to have "rough sledding" in this section of the country next year, the commission today exhibited orders for Red Cross seals as follows: Indianapolis, 500,000; South Bend, 100,000; Fort Wayne, 200,000; Evansville, 200,000; Michigan City, 50,000; Kokomo, 80,000; Jeffersonville, 30,000; Fowler, 30,000; Newcastle, 20,000; Rushville, 40,000; Muncie, 100,000; Frankfort, 30,000; Laporte, 30,000; Lafayette, 50,000; Richmond, 120,000; Bloomington, 10,000; Anderson, 40,000, and orders ranging from 10,000 to 50,000 from scores of other Indiana communities.

MODERN FIGHTING STRATEGY AT TEST

Beginning to Adapt Itself to New Conditions of Warfare.

London, Nov. 11.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Modern fighting strategy, at first rather helpless before the aerial and artillery factors, is beginning to adapt itself to the new conditions and along the great Aisne battle front many fertile brains have been busy devising schemes to meet these problems. Probably the most useful work of the aeroplane has been the location of positions and consequent direction of artillery fire often resulting in terrible losses to the attacked army.

According to a distinguished London surgeon, now serving as a volunteer in the army medical corps, the British troops have become adepts at building dummy trenches to attract the enemy's fire. These trenches are thrown up with great fidelity and dummy figures and guns are left in them patiently awaiting the German aeroplane scouts. Believing that he has discovered a new position the aviator signals to the nearest German battery, and a storm of shells fall upon the unoccupied trenches. It is usually only after a great waste of valuable ammunition that the trick is discovered.

Another favorite device is the invention of a British signaller whereby a heliograph can be operated at a distance of two miles by means of a telegraph wire. This heliograph begins to send out messages purporting to emanate from headquarters staff and believing they have located the brains of the British army the German artillery devotes its attention to the spot marked by the flashes from the heliograph. Sometimes the heliograph is destroyed, but usually the operator ceases work when the fire becomes so heavy that no staff in its senses would remain in the vicinity. A new apparatus is set up in some position where the staff would be likely to remove should it be driven from the first selected place.

Along the front where the opposing trenches are within a few hundred yards of each other the allies have devised a system of tormenting the enemy by keeping them awake at night. Regular skirmish details are selected each night and in a thin skirmish line they advance as close as possible and pour in a rattling fire. The response is almost instant and in such volume as to indicate that the Germans believe a general attack is beginning. Several times during the night these tactics are repeated.

The surgeon who has just returned from the front, reports that contrary to the usual belief the trenches are not very wet, but he believes that with the coming of the heavy winter rains conditions along the Aisne will become terrible. The tension is already so great that many have reached the snapping point until the insane ward at Netley is filled with officers and soldiers who have lost their reason when disease is added to the terror of battle.

One of the optimistic features of the situation is an improvement in the transport of the wounded from the battle front to hospitals in England. Two weeks ago it often was as long as three weeks to get the wounded from the scene of the fighting to Southampton and now the same trip is made in from three to four days. This speeding up has resulted in a great acceleration in the recovery of the dangerously wounded, for they reach the hospitals within the period of infection.

DRASTIC WAR ON CATTLE PLAGUE

State Authorities Plan to Make Urgent Measures State Wide.

Indianapolis, Nov. 11.—Plans for an organized fight against the foot and mouth malady were outlined yesterday at a conference attended by Governor Ralston, Dr. A. F. Nelson, state veterinarian; Dr. A. R. King, assistant state health commissioner, and H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner.

After the conference Dr. Nelson and Dr. King arranged for the appointment of veterinarians in 78 counties to act as deputy state veterinarians and assist county health commissioners. The names were suggested by Dr. Nelson and the state board of health will direct the various county health commissioners to designate at once the men as their deputies and to co-operate with them in the fight against the contagion. Veterinarians in the remaning counties will be appointed today to assist health commissioners.

The first work of the deputy state veterianarians and health commissioners will be to inspect the cattle and hogs which have been received in their respective counties from the Chicago stock yards. Names of farmers buying cattle at Chicago since the outbreak of the disease have been obtained and their herds will be inspected for suspicious cases.

A letter concerning the work to be done by the local officers will be sent by the state board of health to each of the county health commissioners. It will state that the foot and mouth disease, although primarily confined to cloven footed animals, is communicable to the human being and thus not only threatens to destroy the stock interests of the state, but directly to affect the health of citizens.

Governor Ralston has assured the state veterianarian that he will support almost any drastic measure he finds necessary to combat the contagion.

"I have been asked numerous times about treatment for cattle and hogs stricken with the foot and mouth disease," said Dr. Nelson. But I tell everybody that treatment of the disease while possible, is out of the question, because one sick animal will spread the contagion to an entire herd. Just as fast as the disease appears the afflicted animal and every animal in the herd exposed to the disease must be killed and buried.

"We think we have made some progress in the fight, though the disease, a most virulent one, has spread to many counties. The last of the infected animals in St. Joseph county was killed today and with guards placed over the healthy animals, we believe that the disease will not reappear there. The foot and mouth disease leaves cows in a lame condition, they lose flesh and give little milk. Their months and feet are covered with sores. The animal is of little value even if it be treated and it recovers, so that it is economy to kill every sick animal found. Farmers have asked me what they may do to keep the disease from spreading to their herds. I have told them to stop visiting, to keep neighbors and others away from their farms and their herds. I consider hunters as a menace and farmers would do well to keep them off their land while this epidemic prevails."

POINTS GREATER DANGER.

Health Officer Contrasts Cattle Plague and Tuberculosis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—The Indiana state board of health has received the following telegram from Dr. A. Z. Ziliak, a health officer at Princeton:

"Fourteen counties affected with the foot and mouth disease. Situation grave. Ninety-two counties affected with human tuberculosis. Situation serene. Nation and state value cows at sixty dollars each. What is the value of a human body?"

Dr. T. Victor Keene, president of the city board of health of Indianapolis, said today that "the state will lose three dollars to every dollar lost on the foot and mouth disease as a result of tuberculosis this year."

A degree team was inaugurated Tuesday evening at a meeting of Degree of Honor lodge, No. 29. Plans were discussed for the giving of a reception in honor of Mrs. Frances Guell Olson, of St. Paul, who will visit Fort Wayne next month. Mrs. Olson is superior chief of the order.

O. B. Wiley and other relatives as well as friends have received the announcement of the wedding of Miss Jane Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wallace, to Frank Earl Ormsby, which took place in Chicago, last Saturday, Nov. 7. Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby will live at 2719 East Seventy-sixth place, Chicago. The bride is a niece of Mr. Wiley, her mother having been Miss Lou Wiley, of this city, before her marriage.

Miss Hazel Gidley entertained the M. F. P. girls on Monday evening at her home in Taylor street. The evening was spent in sewing and later a lunch was served. Music was furnished by the Misses Esther Sauerwein, Mildred Sauerwein, Edna Powers and Ruth Miller. Those present were the Misses Edna Powers, Flossie Dietrick, Marie Steury, Maude Kinsey, Esther Sauerwein, Ruth Miller and Mildred Sauerwein.

Invitations have been received by Fort Wayne friends, to a musicale to be given by a former Fort Wayne young man, Howard Van Sweringen, in Chicago, in the Fine Arts building on Sunday afternoon of November 15. Mr. Van Sweringen is but one of two to be heard in this joint recital, the other participant being M. Jeanette London, pianist. Mr. Van Sweringen, who has a tenor voice of especially beautiful and appealing quality, will be accompanied in his songs by Herman Schuchert, and he will sing Das Wandern, by Schubert, Eros and The Hunter, by Grieg, "Ich habe nur einen Gadanken," by George Schumann, "Ewig mein bleibt," by Schuett, "Ach, weh mir," by Strauss, and a group with English words, "I Attempt from Love's Sickness to Fly," by Purcell; "When Celia Sings," by Moir; "Dearest," by Homer, and "Up from Somerset," by Sanderson.

Schaper—Polhamus.

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday evening when Miss Laura Polhamus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Polhamus, of 717 West Creighton avenue, and Mr. Adolph Schaper, a farmer of Whitley county, were united in marriage by Rev. C. H. Snashall, of the First Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allen, who live near Columbia City, were the attendants. Mrs. Allen is a sister to the bridegroom. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of Rev. Snashall and afterwards the four members of the wedding party returned to the home of the bride, where a wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives. Later in the evening the bride and groom motored to the home of Mr. Schaper's parents, near Columbia City. The groom is a well-to-do farmer and a highly respected young man. The bride has many friends in church and musical circles.

Miss Spindler's Recital.

Miss Helene Spindler has arranged to give her yearly piano recital on next Monday, Nov. 23, in Elks' hall, at 8:15 o'clock. A small admission will be charged. Fort Wayne is usually very ready to recognize this talented young woman who is yet in her 'teens, by attendance at her recitals. With no means other than those she gains by her own efforts, with which to promote her musical talent, Miss Spindler deserves much praise for all that she has accomplished, in earning her way and for the long hours she has put in in improvement.

HER ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — THEN DENIED.

MISS CLEO FREELING.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Cleo Freeling, beautiful St. Louis singer, to Judge W. J. Vesey, of Fort Wayne, which was made in St. Louis, has been denied by the latter.

AT THE EMPRESS.

"Your show is a peach and the price is in reach of my purse, which is now rather slim. Your show is a dandy, it sure takes the candy and tell Mr. Vox I am wild about him. I'm coming again in sunshine or rain, a thousand of horses couldn't keep me away. And all of my pals along with their gals, agree in these things that I say."

One of the Empress patrons who has been particularly delighted with the dandy bill now on view at the Empress, has sent the foregoing poem to the Empress management. Naturally the management is much pleased with this lyrical expression of approval for the present bill.

THE ORPHEUM.

MARY PICKFORD,

Charming Little Star Appears in a Highly Dramatic Sketch.

Little Mary Pickford, daintiest of all screen stars, and the most beloved figure in the world of cinematography, pays a very welcome visit to the Orpheum today in the title role of a highly dramatic sketch, "The Stronger Love." It is a photo-play that will mirror every trick and reveal every angle of the versatile art of this winsome lady, who, through the appeal of her distinguished personality, has created for herself a reputation unequaled in the kingdom of photography. The possibilities extended in this picture have all been realized by Miss Pickford, and she gives us a performance of splendid merit, acting the part with a depth of feeling and a gentle wistfulness of character that alternately brings tears of sympathetic understanding, and smiles of appreciative joy.

On the same bill with Miss Pickford we have Robert Garrick in "The Yellow Streak."

Victor Herbert is one of the contributors on today's musical program, Miss Lyon's giving his melodious "Gypsy Love Song." The orchestra will fill the intermissions with the strains of Sousa's famous "Hand's Across the Sea" march and one of the latest vaudeville classics, "You for Me, and Me for You."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Fiske O'Hara Comes in His New Play, "Jack's Romance," Tomorrow.

Fiske O'Hara, in a new romantic play, will be the attraction at the Majestic tomorrow evening. "Jack's Romance" is the title of the piece, which is from the skilled pen of Augustus Pitou, sr., who not only supplied the clever singing star with "In Old Dublin," but also gave Scanlan and Olcott their greatest successes during the last quarter of a century. The author has selected for his period, that just previous to the American revolution and the action of the play takes place in one of the most picturesque places in the County Wicklow, the greatest of Ireland's beauty spots. There is a car load of stage accessories used in the performance of "Jack's Romance."

AT THE TEMPLE.

NEW BILL AT TEMPLE.

Current One Will Be Supplanted Tomorrow.

Opening tomorrow afternoon the Temple will present a new program of short order amusement, supplanting the current bill which closes with tonight's performances. On the ecoming layout are Johnny O'Connor with Willing, Bentley and Willing in the great comedy success, "Smart Fooling." The sketch is a brand new novelty and should prove one of the most pleasing entertainments local vaudeville fans have enjoyed in months. The acto-author, Dan Mullaley and company, will present Mullaley's own skit, "Miss Thanksgiving," one of the best things this clever writer ever has penned. The half ton of girls and songs, McMaus and Don Carlos, Delmar and Delmar, celebrated aerialists, and the Cycling Brunettes complete the bill.

AT THE LYRIC.

"A Flight for Fortune" is a thrilling melodramatic offering on the Lyric's program for this afternoon and evening. In this picture for the first time in Fort Wayne a flying machine is employed as a regular actor in movie melodrama. The usual three vaudeville acts which have been delighting Lyric friends all week will be succeeded tomorrow afternoon by an entirely different bill.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

"ST ELMO"

There are but a very few people today who have not either read the story or seen the stage version of Augusta Evans' well known novel, "St. Elmo." It was only a matter of bidding among the different producers to see who would eventually produce the picturized version, for there were few of the producing companies who did not realize what a fine subject this would make for the camera. And the brilliant resultant production will prove the truth of that contention, for few stories have adapted themselves to the screen with the facility of this one.

As to the story of the film itself, it is much too well known to bear repetition and as a proof of its penetrative power it might be stated that this is the picture that drew the largest houses ever recorded at the Strand theater in New York.

We have heard words such as "incomparable," "perfect," "wonderful" being used by enthusiasts when discussing the Jefferson orchestra. However, these same words cannot overrate the ability of these fine musicians nor prove too elaborate when discussing the quality of the music rendered. Under the efficient direction of George Bathle, of the European School of Music, this splendid group of musicians have scored an instantaneous success, and their playing is always the occasion for an ovation.

JACK MILLER WATCHING HIS BRIDE-TO-BE SIGN THE LICENSE. FRANK SHANLEY IS ACTING AS MASTER OF CEREMONIES AND "CUPID" GRANT MUNSON WAITS WITH THE SEAL.

When the All-National and All-American star baseball clubs started out from Chicago there were thirteen brides and matrons in the party. Now it is a well known fact that ball players are superstitious, and no good was presaged for a trip when the party started away on account of that 13 "jinx."

But John Bernard Miller, the big first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, who was a member of the All-National outfit, declared he was going to break that jinx as soon as the teams arrived in San Francisco. Joe Bush opened his mouth wide enough to turn a taxicab around in. Joe could not figure how Miller could have courage enough to make such a statement to a predatory band of baseball pirates. The others were likewise surprised.

Miller made good with a vengeance. Accompanied by his bride, Miss Pearl Mitchell Thoroman, of Los Angeles, he waited on "Cupid" Munson, the San Francisco license clerk, and had the necessary "poipers" made out, sealed and delivered. Two hours later he was married, the members his team and the opposing club being in attendance.

Miller met his bride in St. Louis, where she declared his work on the diamond was "just too dear for anything."

Mrs. Miller makes the third bride on the trip. Joe Bush, the Athletic twirler, claimed a bride before leaving, and George Burns, New York Giant star outfielder, did likewise.

MAGNATES READY FOR PEACE TALK

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Leaders of organized baseball and a committee representing the Federal league will meet here Thursday in a conference to determine whether there is to be peace in the baseball world. James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, was the authority for the statement that the "peace" advocates will come to a final decision tomorrow. "We always have been willing to meet organized baseball half way," Gilmore said. "Our 'peace' committee has informed Chairman Herrmann, of the national baseball commission, just how far we would go and what concessions we would make to effect a compromise. Mr. Herrmann in turn told them what organized baseball is willing to do to end the unpleasantness.

"As neither side seems dissatisfied with the demands of the other, it appears as if a working agreement will be reached.

"There is no truth in the rumor that the Federal league will disappear if a compromise is reached. There will be a Federal league next season and it will be a major league. Of course we may have to rearrange our circuit if an agreement is entered in with the organized baseball."

Chairman Herrmann, of the National committee, and B. B. Johnson, president of the American league, and member of the commission, are to attend the conference as representatives of organized baseball, it was said.

READY TO ANNEX MORE TERRITORY

Heilbroner Went to the Meeting All Primed for the Move.

For more than two months before he went to the meeting at Omaha of the national association, President Louis Heilbroner, of the Central league, was working quietly on a scheme to increase the circuit of his organization to eight clubs and he is all ready to submit propositions just as soon as peace is declared.

Mr. Heilbroner has a motto hanging in his office which reads, "Think twice before you speak, and then talk to yourself." He has been following this out closely but the newspapers in the cities which he visited were not as easy to control as he would have liked and here and there notices of his presence crept into their sport columns.

It would not have been wise for the president to have given out any of his proposed plans. He and his associates could not afford to rush into print, and there is no room to question his policy of secrecy. Wheeling is getting ready to join the Central league if it is asked, and at Canton a movement was recently started looking toward the formation of a stock company to put in a club there. A newspaper article that recently appeared there indicated that there had been some communication with the Central league but it did not go into details further than to say that there is a chance to break again into organized baseball.

The old story about Youngstown and Erie has been published so often that it is growing stale and the only difficulty lies in the fact that a club cannot jump from Evansville to Erie between games, and it would be practically impossible to formulate a schedule without a jump of this kind.

Mr. Heilbroner has undoubtedly by this time laid his plans before his directors and they are watching the majors for their cue and will act just as soon as peace negotiations are completed. This will come about. War in baseball is just what a famed general said it was between armed bodies and a compromise is in the air and probably will be announced this week.

Negotiations will be rushed for the reason that some sort of an announcement is due to the national body of the minors and the magnates of the smaller leagues naturally want to know just how to proceed. Mr. Heilbroner has given out an interview at Omaha in which he says the Central will expand in event of peace and take only one more club on to fill out to six if the Federal and organized ball fail to get together.

Salary limits will be fixed at figures that will give the club owners a chance to recoup and the war may have the good effect of bringing about the proper ratio between the money coming in at the gates and that being paid out for salaries and other expenses.

If the baseball magnates had used good judgment in the minors several years ago this ratio could have been established and maintained and if there is a man in the world who can say "I told you so" on this proposition it is Dr. Frank R. Carson, of South Bend, who preached economy year after year and utterly failed to bring his directors to look at the game from his point of view.

Miss Daisy M. Upham, brilliant racquet wielder of the Pacific coast, caught by the camera in action on the Golden Gate tennis courts at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 11.—"Tennis has taken the position of favorite pastime of women," announced Daisy Upham, one of the cleverest exponents of the sport on the Pacific coast.

"Swimmers may disclaim, dancers doubt and golfers question, but the fact remains that more girls are playing than ever before, the standard of skill is higher and the general public is displaying a warmer interest. In my opinion a vote would place tennis at the top of the girls' athletic tree by a large margin.

"Tennis trains the disposition as much as it does the muscles. Doubtful decisions by umpires, games lost by misfortune when victory had seemed well within the grasp, defeat by opponents of unquestioned superiority all these experiences teach a girl to 'play the game of life' in a sportsman way when off the tennis courts.

"Many of those who oppose tennis as a sport for women contend that the girl player becomes afflicted with enlarged feet and a lopsided development. This is not true. I have been playing constantly for five years and my feet have not increased in size a particle and my right forearm is not noticeably larger than my left. Tennis played properly imparts a symmetrical figure. It is unnecessary to hit the ball with great muscular effort to drive it fast. Speed is secured by correct timing. The good shot is always graceful. When the forearm stroke is made the whole right side is relaxed, and the same thing applies to the left side for the backhand stroke. Thus no set of muscles are enlarged at the expense of the others.

"Tennis greatly improves one's dancing. The deft footwork so essential on the netted court makes it easy to acquire the latest steps on the ball-room floor. Also, the tennis player will readily admit that dancing is good training for tennis. If I neglect my racquet for a while, but continue dancing, I find on returning to the tennis court that my footwork is quite satisfactory, and it is only the hitting that requires brushing up.

"San Francisco has more first-class girl players than any city in the world. More women champions have come from here than from any other place. Australians and easterners who come here with reputations find they are unable to compete with the best players of this city. At the world's fair tournament that has been promised the tennis playing women, the girls of this city should be invincible."

HARVARD IS THE STRONGEST TEAM

(By Hugh S. Fullerton).

Out of the scrambled dope of football a few teams are commencing to emerge, but before any team in America can claim a clear championship title it will have to undergo a search to remove clouds.

Harvard, even while Brickleyless, stands out as the probable eastern champion. Its showing against Princeton, when it cut loose fiercely and showed its real strength, is convincing proof that the team did not play its hardest, or else was not pointed for either Penn state or Michigan.

Evidently the Harvard coaches were caught asleep by Penn state, a remarkable minor team, and it is equally evident that the coaches also underestimated Michigan and came dangerously close to a beating by their negligence in failing to get their team into best form.

It would seem, from Harvard's work against Princeton, that on the form of the team that day it could have beaten either Penn state or Michigan, in their form of a week and three weeks before, but Michigan also showed immense improvement against Pennsylvania over its form against Harvard—so there you are.

In the west Illinois now appears strongest, for Stagg's material is not of the best and he has been compelled to make important changes both in the lineup and in his style of play. Minnesota, with rich material, seems floundering, but has a chance to topple the leaders by an unexpected brace. Neither Chicago nor Illinois may claim a clear western title if they win in the conference, as Michigan will dispute that. It looks, though, as if either Chicago or Illinois could more than match Michigan.

The plan of President James, of the University of Illinois, to abrogate the rules of both sections and play a game for the championship, has its drawbacks. Prexy James wants the winners of the titles, east and west, to meet in the greatest stadium in the country—either in Chicago or New Haven, and play for the benefit of the Belgian war sufferers.

It cannot be expected that Michigan would greet this plan with any degree of warmth, since it would be practically ignoring Michigan as an element in western football. Because of the charitable purpose Michigan could not gracefully object.

However, Michigan and Harvard are tied up in agreements, and if Harvard is the eastern champion it would be rather embarrassing for Harvard to ignore Michigan and play Illinois, for instance, for the championship of the United States. Michigan would be inclined to look upon that as recognition by the east that the western conference represents all the football of the west.

IS A CANDIDATE.

Maupome.

Pierre Maupome, who this season plays for Philadelphia instead of St. Louis in the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard league, is a candidate for leading honors. He was caught off his game at the start but has steadied and is playing the angle game in magnificent form. His showing against Hugo Heal, the Toledo expert, proves that he is back in his stride.

FIRST REGIMENT IS COLLEGE CLUB

That's About All Friar Management Knows About Its Opposition.

"Good morning; this is Rinehart."

"Oh, nothing in particular except that the First regiment A. C. football team is made up of college players and is a hum dinger."

"Not coming? That's the first I ever heard of it. I'm going to Chicago to get a certified check as a guarantee if I can induce the club to come across but I don't think it will disappoint us. You see, we play good football here and get dandy crowds and all the clubs want to play us. So long; if I get anything new I'll call you up."

Thus spake Frank Rinehart, publicity promoter of the Friar athletic board. He says he believes that the team booked for the Sunday game is of the same caliber that the others have been, and he sees no reason why it should not put on a good brand.

It would be too late to cancel at this time and get another club for the date and no effort has been made in that direction, according to the publicity man, and he has been in the game long enough to have a pretty good idea of what he is talking about when it comes to booking football teams.

In the meantime there is work going on in camp. Three defeats at the hands of high class independents has shown to the management and the coaches the weak spots of the home crew and the coaches are laboring hard to strengthen where strength is needed.

Playing against strong opposition is the best eye opener the Friars have ever had and they are profiting by what they have learned. There was a stiff workout last night in which especial attention was given to giving protection to the runner carrying the ball and to tackling along with rapid fire formations which are designed to befuddle the enemy.

THE CALL OF THE MOOSE.

(By George Jaap).

Life, like a river, moves swiftly along
To the Sea of Oblivion; the Ocean unknown,
And the Soul takes its flight, I know not where,
Into the Great Ocean; they call it the Air.
When all that is mortal has passed away
And we are reverently laid in the cold clay,
Our duty to mankind we never can shirk

Work, Work, Work; that is no sin,
We work out life to keep life in,
Blind faith has accomplished a great deal of good,
Hope is a thing not yet understood,
But the mantle of charity we throw over all.
Self charity, that is the Great Moose call,
To every P. A. P. I wish him good luck

Work, Work, Work, through the din and the strife,
For that to you is the great Key of Life.
The rich are the drones in the industrial hive,
And work is the thing that keeps them alive.
It is the thing that has peopled the earth;
It comes along with man at his birth,
And to every P. A. P. I say go and win,
And work out life to keep life in.

When the family ties are all torn loose,
The widow, she too, will hear his call.
We are all for one, and one for all.
If fortune, luck or fate ere come your way,
Remember the old Proverbial Rainy Day,

CALLS RUSSIAN ROUT COMPLETE

Berlin, Nov. 11.– Included in the information given out to the press today from official quarters is the following:

"The rout of the Russian battalion near Kelin (thirty-three miles northwest of Ralisz in Russian Poland) by a detachment of German cavalry appears to have been thorough, and while this engagement is without great importance, it shows the offensive spirit of the German troops."

No other news has been received from the eastern area.

"Special dispatches received from Czernowitz, in Bukowina, report important movements of Russian troops are taking place in Bessarabia and east Galicia apparently inspired by the campaign against Turkey. The Vienna Fremdenblatt has published a dispatch from Czerowitz, saying that the Russians on Nov. 9 threw shells into that city, but their batteries speedily were silenced. An advance guard skirmish before Czerowitz ended in a Russian retreat.

"Constantinople reports the continuation of Turkish offensive movements on the Caucasian border in spite of the snow. Other reports received here from Athens declare Turkish operations against Egypt are progressing and that there is much military activity in Syria. The Turkish government declares with emphasis that the report in the Paris Temps of rioting on the part of Turkish Armenians is a flat lie.

"During the past week the specie reserve of the German Imperial bank increased 27,000,000 marks, while the circulation of notes decreased 86,000,000 marks.

"It is reported here from Athens that Bulgaria has refused to adopt the anti-Turkish attitude suggested by the triple entente powers in return for the promise of the addition of Adrianople to Bulgarian territory.

"The Bulgarian minister at Rome has said in an interview that Bulgaria demands the restitution of territory inhabited by Bulgarians. Bulgaria will keep neutral in the present war, the minister declared and under no circumstances will she fight Turkey.

"The president of the Turkish chamber of deputies, Haliel Bey, has arrived at Bucharest, Roumania, on a special mission."

One of the German prisoners of war in England has written a letter to the Frankfurter Zeitung in which he declares that, as a result of bad treatment, bad food, bad housing in cold barracks, forty-six out of 700 German prisoners died within one week of pneumonia and typhoid fever. There were no wounded men among these prisoners.

Lieutenant General Hellingrath, inspector of German military roads with headquarters at Cambrai, in northern France, is making public exhibitions of dum-dum bullets found on British prisoners and also of British rifles equipped with a contrivance to cut off and perforate the points of bullets.

GOOD CHEER FOR LITTLE FELLOWS

Good cheer for the children of Fort Wayne's poor will be dispensed very much after the same manner as it was last year through the medium of the Sentinel-Empress theater fund and an early start will enable the committees in charge of the affair to get into the markets while they are fresh and full in order to make the selections of the presents that will be purchased.

Although the weather department is supplying a brand that has no suggestion of a snow and jingling sleighbells that serve to make "it more like Christmas," the youngsters who were beneficiaries last year are beginning to take notice and are making inquiries so they can arrange their juvenile affairs in a way to permit them to attend the show and the distribution.

Funds will be received from now on at the Sentinel office in spite of the fact that it is a bit earlier than such lists are usually opened, but it is hoped by this method to avoid the rush and confusion that is bound to follow delays.

This has a distinct advantage in giving opportunity to look over the lists that are to be supplied through every available channel, sorting out the duplicates that naturally occur and buying for each of the children such things as are best suited.

Practically the fund has been started. Twenty-five dollars to be invested in good, warm stockings for the little fellows was the opening offering and it comes from a young lady of Fort Wayne who is deeply interested in charity and who wanted to be the first to make a donation although she refrained from giving her name for publication.

As has been repeatedly said there will be plenty of deserving poor to be cared for at Christmas. Mothers who are working day and night to keep together the children sent to them, who eke out a bare existence, fathers of large families and small earning capacity and poor lots whose parents have been taken from them, send out a strong appeal this year.

There will be no embarrassment in the manner of giving. Tickets will be sent out as they were last year entitling the children receiving them to admittance to the show and a share in the distribution. No names wil be given out and every effort made to entertain the deserving without imposing any burden upon them by holding up their poverty to the public.

Last year people responded so cheerfully that the fund was ample before Christmas arrived and the boks were closed. This leads to the belief that it will be larger this year and an early start is being made with a view of carrying out the plan on a scale in keeping with the well-known charity of the people of Fort Wayne.

NOTES OF THE CITY HALL.

Arrangements were perfected Wednesday by the board of public works under which Harry McAfee and Ephriam Arter will deed to the city the property at the southwest corner of Lawton park for an approach for the proposed Fourth street bridge over Spy Run creek.

There was an assessment of $70 against the property but it was worth more money and they voluntarily offered to give it to the city and will make the proper conveyances.

Mr. Arter will also give a corner of one of his lots for the purpose of opening Herman street and connecting it with Sherman. There will be some assessments necessary to make the improvement and Engineer Randall will prepare a plan.

TO OUT-OF-TOWN CUSTOMERS

Fort Wayne is the metropolis of northeastern Indiana. It merits, ought to get and generally does get that part of the trade of the citizens of surrounding counties which cannot be supplied by their home stores. As an Indiana city it should have and generally does receive the preference over large cities out of the state.

Fort Wayne stores at all times—not simply for a week, but all the time—give special inducements to out-of-town trade. This store always gives this trade a 5 per cent. discount for cash. It packs all goods purchased without charge. Where the purchase amounts to $10 or more it prepays freight charges. We want our goods to cost the people of surrounding towns not a cent more than they cost our customers just around the corner from our store.

MALINES IS NOW PICTURE OF RUIN

Former 60,000 Inhabitants Have Dwindled to Barely 10,000.

Malines, Oct. 30.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Barely ten thousand of Malines' former residents remain in this ruined city and thousands who are still here cannot stay after the beginning of cold weather unless outside funds are provided to repair shattered roofs and walls wrecked by the German field guns.

Before the German invasion Malines had 60,000 inhabitants and was an important art and manufacturing center. St. Rombold, one of the most interesting church buildings in Europe, dates back to the fifteenth century and contained an altar piece which was one of Van Dykes' masterpieces. St. John's church and the Church of Our Lady contained paintings of Rubens. The historic palace of justice was once the home of Margaret, of Austria.

Malines is half way between Antwerp and Brussels, on the principal stone road connecting the two great cities of Belgium. Like most ancient cities, Malines has narrow streets. The main traveled street, along which nearly all traffic moves, in passing northward toward Antwerp, is scarcely thirty feet wide from curb to curb and has many turns in it which make the passage of an enemy exceedingly difficult. Stone and brick businesss houses and residence three or four stories high, built in a continuous line, stood along this street. Many of these were battered down completely by the German artillery and the debris filled the street so completely that only enough has been cleared away in places to permit the passage of a single automobile.

Where fire did not spread to the wrecked buildings the ruined stocks of merchandise and the broken furniture of their living apartments in the upper stories may be still seen. Such food supplies as were useful for the army was taken by the German officers and soldiers are billetted in the houses which are still fit for hbitation.

Malines is intersected by several arms of the river Dyle and is practically surrounded by a canal and wide boulevard. Visitors entering the city from the south are challenged by German soldiers standing guard at the canal bridge and are again stopped as they enter the great medieval stone arch forming the entrance to the main portion of the old city.

Factories along the river and canal shared the same fate as residences, business houses and churches. The great railway shops were ruined. Hat factories, tapestry factories, woolen mills and starch factories, which furnished employment to thousands, were wrecked by artillery fire. Trenches in the sandy beet fields which flank the highways leading into Malines and thousands of rifle pits show hof stubbornly the Belgians resisted the Germans. Many of the trenches are so long they resemble drainage ditches. They are from three to five feet deep and about three feet wide. In many places they are covered with planks and timbers upon which brush is piled to afford protection against shells. The rows of once beautiful elms that lined the highway were torn and shattered by the rain of bullets and shells. Where the trees were obstacles to artillery fire they were cut down and used as shelter by the soldiers. Hedges were mowed down by the Germans wherever they afforded a screen for the Belgians. The small fields, none of which contains more than ten acres, where the crops were not burrowed out by the entrenching army, were so trampled over by the rival forces that little remains of the potatoes, beets and cabbage which would have sustained Belgium this winter.

A few horses unfit for work remain in the fields and the faithful dogs, which are harnessed beneath the high two-wheeled cars of the peasants, are about the only domestic animals left. It is no uncommon sight to see a family of refugees on the Malines road with their bedding, a few household utensils and children too young to walk, loaded on one of these carts, pushed by a tired mother, assisted by the dog tugging patiently.

BIG AUDIENCE HEARS CONWELL

An audience that completely filled Westminster Presbyterian church heard Dr. Russell H. Conwell in "Acres of Diamonds," as the opening number of the Woman's league lecture course, Tuesday evening, and enjoyed two hours of rare delight.

The noted Philadelphia clergyman, for more than fifty years a platform star, preached again his gospel of opportunity close at hand and despite the fact that the lecture has been given again and again, it loses nothing of its perpetual charm and freshness. The keynote throughout is that it is man's duty to gain wealth, and that it is not only possible for everyone to do so, but to find it close at hand if the most is made of immediate surroundings. Dr. Conwell referred to his frequent visits to Fort Wayne in former years and while he complimented the city on its growth and advancement, he declared that it might have been much more pronounced had the spirit running through "Acres of Diamonds" been the actuating one through all these years. Despite his age Dr. Conwell is still a vigorous speaker with a tremendous message.

Rev. C. H. Snashall introduced the speaker. At the opening Rabbi Lovitch explained that the sale of tickets had not yet been sufficient to defray the expenses of the course of six lectures, and he urged extra effort in that direction. In the next number, to be given December 8 by Glen Frank, a change has been made from Professor W. Scott's theme,

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

PENNSYLVANIA'S NEW CABIN CAR

First Reconstructed Caboose on Order for 600 is Out of Shop.

Master Car Builder James A. Graham, of the Pennsylvania, has just completed and turned out of the shops the first reconstructed cabin car built on lines to meet the requirements of the new law bearing on cabooses used in the United States.

The standard caboose, or cabin car, on the Pennsylvania, has been a short box affair, with cupola, set on four wheels and there are 600 of these cars in service on the Western division. The new law requires that cabooses must have eight wheels, two trucks of four wheels each. As fast as the old cabin cars can be taken through the shops they will be reconstructed with solid steel underframes, two pair of four wheel trucks, a three foot platform on each end, with steps on each side, and numerous other improvements, making them practically new cars.

There are twenty men now engaged in the work of reconstructing the cabooses at the east shops and they will hereafter turn out about twenty-five of them each month. The reconstructed cars are classed N-6-A and bear on their side "Pennsylvania Lines," in large letters and in smaller letters the information that they are constructed according to the "United States Safety Appliance Standard."

No. 996,372, illustrated elsewhere in the Sentinel, was the first to be turned out of the shops and was run down to the old yards this morning for inspection by the division officials. The steel underframes of this car weigh 6,400 pounds and the completed caboose weighs 34,500 pounds. The main body is twenty-four feet long and the platforms are three feet wide, making the total length about thirty-two feet. The body is painted the standard caboose red, trimmed with black, while the trucks, air pump and other exposed parts are black.

The interior arrangement of the car is far superior to that of the old style cabin car, being much larger and containing greater accommodations for the trainmen. In one end is the conductor's bench, which also serves as a bed; a writing table, which is hung on hinges to the wall, is dropped down out of the way when not in use; cubby holes for papers, etc., and a stove. The latter is called the "Estate" stove and was designed especially for caboose use. It has two lids, an oven and ample firebox and each door and lid is locked so it can not be opened by the jar of the train, thus minimizing danger from fire while moving over the road or in a wreck.

In the center of the caboose are lockers on each side, a refrigerator and cupboard on one side and on the other side a closet with shelves and cubby holes for carrying waste or any other articles needed by the trainmen in their work. The other end of the caboose is fitted with four berths, two lower and two upper, for sleeping purposes. The upper berths can be dropped down when not in use, thus giving free access to the lower berths for seating purposes. All are upholstered in leather.

In the center of the cabin car is a commodious cupola with four upholstered seats, two facing in each direction.

The work of changing the cabin cars comes at an opportune time, for there is a scarcity, or rather an inclination to curtail car repair work, because there is little demand for them on the road. Reconstructing the cabin cars is being carried on as rapidly as the twenty men engaged at it can do it. This is as large a force as can be conveniently handled in that line of work at present.

DISINFECTING CATTLE CARS.

Pennsylvania Puts Gang Out on Line With Equipment.

Foreman O. E. Shaffer, of the car repair shops at the east yards, and ten men started out this morning with a specially equipped train to disinfect the 450 to 500 cattle cars on the Western division of the Pennsylvania, in accordance with the law which says that no stock car can be moved out of the state until it has been thoroughly disinfected against the foot and mouth disease. It is said that it will take thirty minutes to thoroughly disinfect a car and if this is true, Mr. Shaffer and his gang have a task on hand that will keep them busy several weeks. They will first operate between Fort Wayne and Clark Junction and then take the Crestline end of the division. Their train consists of an engine, a coach, a caboose and a box car. The latter is fitted up with tanks for the cresol compound, the disinfecting fluid, and with pumps for drawing water from the engine tender to be used in making the compound. As some of the tanks are being used, those that have been emptied can be refilled, thus allowing operations to proceed without delay. The train is in charge of Conductor S. A. Miller and Engineer Rufus Ormiston.

HORSES FOR ENGLISH ARMY.

Seven hundred and fifty horses, loaded at the National Stock Yards in St. Louis, passed through Fort Wayne at 9 o'clock this morning, over the Wabash road, en route for Montreal, where they will be loaded aboard steamers and sent to England for use in the armies of the allies. There are thirty cars in the train and it is handled on a fast schedule as Wells-Fargo express matter. This is one of the largest of the several shipments of horses for export to pass through this city since the war began.

FIFTY YEARS OLD.

Division 12, B. L. E., to Celebrate December 11.

Division No. 12, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is issuing invitations to a dance at Minuet hall, Friday evening, December 11. The division will be fifty years old on that date and the anniversary will be celebrated in this manner. Only invited guests will be admitted to the dance.

THE RADIATOR EXPLODED.

A high pressure steam radiator in the office of Claim Agents K. L. Sheeler and John P. Murray, of the Pennsylvania, exploded at 5:30 o'clock last evening. The room was not occupied at the time and Lieuts. Clark and Strasser and Clerk Carl Roembke, of the police department, had to break the lock to get into the room to turn off the steam. Only slight damage to pictures and furniture resulted from the steam, which filled the room.

TONY KELKER ILL.

Tony Kelker, retired Pennsylvania engineer, is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rodaheaver, at 412 Ross street. He has been ailing for some weeks, but until the past few days was able to be out on the streets. Mr. Kelker ran the first engine on this part of the Pennsylvania, when the road was under construction.

NEW STOREHOUSE MAN.

O. J. Baals, who resigned the position of storekeeper at the Pennsylvania round house some days ago, has been succeeded by E. B. Noble. The latter was formerly material distributor at the down town store house.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Division Engineer W. S. Danes, of the Wabash, is in the city today on business for the company.

Trainmaster H. W. Loomis, of the Lake Shore, was a Fort Wayne caller yesterday.

Brakeman C. L. Lathrop, of the Nickel Plate railroad, is off duty to spend two weeks with relatives in Michigan.

The vaudeville people at the Empress will have an extra sleeper on G. R. & I. train No. 5 tonight, en route to Grand Rapids.

W. F. Sprandle, Pennsylvania lineman, and his wife, are both sick. He has been unable to work for two or three days.

Hammersmith Harry Shives, of the Bass blacksmith shop, has gone to the country near Monroeville to visit relatives and to incidentally do some quail and rabbit shooting.

C. A. Contant, the expert locksmith and mechanic, went to Bourbon yesterday to unlock a safe which refused to respond to the usual methods. Mr. Contant opened the treasure box in a few minutes.

Barney Bangert, who is nearly seventy years old, resigned his position at the Wabash round house yesterday and has been succeeded by Timothy Murphy, who was furloughed about a year ago.

Next Monday the Nickel Plate will inaugurate a daily sleeping car service between Chicago and Boston. This car has been in service only six days of the week.

Seven seamless knitting machines were sold last week by the Wayne Knitting mills to a Philadelphia firm and new machines replaced them in the local plant, enabling the Wayne mills to turn out a better product.

Conductor A. L. Osborne, of the Nickel Plate, who has been spending the last two weeks in Ohio recovering from an injury to his leg, returned to Fort Wayne yesterday, but will not resume work for several days.

The proposed plans for a local sick and death benefit by the Barbers' union will be considered and possibly approved at a meeting of the executive board tomorrow night in the Werkman & Hudson barber shop.

Thieves removed from a cabin car in the Pennsylvania yards Monday three coats and a pair of new shoes belonging to a conductor. Two of the coats were of the type worn by passenger men when dressed in uniform.

Z. T. Dungan, Wabash claim agent, is the secretary also of the Huntington school board, which is at present considering a proposition to build a new high school building. Mr. Dungan is well known in every city, town and hamlet along the Wabash road.

Mr. and Mrs. Dinkle Lexington, who [illegible] prised guests of honor at a party given at the home of Harry Leeper last night. There were about twenty guests and each took part in the presentation of articles so dear to the newly married people. Mr. Levington is a clerk at the Bass blacksmith shop.

The Pennsylvania Manhattan limited, eastbound, was in two sections today, the second section being occupied by delegates to American Federated Manufacturers' association and to the Investment Bankers' association, the former at Washington and the latter at Philadelphia.

Sunday a train load of cannons passed through Huntington, over the Erie road. They were consigned to the Beth Steel company, Vancouvre, B. C., where they will, it is believed, receive their attachments and then be sent to some part of Europe to do service in the war. The railway officials and others accompanying the consignment would not give out any definite information concerning the ultimate destination of the cannon, if they knew anything about it.

The body of A. E. Bugher, the telegraph operator, who was drowned at Howe a few days ago, passed through the city, accompanied by some of the relatives, on its way to Upland, where burial was made today. The death of this young man has resulted in some changes in the ranks of the G. R. & I. operators. D. J. Harrod was sent to Howe to fill the vacancy and W. A. Firestone has succeeded Harrod at the Spy Run tower.

Chief among the rooters for the Sons of St. George team in the contest for football honors with an Indianapolis Siccer team in this city Sunday will be the employes in the general testing room at the Fort Wayne Electric works, where Samuel Anglin, one of the players, is employed. Mr. Anglin, who attended the King's college at Dublin before leaving his native country, attained a reputation as a football player and some good work is expected from him.

POLICE BOARD DEFIED.

Jeffersonville Council Refuses Appropriation for Salaries.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 11.—Notice has been served on Mike Wall, superintendent of police, by John Snyder, city clerk, that only $425.97 remains in the police and jail fund, which will be insufficient to pay November salaries, amounting to $492.

The salary of each member of the force was increased $10 a month, last March, by the police board over the protest of the majority faction of the council. The clerk refused to pay the increased salaries, but was ordered to do so on the ground that there was sufficient money available. The council refuses to appropriate money to meet the salary expense, and the clash of authority between the police board and the council will come to a direct issue in court.

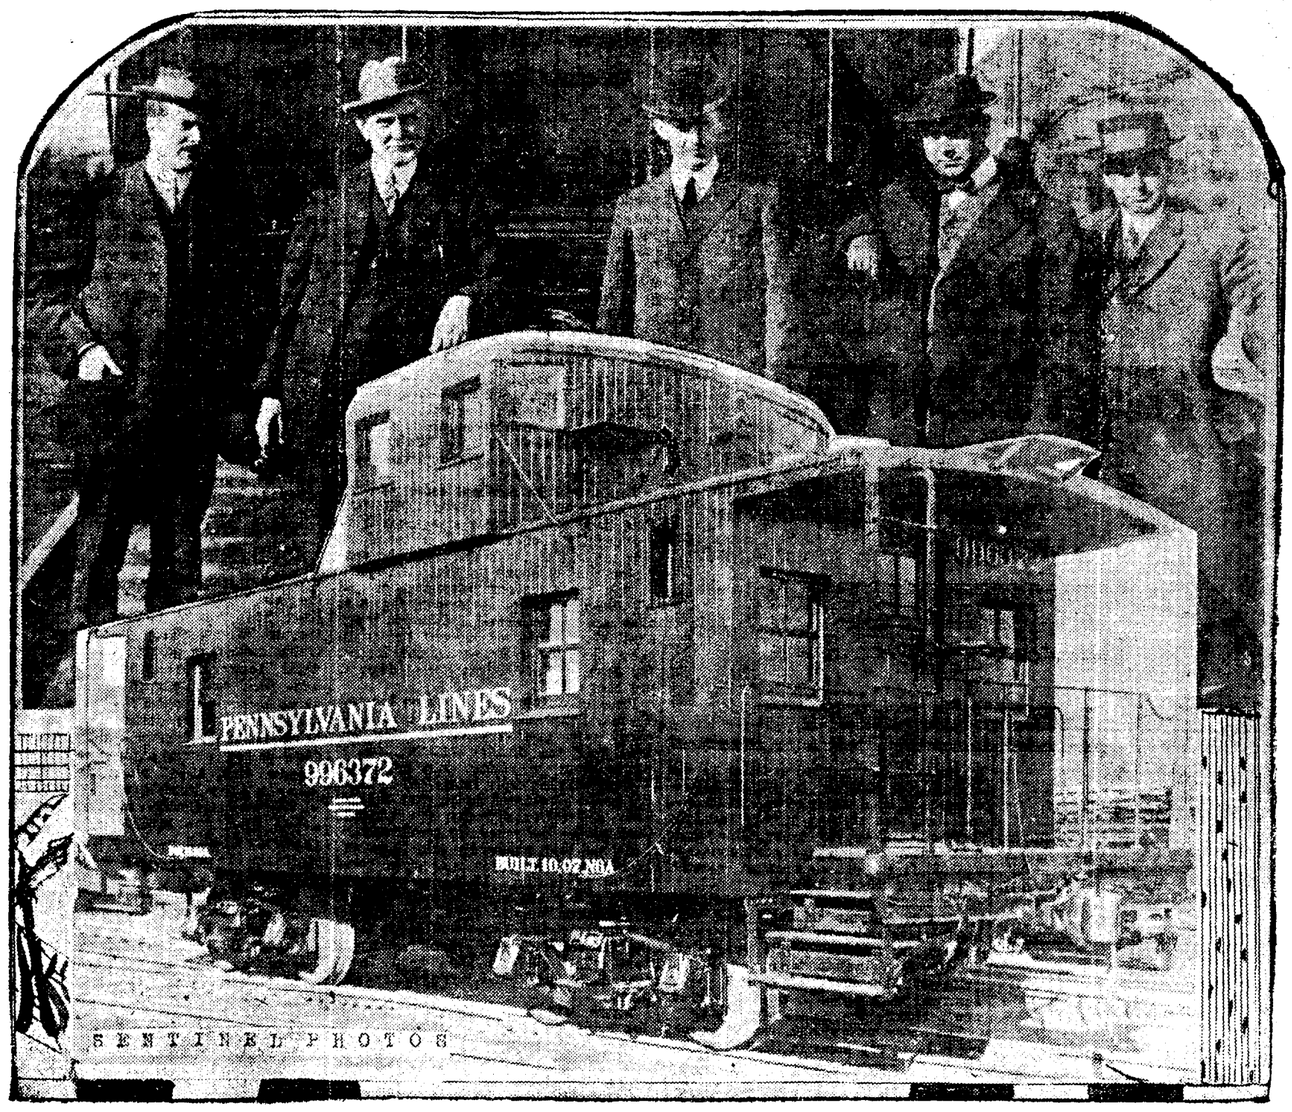
First Reconstructed Cabin Car Turned out of Pennsylvania Shops in Fort Wayne



A very important work at the Pennsylvania car shops, in the eastern part of the city, at present is the reconstruction of the old style four wheeled cabin cars to conform with the federal laws bearing on that subject. There are about 600 of these cabooses to be remodeled and the Sentinel presents above a picture of the first to leave the shops, No. 996,372, and some of the officials of the road and shops. The personnel of the group, reading from the left to the right, is: Supt. W. M. Wardrop, Master Car Builder J. A. Graham, Acting Master Mechanic E. E. Greist, Trainmaster C. L. Hamilton and Division Engineer Guy Scott.

ACTION WOULD CLOSE FACTORY

Beet Sugar Plant at Decatur Must Use the St. Mary's River.

"If we are not permitted to empty our refuse into the St. Mary's river we will have to close down our plant."

The above statement was made to Deputy Wardens James Connell and George Wyatt by an official of the Beet Sugar factory at Decatur. To close down the plant at this time would throw hundreds of men and women out of employment right at a time when winter is near at hand. So it was a pretty big question for the two deputies—in fact, so big that they returned to Fort Wayne to consult with Chief Game Warden Rodney Fleming before filing any affidavits or taking any action whatever.

The game wardens are up against the question of whether the fish now inhabiting the waters of the St. Mary's river are more important than the work which is afforded to the hundreds of men and women by the operation of the Decatur plant.

Another reason why no affidavits were filed was because the judge of the Adams circuit court is in recess and it will be twenty days before court will convene. In the meantime the fish in the river are dying by the hundreds, all because of what the state chemist calls soured vegetation.

Thousands of gallons of water from the river are used by the Decatur plant to wash the beets and is then again emptied back into the river. It is the water which has been used in the washing process that is causing all the trouble, it is said.

MENEFEE WORKMAN DIES OF INJURIES

Alexander Posnoviski, a foreigner, who was seriously injured Tuesday noon at the Menefee foundry when he was caught in some unknown manner in a belt, died at the St. Joseph hospital Wednesday at 11:45 a. m., where he was removed immediately following the accident.

The unfortunate man, who was 32 years of age, lived with his wife and four children at 1138 Hayden street, and had been employed at the Menfee foundry for the last three years, and was well liked by all those with whom he associated. He was a member of the St. Hyacinth Polish Catholic church.

Posnoviski was assisting John Manier, another employe, in repairing a belt attached to the line shaft and in some manner unseen to any one else he was caught on the shaft and the belt wrapped about his body, whirling him around several times. His left leg was broken in several places and he suffered other injuries all over his body, rendering him unconscious. His condition was very critical and no hopes were given for his recovery from the first.

OFFERED TO ANGELL.

Chicago Man May Head University of Washington.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—James Rowland Angell, dean of all the faculties at the University of Chicago, has been offered the presidency of the University of Washington, it was learned today. The dean, who is a son of James B. Angell, president emeritus of the University of Michigan, is said to be in Seattle in connection with the offer.

Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago, said that while he could not speak for Dean Angell, the latter's refusal in the past to leave Chicago has led his colleagues to believe he would remain here.

NOT THE SALOON MAN.

Carl Wehrle, mentioned in connection with the raid of a gaming house on Calhoun street Saturday night, and fined under an assumed name in the city court on Monday, is not the saloon keeper of the same name with a place of business on Fairfield avenue. The saloon man's friends have been making inquiries that prompted him to ask this statement.

Mr. and Mrs. Van B. Rogers, 912 West DeWald street, are the proud parents of a nine and a half pound baby girl that was born early Wednesday morning.

REMAINS ARRIVE TONIGHT.

The remains of George Kreig, who died suddenly in Chicago, while his wife was here attending to her aged mother, who is sick, will arrive in Fort Wayne Wednesday evening at 7:50 o'clock over the Pennsylvania. The remains will be taken to the Klaehn & Melching undertaking parlors, where funeral services will be held later.

CITY BREVITIES

Shortly after 6 o'clock Wednesday morning the fire department made a run to the residence of Byron Hattersley, 427 Old Fort place, where some waste paper in the kitchen had accidentally become ignited. The blaze was quickly extinguished and aside from a hole that was burned in the floor there was little damage.

The fire department was called to the Wayne Knitting mills at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, where smoke from a hotbox in the machinery had prompted some frightened employe to turn in the alarm.

HUSBAND FAILED TO MEASURE UP

Said He Was Robust and Earned Big Wages and Had No Debts.

Helen R. Hazzard says in a complaint filed in the superior court today in which she asks the annulment of her marriage to Frank Hazzard that he didn't measure up to the standard he proclaimed during his courtship.

She alleges he told her he was robust in body and mind, earned $3 a day, was capable of working all the time and owed nothing. Instead, she charges he has weak lungs, is unable to perform sufficient labor to make the $3 a day he said he could make, is feeble in mind and body and is afflicted with "spells."

They were married July 1, 1914, and lived together until November 7. She was formerly Helen R. Miller, lives at 1202 Anthony boulevard and asked to have him restrained from annoying her or disposing of his possessions. Phil B. Colerick is her attorney.

Sues for Damages.

In a damage suit against Kenneth Archibald, Mabel Carpenter says that she was driving through Cedarville on October 8, of this year, when Archibald drove an automobile against her buggy, threw her out and inflicted serious external and internal injuries from which she has since suffered. She demands $1,000 damages. P. B. Colerick filed the action.

Angle Is Sentenced.

Sheridan Angle was sentenced in the circuit court Wednesday to from one to fourteen years in the Jeffersonville reformatory for grand larceny.

In company with his wife he stole last summer a horse and buggy from Robert Elliott at Monroeville and was caught after a chase by Sheriff Gladieux. His wife was with him at the time, but was released on account of the fact that she was in a delicate condition.

Divorce Matters Heard.

The divorce suit of Nellie Johns against Cedric Johns, filed some time ago in the superior court, has been dismissed.

Plans All on File.

All plans for the Harrison street bridge over St. Mary's river have been filed with the county commissioners and bids will be received up to November 19. Asa W. Grosvenor, Adams and Cummins, of Detroit, the National Concrete company and George Jaap have submitted plans.

Notes of the Courts.

James Taylor has sued for a divorce from Mabel Taylor, to whom he was married October 23, 1912, and from whom he separated October 23, 1914. Abandonment is charged. McAdams & Hartzell are his attorneys.

M. S. Wilson, prohibition candidate for state representative, has filed a statement showing that he expended $10.75 in the campaign.

Attorney Henry F. J. Reiter, progressive candidate for judge of the superior court, also filed a statement. He makes oath that he did not spend a cent and made no promises.

In superior court Carl R. Guyer entered suit against Anna Guyer for divorce. The couple lived together five months. They were married May 28, 1914 and separated October 31, 1914. McAdams & Hartzell represent him.

The case of Daisy Fryer against Pearl Fryer has been dismissed in superior court.

Elvin J. Wilkinson has filed an appeal bond of $2,000 in the circuit court. He was recently convicted in the city court of operating a second-hand store without a license. Jesse Brosius signed the bond. Attorney T. E. Ellison has filed a motion to dismiss the suit on the grounds that the complaint and affidavit do not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

After testifying that her husband had been abusive and had beaten her once so violently that she permanently lost the hearing of one ear, Clara L. Wester was granted a divorce from N. William Wester.

PAY WAR HONORS TO VANQUISHED

German Governor of Tsing Tau and Officers Retain Swords.

"Permitted to capitulate instead of surrendering unconditionally the former governor of Tsing Tau and his officers were, in compliance with the gracious wish of the Japanese emperor allowed to wear their swords and maintain soldier's honor. Captain Meyer Waldeck said:

"Four or five days prior to the surrender of the forces the wireless station was destroyed, making it impossible longer to communicate with Peking. The successful storming of Bismark fort by the attacking soldiers, who recklessly hurled themselves at us by making human bullets of their bodies, sealed the fate of Tsing Tau. It then became evident the garrison could not longer hold itself against the shelling of heavy artillery. To have done so would have swelled the list of casualties and nothing would have been gained. That forced me to raise the white flag.'

"The German charge d'affaires at Peking says that Tsing Tau fell two weeks sooner than was expected.

"The governor with 2,300 officers and men will be transported to Japan as prisoners on Nov. 12.

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 11.—A three-story reinforced concrete building under construction here by George H. Lynas collapsed yesterday afternoon, carrying down fourteen workmen with the mass of gravel and timber which was precipitated into the basement, together with the concrete mixer installed on the third floor. Henry Shepard was killed when he was crushed under the concrete mixer. The seriously injured are: Edward Snokes, arm broken and leg cut; Robert McDill, colored, head cut, leg and hand crushed; John Call, head cut and arm crushed; Albert Jones, Andrew Simmons and Vaille Petrie, carpenters, each injured about head and back.

The accident resulted from overweighting the third floor with concrete materials, it is said.

Quantities of wet gravel to be used in making the concrete floor were hauled up and dumped in the middle of the building where the mixer stood. The supporting beams were not sufficiently reinforced and they gave way, precipitating the entire mass into the basement.

Directly under the falling gravel and timbers were two blacksmiths working on a wagon. They heard the timbers give and got out from under in time to escape injury.

George Lynas, the owner, was constructing the building under his own personal direction. He was on the third floor when the building collapsed, but clung to some timbers and escaped injury.

STEPS FROM NEW DANCES—THE "BEAUTIFUL MAXIXE."

Margaret Hawkesworth — Basil Durant.

The mazes of the maxixe are mystifying no longer.

Of course there are variations of the dance, such as the lulu fado, which only the advanced disciples of the modern dance are attempting, but the real regular maxixe will be easy for everybody this winter.

The first movement is the promenade, the second, the single arch; the third movement is the skating step, a long, sliding step; the fourth movement is the twining skating step. In the fifth movement, called la coquette, each partner dances a few steps to one side of the other while the hands remain clasped. The sixth movement is the double arch, where all four arms are raised; the seventh movement, the spinning step; the eighth and final movement, la maxixe itself.

BE PREETY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Adv.

FOREIGN TRADE IS NOW BIGGER

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—The demoralization of American commerce caused by the European war is now a thing of the past!

Facts and figures prove it. Your Uncle Samuel has again resumed his big job of selling his surplus products to other peoples—and that means more and more work for Americans; less unemployment, and fewer idle factories.

I have just secured at the department of commerce first estimate of American exports and imports for October. The figures are surprisingly cheering after hearing so many pessimistic prophecies of the "ruin of American commerce and industry."

Listen to these:

A jump in October export figures of approximately $44,000,000, bringing the balance of trade in favor of American shippers up to $60,000,000, is the estimate issued by officials of the department of commerce.

In August the value of imports exceeded exports by $20,000,000, but since the resumption of trade relations interrupted by the war the pendulum has been rapidly swinging back.

The growth of October exports is shown by the weekly figures of exports compiled for the ten principal ports of the country, on which the department's estimates are based. These are New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Galveston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Detroit, Seattle and Buffalo. For the week of October 4 to 10, the exports from these ten ports were $34,890,000.

During the following week they decreased by $6,000,000.

In the third week of October they jumped to more than $38,000,000.

In the final week of the month they totalled $45,900,000.

The department estimates that the total exports for the month will amount to approximately $200,000,000, with imports amounting to $140,000,000.

If this proportion should be maintained, the October export figures will show an increase over those of May, when trade conditions were practically normal, of more than $35,000,000!

The detailed figures for all export ports will not be available before the middle of the month.

BEST COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

NOW WANT WOMEN IN LEGISLATURE

Gentler Sex Has Begun a Lively Crusade in California.

Los Angeles, Nov. 11.—"The inability of each sex to completely grasp the viewpoint, standards and ideals of the other makes it necessary that we have both men and women in our law-making body."

leading clubwomen of the state, the first woman's party of a political complexion has been organized to campaign in support of Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey's candidacy for the state assembly from Los Angeles.

Over 500 prominent women of various political persuasions and stations in life have enrolled in the organization.

"Every woman who has kept in touch with what has been done at the state capital feels it is high time to introduce women representatives in the law-making body," said Mrs. Francisco, who has taken a prominent part in establishing the nucleus of the woman's party here.

"There should be an unconscious consciousness of woman in the legislature—of feminine standards and ideals. I hope to see at least one-third of our legislators women by another session or two.

"This does not mean," she explained "that there will ever be a woman's party in California. That idea is abhorrent to every woman I know. But certainly our sex should have actual representation in the legislature.

"We feel that with one or more women sitting in the assembly and in the senate the feminine viewpoint will permeate our law-making bodies as subconsciously as the masculine viewpoint now holds it. We want the two standards blended.

ACID MOUTH—LOOSE TEETH CORRECTED.

Everyone should avoid exposing the teeth to extremes of temperature, says the London Chronicle. Hot and cold substances have a tendency to break the enamel, and when these cracks are exposed to dental microbes there is danger for the teeth, as infestments occur in which the tiny little animal microbes bore their way through the enamel, gradually eating big holes into the large molars. When the frontal teeth are attacked one may have to fill the holes with gold, which at once is a disfigurement and a source of dissatisfaction.

Teeth extraction is always to be avoided—pull a tooth and you make room for more tooth trouble. The teeth separate from one another or come together too closely for teeth comfort, gum separation, yellow coating of the enamel, blackened teeth inside the mouth bring on a train of troubles. You soon have bleeding gums, ulcerated teeth, distortions, sensitiveness to ordinary heat or cold, a desire to dig the teeth, protruding or receding teeth, and then come insanitary, uncleanly false or store teeth.

Now, all these conditions may be avoided if you will go to your druggist and get about four ounces of fluid ergan (you won't need more) and use a teaspoonful morning, noon and night, working it about the teeth for a minute or so. The gritty substances will be dissolved, the soreness will disappear over night, sensitiveness will soon depart, and the dirty yellow will be cleaned off and you will see the white of your own enamel, your teeth will be firm and strong—try your finger on them—and you won't have to pull the offending molar.

DESPONDDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa.: "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism.

It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. GETS SIX CENTS FOR HOURLY PAY

Child Desertion Case Shows Mother Working for This Small Sum.

In introducing testimony upon which Leroy Scott was held in the city court Wednesday under a bond of $1,000 to the circuit court on a charge of child neglect, it was shown that Agnes Scott, his divorced wife, works nine and a half hours a day for from 60 to 65 cents and that her weekly average is a little over $3.50.

She lives with her mother at 1442 Broadway and a child of four years is being kept by an uncle and one of three is in the Allen county orphans' home because she is not able to support it. She told the story of her small earnings in giving her testimony.

She said that she separated from Scott and secured a divorce and he agreed to pay $10 a month for the support of the children but that he had failed since last March to give one cent. A warrant for his arrest was served by Detectives Rundle and Brennan and he had no good excuse to offer for his neglect.

Polley Held for Week.

In order to make some investigations Cecil Polley was held for a week under a bond of $300 on a charge of loitering. He gives his residence as Akron and was arrested Tuesday by Detective Spillner and Pappert.

He gave a check for $15 at the Higbee restaurant and got part of the money. Later he is said to have obtained the check to get it cashed and failed to return to reimburse the proprietor who had advanced him a small sum. The police will find out whether or not the check is good.

The Other Cases.

Claude Oxx, agent for a Chicago picture enlarging house, was held on a vagrancy charge until Friday. Mrs. Albert Bacon, of Jefferson township, found him in her house Tuesday, she said, and he was arrested but had disturbed nothing. He flatly denied he had been in the house. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Courdevey and Mills.

Charles Urner confessed after he had applied for lodging at police station that he was an army deserter and was held for the authorities.

Claude Siples, charged with an assault upon Joe Vlatchi at the new Palace theater building, was let go with orders to report on Thursday morning. He hit Vlatchi in the mouth after he had been discharged.

George Bender, plain drunk, was let go and so was John McLieth, who was released after serving eleven days and proceeded to get drunk right off the reel.

RESENT FEDERAL CONTROL.

Northwestern States Say It Puts Them at Disadvantage.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 11.—The feeling of the northwestern states that the federal control of natural resources places them at a disadvantage, received vigorous expression here today through Gov. Wm. S. Fry, of Utah, who addressed the governors' conference.

In fact the day was set aside for consideration of "state control of natural resources," and this part of the program was interrupted only by a luncheon at Lathrop hall, University of Wisconsin. Federal control, the western governor asserted, was inimical to the growth of western communities, as he said it discouraged individual enterprise.

The captain of the Sydney, according to these dispatches, has said he saw only thirty survivors of the 300 men supposed to be on board the Emden. The German cruiser was a veritable shambles. Four officers and twenty-two men were made prisoners.

SIXTY-SEVEN HORSES PERISH.

Fire Aboard Steamer Less Disastrous Than First Reported.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 11.—Sixty-seven horses were burned to death or smothered in the fire which turned the steamer Rembrandt to this port yesterday from her journey from Baltimore to France with more than 800 animals for the allies armies. The ship lay far out today with a guard about her, and further than that the loss of animals totalled 67 instead of several hundred, as had been reported and that the fire that damaged the ship originated in the forecastle, no information was given.

An agent of the French government arrived here today and it was said the remaining horses might be landed. An official who boarded the Rembrandt said that members of the crew declared some of the dead horses had been mutilated before the fire. Agents of the steamship company, however, denied it. All officials were silent as to the report that German agents aboard the ship had caused the damage.

FAMILY IN NEED BUT CAN'T HELP

With tears in his eyes and his voice trembling, a Fort Wayne Turk whose name he did not reveal, pleaded with the mail order clerks at the postoffice Wednesday morning asking that they send for him a money order to Turkey for his wife and children, whom he said were starving and in distress. But the money order was refused for money orders are not made out for Turkey at the present time.

While the European war has resulted in diminishing the volume of money order business in a majority of the postoffices throughout the United States it has had no telling effect at the Fort Wayne office. It seems that where business falls off with one country it is made up with some other. More orders are being sent from Fort Wayne to Macedonia than ever before as there are a great many foreigners here who have families living there in dire distress. The volume of business to Hungary has also greatly increased for the same reason.

Order is Returned.

The money order business with Russia has greatly fallen off. Only Tuesday a money order for $800 was returned to a Fort Wayne Russian resident of this city. Some days ago he secured a money order for $800, sending it to his old home in Russia. He intended to follow in a day or two and join the army there. In the meantime he changed his mind, thinking that he would be much better off in peaceful America than in trying to dodge bullets and bombs in Europe. So he asked the local postoffice authorities to secure his $800 for him and after some little difficulty it was finally returned.

The Fort Wayne office is issuing no money orders to Belgium, Egypt or Mexico, as the result of orders from the postal department at Washington. Even in time of peace it is seldom that a money order is issued here for points in Egypt or Mexico.

Most of the money orders out of Fort Wayne are going to Germany, Russia and Greece, and vast amounts of good America money is going to assist the relatives of America's foreign born citizens who are placed in dire need through the stress of the war.

WOMAN HAD COME FROM RICHMOND

Shocking Murder and Suicide Discovered in Hotel at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—A man and woman registered as G. H. Neeley and wife, of Cushing, Okla., were found dead in the Terminal hotel at the union station here today. Apparently the man had shot his wife and then committed suicide. Nine bullet holes were in the woman's body and one in the man's.

Love letters from another man to the woman were found in the room and it was thought that jealousy prompted the crime. The letters which were signed "Bill," indicated the writer was planning to help the woman get a divorce. They indicated that Neeley and "Bill" were business associates in Cushing or in Tulsa, Okla.

The couple arrived at the hotel late last evening. Investigation showed they, or at least Mrs. Neeley had come from Richmond, Ind. The letters in the room were addressed to "Estelle B. Neeley, P. O. box 87, Richmond, Ind." and indicated that she had been visiting relatives there.

A telegram found in the room indicated Neeley was a salesman for the Petroleum Iron company of Sharon, Pa., and that he covered western territory under the direction of the Tulsa office.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—More active European demand for cash wheat tended today to strengthen the wheat market as a whole. After opening ⅜@½c off to a shade advance, the market rallied to above last night's level all around.
The close was unsettled, ⅝c to ¾c under last night.
Rumors of good sized exports gave a slight lift to the corn market. The opening, which varied from ⅛c to a sixteenth up, was followed by a general hardening of values.
The close was nervous at ⅛c to ¼@¼c net decline.
In the oats crowd most of the dealings consisted of changes from the December option to May.
Provisions rose quite sharply on account of short covering.

ORDER WILL COME SOON

Washington government will not argue that question further.
The understanding among officials is that President Wilson is willing to withdraw the American forces especially in view of the fact that a conflict of Villa and Carranza troops in that vicinity might raise further embarrassment and delicate questions for the United States.
The American troops will be withdrawn on the ground that the Agues Calientes convention ordered Carranza to issue the decree which has now been proclaimed and all factions are agreed to support the conditions set forth by the United States as a pre-requisite to evacuation.
The impression prevails in many quarters that the United States will await the determination of who is the executive of Mexico, Gen. Carranza or Gen. Gutierrez, before delivering the funds.
Brigadier General Funston with troops of the Fifth brigade and the marine regiments remaining has about 8,500 men at Vera Cruz. The evacuation would take about a week after the order is given, for time to move army transports and possibly charter merchant vessels. The Fifth brigade troopers may return to Galveston and the marine regiments probably will be distributed to the Guantonamo and other stations.

EVENTS MOVE SWIFTLY.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Events at Naco have moved with "unexpected rapidity," according to a report to the war department today from Brig. Gen. Bliss. Secretary Garrison summarized the situation in this statement:
"Heavy rifle fire all yesterday afternoon which Col. Hatfield interprets as an effort on the part of Gen. Hill's forces to prevent Gen. Maytorena from getting into position for attack. At 5:45 o'clock three guns firing shrapnel opened from the east and two from the southwest and continued firing until dark on Hill's position. Maytorena has informed Col. Hatfield that what he was doing was a defensive move and not an attack."

TRAIN SERVICE SUSPENDED.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 11.—Train service from here to Mexico City was suspended today. Disturbed conditions near Mexico City was believed to be the cause.

MANY ENLISTMENTS.

Twelve Applicants Have Been Rejected at Fort Wayne Office.

During the last few days twelve applicants have been rejected at the Fort Wayne recruiting office of the United States navy. Word has been received at the local office that during the last week in October 1,631 men applied for enlistment in the United States navy and of this number 1,479 were rejected. Navy officials are very exacting with applicants. This has been especially true during the last few months.

proved. Again the lad was sent home and Attendance Officer T. A. Wilkinson was notified, who, fearing that the hoof and mouth disease may have broken out among human beings as well as animals, notified the county agent.
The Martins are foreigners, having taken the name of Martin no doubt as an abbreviation of their real name. The elder Martin is employed at the rolling mills, it is understood.

Man is Not Immune.

Man himself is not immune, according to Mr. Henry, and the frequency of the infection by coming in contact with the diseased animals themselves, is established by numerous observations. There is fever and difficulty in swallowing, followed by an eruption of blisters in the mouth and very rarely in similar ones on the fingers. The disease is very seldom fatal and chiefly restricted to children and to those adults who handle sick animals or drink large quantities of unboiled milk. Some veterinarians regard the human affection as by no means uncommon in counties where the foot and mouth disease prevails, but that the disturbance of health is usually too slight to come to the notice of the family doctor.

Vets Will Meet.

A meeting of the members of the American Veterinary association of this city will be held at the Wayne hotel Thursday evening. Members of the association from all parts of northern Indiana are expected to be in attendance. The meeting is called for the purpose of discussing the hoof and mouth disease.

Warning Farmers.

Mr. Henry received another letter Wednesday morning from T. A. Coleman, head of the county agents of Indiana at Purdue university, asking him to get in touch with every creamery in the county, who in turn are asked to warn the farmers to watch their stock very carefully and especially cattle fed hay that has been shipped in.

TROOPS OF KAISER TO BATTER WAY AHEAD

Emden, which was attacked by the Australian cruiser Sydney and driven ashore in the Cocos island, where she burned and Prince Franz Joseph, of Hohenzollern, one of his officers, are both prisoners of war and neither is wounded, according to an announcement by the admiralty this afternoon.
The admiralty adds that the losses on the Emden are unofficially reported as 200 killed and 30 wounded. No further details have been received. The admiralty has given directions that all honors of war be accorded to the survivors of the Emden and that the captain and his officers are not to be deprived of their swords.
The hundredth day of the war, which engages virtually half the world, both in respect to land area and the population, finds the Teutonic allies practically on the defensive, according to opinions expressed today by English students of the situation, at least temporarily, in both the main areas of hostilities.
This role is perhaps more pronounced in the eastern field of operation, where the Germans have been thrown back well behind their frontier lines at several points in East Prussia and Posen, than in the western field, although the successes of the past two weeks have enabled the forces of Great Britain, France and Belgium to inaugurate a vigorous offensive, the Germans are still disputing every foot of ground with bloody hand to hand fighting, which is proving more deadly than has any previous phrase of this most sanguinary war. The names of some towns and villages occurring with monotonous regularity day after day in the official reports, show how stubborn has been the struggle in the country centering Ypres.

Human Rabbit Warren.

Into this land the opposing armies have burrowed until it has become a veritable human rabbit warren.
The report of renewed tentatives for peace on the part of Germany which, however, has in no sense been confirmed, with the purpose of detaching Russia from the other allies as Germany is believed previously to have tried to detach France, is accepted in London as an indication that Germany is becoming aware of the difficulties of the task she has undertaken in prosecuting an offensive warfare against foes on two fronts and the supposed failure of those overtures, if any have actually been made is coupled with the continual movement to the east of German troops from Belgium.
Military men in London think it not improbable that unless the battle being fought at Ypres or further south takes an early turn in their favor the Germans will fall back to the prepared line stretching from Zeebruggee to the Meuse and assume a purely defensive role in the trenches along this line which have been so well strengthened, and the approaches to which are so thoroughly protected by well posted heavy artillery that they could be taken only after a long siege. This course, it is suggested, would enable the Germans to detach forces from the western arena to meet the Muscovite invaders in East Prussia and Posen and also to lend a hand to their Austrian allies. The Austrian armies it seems today have been cut off from contact with the German forces by the wedge pushed forward by the Russian commanders.

BIG DINNER ABANDONED.

Americans in London to Devote Funds to Belgian Relief.

London, Nov. 11.—3:20 p. m.)—The American society has voted almost unanimously to abandon its Thanksgiving dinner this year and devote the money which would have been spent to this end to the relief of the people of Belgium. A yearly Thanksgiving dinner in London is one of the principal functions of this organization.
A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Athens says: "It is learned that a conspiracy has broken out at Constantinople against the Germans and young Turks. The chief conspirators were arrested and shot.
"The population of the Ottoman capital becoming very excited as a result of the Turkish defeats on Sunday visited resentment on a number of German non-commissioned officers whom they attacked."

TAKEN TO VLADIVOSTOCK.

Russia Transporting War Prisoners to the Far East.

Peking, Nov. 11.—Reports reaching here from Harbin, Manchuria, set forth that Russia is transporting European prisoners of war as far east as Vladivostock.
The Austrian cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth, which took refuge at Tsing Tau before that port was invested by the Japanese had eight members of her crew killed during the Japanese attack on this German position. This news was transmitted by the commandant of the cruiser to the Austrian legation here. Japanese permission having first been obtained. The legation says that the Kaiserin Elizabeth was sunk by her crew after the ammunition on board had become exhausted.

GERMANS CHANGE COMMANDERS.

Paris, Nov. 11.—6:15 a. m.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Matin telegraphs the following: "It is reported that after a council of war, presided over by the kaiser, the crown prince was appointed commander in chief of all the German and Austrian armies operating against Russia, with Hindenberg commanding the left wing and Gen. Dankl the right.

RELEASED BY AUSTRIANS.

Sofia, Via London, Nov. 11.—3:56 a. m.—Another detachment of Macedonians has arrived here after being released by the Austrians, who captured them at Shabats, where they had been enrolled in the Servian army. When the Macedonians expressed a desire to return to Bulgaria the Austrians released them and provided transportation.
The press here admits that Bulgaria is quite ready to pay the blood debt owing to Russia, but not until the triple entente gives ample guarantees that Bulgarian rights will be restored in Macedonia and that Bulgaria will be protected from the territorial designs of her neighbors.

Bristol, Vt., Nov. 11.—Dr. D. A. Bisbee, the Bristol druggist, who is alleged to be responsible for the death of fifteen persons and the serious illness of several others, is in danger of violence at the hands of the people of this community.

Bisbee sold alcohol that contained poison. He admits putting poison in the liquor, but he says he did it by mistake.

SPREADS AMONG PRIZE CATTLE

Foot and Mouth Disease is Getting New Hold in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Spread of foot and mouth disease among the 836 prize dairy cattle under quarantine at the Chicago Union stock yards assumed such alarming proportions today that it was feared the infection could not be prevented from spreading to every animal in the herd. They are valued at $2,500,000.

Dr. S. E. Bennett, of the federal bureau of animal industry, said that forty new cases were discovered among the herd yesterday. The newly infected cows were separated in the isolated herd and taken to the veterinarian hospital were fifty-two other cases from the dairy show stock are under treatment.

Dr. Bennett said that consent would not be given to destroy the animals unless there is no hope of saving them.

WORSE AT PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—Conditions brought about by the epidemic of foot and mouth disease becomes distinctly worse today when it was announced [illegible] herds in Westmoreland county, had developed the disease and seven dairy herds in other parts of Western Pennsylvania were under suspicion. Some apprehension for the milk supply of Pittsburg was felt while hay dealers were wondering where they were to get supplies. The normal supply for the city is forty cars a day. Recently receipts have shrunk to half that number. Seven inspectors were sent to East Liverpool, Ohio, and Rochester, Pa., to fumigate straw and hay used in packing pottery and glass ware and at the Herrs Island stock yards it was said fumigation would be completed this week. No date for re-opening the yards has been announced by the government authorities.

London, Nov. 11.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen a correspondent of the Central News says: "A dispatch received here from Cologne affirms that the pope shortly will endeavor to initiate negotiations for peace through the medium of a pastoral letter.

"The German view of this is that any such action by his holiness would raise the question of the pope's temporal power and force Italy into taking an attitude against the proposal."

$1.30 DIFFERENCE IN SUPREME COURT

Washington, Nov. 11.—A difference of $1.36 was the basis of a suit which today reached the United States supreme court. It was started originally by the Macon County supply company, of Franklin, North Carolina, to recover $3.75 overcharges on a shipment of ranges from Piqua, Ohio. The Tallulah Falls Railway company offered to pay $2.30 in settlement. The difference was $1.36 and could not be adjusted.

The case was appealed to the supreme court from the North Carolina supreme court because a $100 penalty had been imposed upon the railway for failure to pay the claim within a prescribed period.

FIRE LOSS WILL REACH MILLION

Jeannette, Pa., Nov. 11.—The mammoth warehouse of the American Window Glass company here was destroyed by fire which started early today, with an estimated loss of $1,000,000. The warehouse, 1,000 feet wide by 100 feet long, is said to have contained in the neighborhood of 250,000 boxes of window glass, the greater part of which is believed to have melted or been broken.

The factory nearby was not damaged and the only men deprived of employment were the workmen in the warehouse, a comparatively small number. The origin of the fire has not been determined, but the police advance the theory that it was of incendiary origin.

RELEASED ON $10,000 BOND.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 11.—One of the five alleged holdup men who got $1,400 in a gambling house, and who is known as Thomas Burge, but is said to be Bertsche, a brother of Barney Bertsche, of Chicago, has been released on $10,000 bond. The sheriff has the bond and is out of town. There is no record showing signatures on the bond. State's Attorney Hoyne, of Chicago, telephoned here at the time of the arrest to hold Bertsche for him, if he should get freedom from the Terre Haute jail.

Sheriff Shea says the bond is signed by men who own $25,000 worth of real estate, but the sheriff declines to make public their names. He says Burge was released last Wednesday night.

GERMANS TAKE DIXMUDE

TROOPS OF KAISER BATTER WAY AHEAD

Paris, Nov. 11.—(a:50 p. m.)—The French official statement this afternoon says the firghting was resumed yesterday morning with very great severity between Nieuport and the Lys.

The French forces were successful in maintaining their front, but it is admitted that the Germans, toward the end of the day, succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude.

The British troops are described as having repulsed the enemy at several points.

At other points on the line the French claim slight progress. The text follows:

"On our left wing the fighting was resumed yesterday morning between Nieuport and the Lys with a very great degree of severity. Generally speaking, our front was maintained, in spite of the violence and the strength of the German attacks directed against certain of our points of support.

"To the north of Nieuport we were even able to re-occupy Lombertsyde and advance beyond this town, but toward the end of the day the Germans succeeded in taking possesion of Dixmude. We still hold our positions on the approaches to this town, along the canal from Nieuport to Ypres, which has been firmly occupied. The fighting was very hot at these places.

"The British troops attacked also at several points and succeeded everywhere in stopping the enemy.

"On the rest of the front the general situation shows no change with the exception of slight progress by our forces to the north of Soissons and in the region to the west of Vailley, on the right bank of the Aisne. Out side of the two points the state of the weather permitted only minor engagements, which resulted successfully for us. Particularly at Coincourt three kilometers north of the forest of Parroy we routed a detachment of the enemy."

SAN FRANCISCO NEXT IN LINE

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 11.—There were rounds of handclapping in the convention of the American Federation of Labor today when telegrams from the state of California and city of San Francisco were read inviting the federation to hold its 1915 convention in the exposition city. According to delegates and officers there appears to be no doubt that the invitation will be accepted.

The special committee appointed to bring about an agreement between the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Sheet Metal Workers over their jurisdictional dispute was appointed as follows: James Kirby, P. H. McCarthy and John A. Metz, for the carpenters, John J. Hynes, Thomas Redding and Hugh Frayne for the sheet metal workers, and Matthew Well, photo engraver; James J. Sweeney, granite cutter and William Green, miner, representing the federation.

Committees not being ready to report on matters referred to them the convention spent the morning hours in listening to the addresses of fraternal delegates and then took a recess until 4 o'clock. Mortimer M. Donaghue, president of the Montana Federation of Labor, fraternal delegate to the Canadian Trades and Labor congress, made his report of the recent work of that body, and R. A. Rigg, the fraternal delegate from the Canadian organization to the federation, spoke. Delegate Riff told of efforts made by Canadian employers to break the bonds that tie the workers of the United States and Canada in international unions. These efforts he said, have been unsuccessful. He touched on the war in the eastern hemisphere only long enough to say that it was the hope of the Canadian trade unions that the great conflict might soon be ended.

CLEVELAND LOAN OFFICES RAIDED

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 11.—In a raid upon the offices of four down town salary and chattel loan companies today the books and records of the companies were confiscated by detectives under direction of Police Prosecutor Polsen. Three men, said to be managers of the companies, were arrested.

Warrants were issued for Leslie Harbison, of Chicago; Norman L. Noteman, New York, and E. H. French, Toledo, said to be owners of three of the companies. Violation of the Ohio law regulating salary and chattel loan companies is charged.

The companies raided were: The Cleveland City Loan company; Peters & Co., Globe Loan company and the Cleveland Household Loan company.

Prosecutor Polsen says he has affidavits that the companies charged rates of interest in excess of legal rate and that they violated other provisions of the law.

HAWLEY GIVEN A TERM IN PRISON

Warren B. Hawley got swift justice for neglecting his child as he was sentenced in the circuit court Wednesday afternoon to serve a term of one to seven years in prison for the offense. He entered a plea of guilty and had nothing to say in his defense.

In sentencing him Judge John W. Eggeman stated that he is inclined to give every father who neglects to support his child a chance but that Hawley's case is aggravated and that he, in common with others guilty of the same offense, must suffer the penalty of the law.

Hawley was arrested at Bloomington, Ill., and is also married to another woman in Toledo, to whom he was wed after he left Fort Wayne.

Homer Brown, charged with the theft of a horse and buggy, Edward Hensler, charged with burglary and entering a house to commit a felony and Charles A. Butcher, held for obtaining money by false pretenses, were to be arraigned late Wednesday and it was understood that each would enter a plea of guilty.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

The German war machine has battered its way into the Belgian town of Dixmude. Today's official French statement contains the admission that the allies were obliged to fall back from this point of vantage in the great battle for possession of the eastern shore of the British channel. As an offset the French war office states that the allies' forces have advanced along the north sea coast, pushing back the Germans and taking Lombaertzyde, a small Belgian town a few miles northeast of Nieuport.

The warring nations awaited with keen suspense the outcome of the struggle in Belgium, which for the moment overshadows the conflicts on the many other fields of battle. From no other point came reports of important changes in the situation.

The capture of Dixmude was the first indication that the new attack of the Germans, described as their supreme effort and as probably marking a turning point in the war, had brought definite results. Between Dixmude and Ypres, which lies to the south close to the French border, the fighting has been most intense, since the Germans elected at the opening of the week to begin the new onslaught with the help of their reinforcements of fresh troops and new artillery.

On Oct. 15, during the advance on Ostend, the Germans occupied Dixmude, but later were compelled to fall back. The allies gained possession of the town temporarily, but their presence there was challenged repeatedly by the Germans, resulting in some of the most important and sanguinary fighting of the war. Whether the German victory will exert an important influence on the outcome is not as yet disclosed.

Along the remainder of the battle line, says the French war office, there is no change, except for slight progress by the allies at a few points. The Berlin view of the situation, however, is optimistic. Comment is made there of the use of the expression "good advances" in the latest official German reports concerning the fighting in the west, being the first occasion on which the term has been employed in this connection.

Paris is also hopeful as to the outcome in Belgium. Military critics there take the view that the Germans are faced with the imperative necessity of defeating the allies, in order that they may turn their attention to the menacing armies of Russia. The German crown prince is reported to have been placed in supreme command of the German and Austrian forces in the east.

Petrograd contradicts the German claim to an important victory along the northern border, asserting that a brilliant success has been won there and that the Russians have begun an invasion of East Prussia. On the southern end of the line Cossacks are approaching Cracow while the investment of Przemysl, from which the Russians were swept back several weeks ago, is said to have been completed for a second time.

Fort Wayne Will Have Big Additions to Tennis Court Equipment When This Work Has Been Completed

Eight men, one big steam shovel, three teams with the necessary complement of scrapers and other devices have been getting ready for lawn tennis in Fort Wayne next summer. The grading is being done by Contractor Harry McAfee and when the entire job is completed ten courts on a space 236 by 234 feet will have been constructed in Swinney park at a cost estimated by the Fort Wayne park department at $1,500.

The courts will be located in the southeast corner of the park and an immense amount of filling has been done. Last season the demand for courts was so heavy that the city could not supply them and is preparing to supply plenty of amusement and sport in 1915.

CANADA LEAGUERS ASK CONCESSIONS

Would Close Parks Next Year Without Losing Standing.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 11.—Only an afternoon session of the National Association of Professional Baseball clubs was on the program for today. With the question of policy regarding organized baseball settled the delegates were prepared to begin the routine business of the convention.

Representatives of Canadian leagues were on hand to ask concessions. The Canadian league and the northwest Canada leagues are confronted with European conditions and have requested that they be permitted to close their parks next year without losing their standing. That this would be granted was apparently assured, numerous delegates already having expressed themselves as favoring such action.

The national board of arbitration was busy a greater part of the night considering claims of clubs and players, but when it adjourned early this morning was far from having finished its business. There were 268 cases to be heard, most of them being for salaries, carfare and waiver fees. The board expects to conclude its work during the day.

The Western league continued its annual meeting during the forenoon. The members had a number of important matters to consider. Among these were whether or not the Wichita and Topeka clubs would continue to have places in the league. There was some talk that St. Paul might become a member of the Western league but any action of that nature will be held in abeyance until the minor league association matters are settled. The question of releasing the Canadian clubs from their obligations for one year was expected to come up at the afternoon session.

CENTRAL MUST BE PATCHED UP

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 11.At the meeting of the Central baseball league here today, with President Louis Heilbroner, of Fort Wayne, presiding, the question of rearranging its membership was taken up.

It was stated that the league must be patched up by adding three new cities to its circuit.

MISTOOK HUNTER FOR DEER.

Shiping Clerk First Victim of Season Near Duluth.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 11.—The first Duluth victim of the hunting season for big game, which opened yesterday was Peter St. Mary, 35, a shipping clerk, who was shot and killed today near Deer River. According to a deputy coroner there Dr. William Linder, of Minneapolis, a member of St. Mary's party, fired the shot, mistaking the victim for a deer.

ORDERS WILL COME SOON

Wilson Ready to Withdraw American Troops from Vera Cruz.

GUARANTEES ARE HELD SUFFICIENT

Customs Collections in the Hands of Uncle Sam Big Factor.

Washington, Nov. 11.—American troops probably will be ordered out of Vera Cruz very soon, leaving the Mexican factions to settle their own differences, as a result of the recent developments which brought the guarantees the Washington government demanded.

Carranza's promises not to reimpose customs duties collected by American officials during the occupation and to protect natives who have served Brig. Gen. Funston, probably will be accepted as sufficient.

Similar pledges from Gutierrez, new provisional president, are expected. The American officials have collected several millions in customs duties which are to be turned over to the Mexican government. That fact is taken by many officials as a guarantee that the Washington government's demands will be complied with.

The Carranza Decree.

Copies of Carranza's decree were received today by the state department. It grants amnesty to all Mexicans who served the American government at Vera Cruz. Nothing is said about protection for nuns and priests who took refuge in Vera Cruz.

Orral assurances, however, have been given that they would not be harmed and the general opinion is that the

BRIDE IS SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Iola, Kan., Nov. 11.—Mrs. Roy Ard, the bride of a wealthy young farmer, was shot from ambush and killed early today while driving home in a motor car with her husband.

The shooting took place on a lonely road five miles from Elsmore, twenty miles southeast of here and the scene was within a mile of the home Ard had recently erected for his bride.

A shot gun was used by the assassin, who lay hidden in trees bordering the road. The police have no clue. The Ards had been married six months.

NO CHANGE IN BELGIAN RELIEF

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Secretary Bryan announced today after a conference with Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that there had been no change in the plan originally approved by the German government for the transportation of relief supplies to Belgium.

In the conference with the German ambassador and Mr. Bryan today were William Phillips, third assistant secretary of state, and Hugh Wallace, a Washingtonian. It is understood that a plan was discussed for the selection by President Wilson of a central committee to take charge of the entire question of Belgian relief and prevent duplication of efforts. Mr. Wallace will probably be a member of the committee.

Officials at the Belgian legation here don't believe that Germany is planning to stop food supplies for their destitute countrymen sent from the United States through England. They pointed out that Germany herself was sending food.

There seems to be no disposition in official circles here to object to the demand of German military authorities in Belgium that inhabitants seeking relief go to work if able to do so.

PORTER COUNTY IN QUARANTINE

Valparaiso, Ind., Nov. 11.—Because of the prevalence of the foot and mouth disease Porter county was officially placed under quarantine today and deputy sheriffs were ordered to patrol each township to see that the quarantine was rigidly enforced. All stray dogs were ordered killed to prevent them acting as carriers of the disease.

It is estimated there are more than 20,000 head of cattle in the county and infected animals have been found in practically every township. The quarantine, it was explained, as yet, does not prohibit the shipments of produce out of the county.

MICHIGAN KILLS ANIMALS.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 11.—According to a report made to Gov. Ferris today 2,885 hogs, 1,478 cattle, 516 sheep and 31 goats infected with hoof and mouth disease have been killed in Michigan since the epidemic started a few weeks ago. The chairman of the state live stock sanitary commission who made the report vigorously denied that any persons in Michigan had caught the malady.

REV. D. E. JACKSON DIES.

Founder of First M. E. Church in South America Passes Away.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—The Rev. D. E. Jackson, D. D., founder of the First Methodist Episcopal church in South America, died here yesterday at the age of 77 years. He was the author of a Spanish hymn book, which still is the standard work among Spanish speaking people.

TRADE BALANCE IN OUR FAVOR

Washington, Nov. 11.—Exports at ten principal American ports for the week ending Nov. 7, exceeded the imports by more than $10,000,000, the department of commerce announced today although there were but five business days that week because of elections.

The imports totalled $26,129,895 and the exports were $36,645,767, leaving a balance of trade in favor of the United States of $10,515,872.

More than $3,000,000 were collected in duties. Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, Galveston, San Francisco, Seattle, Buffalo and Detroit furnished the record.

BOY CAUSES EXCITEMENT

Residents Feared He Had the Hoof and Mouth Disease.

CASE REPORTED TO COUNTY AGENT

Members of American Veterinary Association to Meet.

Suspected cases of the hoof and mouth disease were reported to C. Henry, county agent, late Wednesday afternoon on a nearby farm on the Huntington road. No particulars were given. As soon as Mr. Henry received the report he went out to investigate.

In the opinion of Dr. Van Buskirk, county health officer, who Wednesday afternoon investigated an alleged case of the hoof and mouth disease in a little boy who has been attending school at No. 6B, there is little cause for alarm. The doctor believes that the lad is suffering from an infectious disease, but not the hoof and mouth disease.

The case, at least, is peculiar, and Dr. Van Buskirk will make another investigation in a couple of days, plenty of time to give the disease an opportunity to develop.

The case was reported to C. Henry, county agent, and from the description given to him there was every reason to believe that the lad was suffering with the hoof and mouth disease. As a result he had the health officer investigate.

Some days ago John Martin, jr., aged 14, son of John Martin, sr., a foreigner living in what is known as the Commercial district, near the rolling mills, came to school after being absent for several days. Miss Pearl Townsend, one of the teachers at school No. 6B, west of Fort Wayne, noticed that he held his hand up to his mouth continuously. She decided to investigate and when the boy removed his hand at her request she could see that his mouth was badly inflamed and swollen. Sores had commenced to form. The teacher immediately ordered the boy home. He could give no explanation, except that he did not feel as well as usual.

Returns to School.

A couple of days later he returned to school and while the mouth was swollen and red it seemed to be somewhat im-

LAST-MINUTE NEWS

BESIEGE AMERICAN RELIEF DEPOTS.

London, Nov. 11.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuters Telegraph company, says:

"Dutchmen returning from Antwerp report that distress there is very great and that the depots of the American committee for the relief of the Belgians are besieged from 8 in the morning till 2 o'clock the next morning by a multitude of starving Belgians.

GERMANS LOSE HEAVILY IN OFFICERS.

Paris, Nov. 11.—(2:50 p. m.)—A Havas agency dispatch from Petrograd says:

"It is estimated here that during the recent fighting in East Prussia, the Germans lost 70 per cent. of their officers. From October 23 to November 5, the total Russian captures amounted to 323 officers, 21,750 soldiers, four mortars, 52 cannons, 52 quick firers and a large amount of munitions of war, including a quantity of provisions."

NEUTRALITY BOARD TO PASS ON ISSUE.

Washington, Nov. 11.—If it finally develops that a foreign belligerent actually has placed an order for twenty submarines with an American ship yard, as reported, a neutrality board probably will be convened to look into the situation. This was the general understanding today in official and diplomatic quarters.

TRAIN CONTINUES TO SCORE SIEGEL

Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Assistant District Attorney Train today resumed his outline of the state's case against Henry Siegel, former banker and merchant of New York, charged with grand larceny. "The four wheels of the car of Juggernaut," was the way he characterized the four "big and losing" enterprises created by the defendant.

Train pictured Siegel as the fugitive just ahead of that car who was compelled at intervals to get money from New York banks by any hook or crook to save him from being financially ground to powder. His reference to Arthur Prall(Siegel's confidential man, is "one honest at heart," was regarded as substantiation of a report that Prall has consented to turn state's evidence against his former chief, though Mr. Train wouldn't confirm the report.

STILL GET NO WORD FROM U. S. WARSHIPS.

Washington, Nov. 11.—No word has come to the navy department today from the armored cruisers North Carolina and Tennessee in the Mediterranean.

Officials are confident that the silence of the cruisers are caused by difficulties of communication through the war zone, reiterating their belief that no mishap had befallen either.

MAKES A DEFENSE ON TECHNICALITY

Louis Ohnhaus Escapes Fine But Not on This Particular Line.

Louis Ohnhaus, arraigned in the circuit court Tuesday on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a license tag, offered in his defense that he was not actually driving the car in question but that he was acting as instructor to a young lady niece of the man who had purchased a machine.

This, in the opinion of Judge John W. Eggeman, did not excuse him but as the license had been applied for, no damage was done and he was not fined. The judge stated in this connection that dealers must not proceed on the theory that a tag with "license applied for" is sufficient but that they must supply purchasers with dealers' tags until a permit has been secured from the state.

The case was appealed from the city court. Charles A. Spanley, who was fined $50 and costs in the city court on a charge of speeding, was fined $25 and costs by Judge Eggeman.

Grants the Wife Decree.

At the close in the circuit court on Monday of the hearing in the divorce case of Elda Baxter against Cyril Baxter the wife was given a decree and custody for the present of their child. The husband fought for the custody and entered a cross complaint making serious charges against the wife, which were disproven in the trial. Judge Yaple advised that they adjust their differences and become reconciled.

Mrs. Bogash Asks Decree.

Charging that Frank H. Bogash, well known horseman and a driver of note several years ago, is an habitual drunkard and that he has squandered most of his property in drink, Ella Bogash has filed a suit asking a decree of divorce and alimony in the sum of $7,000. A restraining order to prevent him from disposing of his property was also asked. Leonard, Rose and Zollars are her attorneys.

Three Suits Are Filed.

Anna M. Laird has filed an action against the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, demanding $3,000 for injuries she says she sustained when a car was derailed on June 27, of this year on Wallace street. She says the car was being operated at a high rate of speed.

Fred W. Rippe, a mail carrier, asks $2,000 damages of the same company for injuries he says he suffered when a car struck his automobile at Jefferson and Nelson streets on May 8.

Frank J. Bruns demands $500 of the company in an action based on the allegation that he was compelled, in order to avoid being struck by a car at Lewis and Clay streets, to run his automobile into the curbing, entailing damages in the sum asked. Harper and Fuelber filed all three actions.

Accounts Are Filed.

Henry P. Scherer has filed his account of election expenses with Clerk Gerding. His expenditures are given as $409.50 and he made no promises. The following other expense accounts were filed: Edwin W. Miller, assessor Wayne township, democrat, $233.75; W. L. Robinson, prohibitionist candidate for state senator, $5.00; W. E. Clapham, republican candidate for prosecutor, $75.23; William C. Schwier, democratic candidate for commissioner, Third district, $553.65.

Struck Automobile.

Clemens Lissper says in a damage suit filed today that a driver for the Clark Fruit company struck his automobile with a big truck and damaged it to the extent of $150. Judge John H. Aiken filed the suit.

BERLIN WOULD DICKER WITH CZAR, IS CLAIM

London, Nov. 11.—Coincident with the news that every German soldier has been swept from Russian soil comes a whisper of peace negotiations in the report from Petrograd that Berlin has approached Russia with overtures looking toward a cessation of hostilities.

Contrary to the German report that the Russians had been checked on the frontier of East Prussia, Petrograd declares that a brilliant success in that region has been succeeded by an actual invasion of German territory.

An equal triumph is reported from the other end of the long Russian battle line. With Cossacks, raiding within twenty miles of Cracow, the commandant of which fortress has ordered the civilian population of the city to leave Prezemyal, is said to be fully invested again and the reduction of this fortress is likely to precede any further advance by the Russian left wing.

Petrograd is not wholly satisfied with the scope of the victories reported against the Germans—for the belief prevails in military circles that if the Russian strategy of the Napoleonic era had been followed further, even to the extent of surrender of Warsaw, the invaders never would have remained in their own country with intact organizations. Others feel that political motives quite justified the government in its determination to defend Warsaw.

Contrary to practice infantry and not artillery has been the dominant force used by the Russians along their western battle front in pushing the invaders back across the border. Showing disregard of the German batteries, superior forces of Russian infantry time after time have advanced and won positions by the use of cold steel. From Moscow comes a report that during the fight near Aerodz, on the river Warthe, the Russians captured Gen von Makenge, commander of the seventeenth German army corps, together with members of his staff. It is also reported that Gen. von Liebert, who was in command at Lodz when the Germans occupied that city, also has been captured by the Russians.

Rome reports that the Austrian army is abandoning entirely its positions in western Galicia and will winter at the foot of the Carpathians, renewing the war from that base in the spring. But the stubborn defense of Przemysl and the evident determination to defend Cracow hardly confirm this report.

Dispatches reaching London from Belgium and Holland continue to insist the Germans are withdrawing many of their troops from their western battle front, but the official communications from the headquarters of the allies do not indicate any diminution in the force of the German attack, which is continuing with its usual fury.

The situation in Belgium is daily becoming more critical. Even Antwerp, which is the best supplied of the Belgian cities, is clamoring for the provisions brought into the country by the American commission.

LUXEMBURG IN A STATE OF UNREST

Luxemburg, Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, Nov. 11.—(Via The Hague and London, 11:55 a. m.)—This small country, which has almost been forgotten since the commencement of the war, is beginning to show signs of unrest under the prolonged German rule.

Entirely cut off from the rest of the world and obliged to read newspapers, which under a strict German censorship, are giving exclusively pro-German information, the people show the same tendencies to fly into panics and to believe historical news as are so familiar in Brussels, Liege and Namur and other Belgian cities where the people systematically are kept in the dark. They are now willing to believe even the most incredible rumors.

The Luxemburgians have suffered greatly since the Germans three weeks ago stopped the iron industry, the main support of the country, by forbidding the use of dynamite. After prolonged negotiations the operation of the mines has been allowed again but the miners are obliged to use other and less violent explosives.

Continual friction is apparent between the Luxemburgians and the Germans on the frontier village. The people, ordinarily are bilingual, under pressure of the Germans now are using French exclusively as the only means at their disposal of showing resentment, at their country's invasion.

EXPECTS DEATH; WRITES OBITUARY

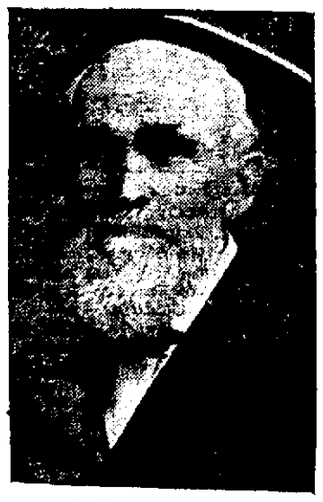
Expecting his demise at any time, C. Henry Leinker took the task of writing his own obituary before death overcame him at his home at 1219 Marion street, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon following an illness of more than eight years' duration. Death came at the age of 74 years, after suffering for a year from mastoiditis. During the time of his extended sickness he underwent two operations.



C. HENRY LEINKER.

He was a pioneer settler of Fort Wayne as is brought out in the following translation of the obituary which he wrote himself:

"On the twenty-fifth of September, 1852, I, Christopher Heinrich Leinker, in company with my brother, Ernest, and parents, arrived in Fort Wayne, and on the same day moved into the home of my uncle, Henry Rahe, who at that time lived on High street. He owned a strip of land which extended from High street to the point where No. 2 pumping station is now located. There were but few houses in Bloomingdale at that time, not more than twenty and of these five were on High street, four on Barthold and the others on Wells and Fifth streets.

"My brother, Ernest, was born on September 30, 1848, at Essen, Amy Wittlage, Hanover, Germany, and I was born at the same place on December 28, 1839. After our arrival in this city I entered the St. Paul's Lutheran parish schools and received my early education under Teacher Wolf. I was confirmed by the late Rev. Sihler. In the year 1856 I became an apprentice in the business of Louis Peltier and learned the cabinetmaker's trade. Mr. Peltier's shop was located at that time on the present site of the Rurode Dry Goods store. Four years later I took employment with John M. Miller on East Main street with which firm I remained for twenty-eight consecutive years.

"On January 11, 1866, I was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Welsheit and the following year I built the home where I am still living today. My wife died on April 5, 1875. The following year I was married to Miss Wilhelmina Schoppman. I was elected a member of the city council in 1877 and served in that capacity for one term.

"During the year 1906 I submitted to two surgical operations at the Lutheran hospital. I took sick on May 19 of that year and submitted to the first operation on June 5. Two weeks later a second operation became necessary."

The deceased was a deacon of the St. Paul's Lutheran church for twenty-one years and when the Trinity Lutheran church on Hoffman street was organized he became a charter member of that congregation.

Besides his wife he leaves surviving the following children: Henry F., William, Fred, Louise, Catherine, Clara Leinker, all of this city, and Mrs. William Schmidt, also of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence, 1219 Marion street and at 2:30 at the Trinity Lutheran church, Rev. Jacob Miller officiating.

No Charge for Examination.

GERMANS REPORT GOOD ADVANCE IN THE WEST

Berlin, Nov. 11.—(By wireless.)—The significance of the latest official reports concerning the situation in the western arena of hostilities is favorable in the opinion of German critics by the facts that words "good advances" are used in referring to the conflict in the Argonnes. This is the first time such an expression has been employed in describing the fighting in this district.

The Turks are meeting with considerable success in their operations in the Caucasus and on the Egyptian frontier according to official announcement made by the Turkish government and given out in Berlin. They have occupied Sheikzar fort at El-Arish, Egypt, and taken four field guns from the enemy. The Russians in the Caucasus have been forced to retire to their second lines of defense.

El-Arish is on the Mediterranean near the boundary of Egypt, and Palestine. It is of importance as a point of water supply.

"Soldiers—the eyes of the whole world rest upon you. Our present task is not to relax our struggle with our hated enemy until we break his arrogance once for all. He is already weakening and already numerous officers and privates of the enemy have voluntarily surrendered but the great decisive blow remains to be struck.

"You must hold out to the end and the enemy must be put down. You must persevere. Don't let the enemy slip from between your teeth. We must conquer!"

The governor of the province of Brandenburg publicly calls attention to the fact that certain persons are trying to buy German gold for export, offering a slight premium. He appeals to the patriotism of the people to give no assistance to such efforts and advises that they put a stop thereto by turning over "these agents of foreign countries," to the police on the spot.

GERMANS MAKING FRONTAL ATTACK

Paris, Nov. 11.—It is becoming more and more evident to French observers that Germany is now making a maximum effort in Belgium to carry out her determination to penetrate the battle line of the allies with a frontal attack and reach either Dunkirk or Calais, on the English channel.

This attack seems to be taking place south of Dixmude. What is described in an official bulletin as "very violent fighting" in the north, continued this morning. The foggy weather of the last few days apparently has cleared and the Germans are pushing the attack.

Nevertheless the allies seem well satisfied with the situation.

The German position, however, is being given considerable close study. French military critics from the standpoint of strategy, regard the German position between two adversaries too far from each other for united efforts in the same operation, as a favorable one for the reason that it permits the use of what is called "internal lines." This strategy is simple in theory, but not always so in practice.

Tokio, Nov. 11.—(2 p. m.)—Official announcement is made that torpedo boat No. 33, of the Japanese navy, was sunk by a mine early today at the mouth of Kiao Chow bay while dragging for mines. A majority of the crew was rescued.

Other torpedo boats made an attempt to tow No. 33 into shallow water but failed. Six men on board No. 33 were killed or wounded and three are missing.

Many of the men aboard the German cruiser Emden, which was beached and burned on Cocos Island, in the Indian ocean, after a fight with the Australian cruiser Sydney, were killed or wounded in the battle, according to announcement made here today.

WAR SESSION OF PARLIAMENT OPEN

English Cabinet Ministers Will Be Under Fire of Criticism.

London, Nov. 11.—9:55 a. m.—King George opened today what probably will prove to be a purely war session of parliament. No controversal political question will be deliberated, but this does not mean that entire harmony will prevail, for the cabinet ministers will be asked some pertinent and uncomfortable questions about their conduct of various phases of the war.

The labor party leaders are especially primed with questions in regard to pay for the soldiers, allowances for their dependents and pensions, but criticism of the government by the opposition probably will be restrained.

Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, is expected to make a report on the situation in regard to alien enemies in England and the extent of the spy peril, but additional legislation in this direction is expected. The most immediate before the house of commons will be to provide sinews of war in men and money. The recruiting situation may lead to some steps towards compulsory service and the $500,000,000 granted in August, having been practically spent, a further credit of a like amount will probably be proposed under the special war loan act passed at the last session.

One hundred and five unionists were missing from their seats, being absent in various capacities in connection with the war, while thirty-two ministerialists are actually at the front and many others are absent on government business.

The usual ceremony accompanied the opening of parliament, the king making a military progress through the streets to Westminster palace. But like the lord mayor's show the customary color was lacking. Instead of the brilliantly uniformed household guards lining the streets and forming the escort, sober khaki marked the military features of the display.

Within the house of lords the usual ceremony trappings were used. In this body the king's speech from the throne was moved by Lord Methun and seconded by Viscount Bryce. In the house of commons the speech was moved by Sir Robert Price and seconded by Commoner William Middlebrook.

Wood told the district attorney and the sheriff that he and three companions slew the couple with an ax, robbed them of $800 and then burned down the farm house. The charred bodies were found in the cellar.

The district attorney placed Wood under arrest and announced that he had confessed the crime because he could no longer endure the tortures of soul."

CLEARS STUFFY HEAD AND NOSE AT ONCE--END CATARRH

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Adv.

HOLD-UP MEN WORK GAME AT KINGSLAND

Kingsland, Ind., Nov. 11.—James Foley, joint agent for the Lake Erie and Western and the Chicago and Erie railroads, was held up by two masked men last night and robbed of $110 in cash and his gold watch. The bandits fled and posses which were soon organized are as yet without trace of the men. It is believed they boarded a westbound freight train, which was passing at the time.

Foley was closing his office for the night and preparing to take the cash to the Wiseharpt store for deposit in a safe when the robbery occurred at 6:30 o'clock. One of the men seized the agent, but as the latter jerked away the second robber covered him with a pistol and forced him to remain quiet until they had relieved him of $75 of railroad funds in an envelope, which he carried in his hands. $35 of his own money in his pocket and his gold watch.

JAILED ON LARCENY CHARGE.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 11.—Ross Palmerton, of Butler, is in the county jail here, charged with the theft of $1,200 from his uncle, William Deems, who lives near Butler. The money was alleged to have been taken about a year ago from Mr. Deems' house during his absence, and as there was $2,400 in the roll and only half of it was taken, suspicion at once pointed to Palmerton, and he was continually watched by officers, who lately found him spending money freely and counting on taking a trip. He left Butler yesterday on the Vandalia, but Sheriff Hoff met him at the depot here and escorted him before Judge Powers, where he pleaded not guilty. The judge fixed his bond at $1,000 and in default of same was taken to jail.

HOME BURNS AT LISBON.

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 11.—The home of Edwin Ibric at Lisbon, together with a portion of the contents, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday morning shortly after 8 o'clock. The loss is several thousand dollars, partially covered by insurance, in the Farmers' Mutual of Noble county.

It is believed the fire started from a defective flue. It was first discovered by a number of workers who were shredding corn at the Wade Herrick home. Clouds of smoke were first seen coming from the roof of the residence and soon flames were shooting upward. The gang of men at the Herrick home were the first fighters on the scene.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderdine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

NO ACCIDENTS YET REPORTED

Although hundreds of Fort Wayne Nimrods are taking advantage of the quail season which opened Tuesday and will extend to December 20, no accidents have been reported. There have been hundreds of hunting licenses issued in this county. Quail are said to be plentiful in this section. Game wardens have been notified to see that each Nimrod has a license, that he doesn't take "pot shots" at the quail, and that he doesn't violate any one of a dozen other state and federal regulations.

The pleasant warm weather of the early fall and the splendid conditions of the small grains of the state and the rank growth of weeds late this fall has given the quail family a chance to fatten itself as never before.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Orders for the 1914 Red Cross seal in unprecedented quantities are being received at headquarters in the Public Savings Insurance building, this city. The interest indicates that Indiana proposes to look to the relief of its own cripples and to repulse the invading army at its own doors even though it does extend some help to the war victims in Europe.

Red Cross seal money enables Hoosier communities to combat the advancing hosts technically known as "tuberculosis bacilli," but generally referred to as "consumption germs." These germs kill more Indiana men, women and children each year than all other contagious diseases combined.

As an indication that these germs are going to have "rough sledding" in this section of the country next year, the commission today exhibited orders for Red Cross seals as follows: Indianapolis, 300,000; South Bend, 100,000; Fort Wayne, 200,000; Evansville, 200,000; Michigan City, 50,000; Kokomo, 80,000; Jeffersonville, 30,000; Fowler, 30,000; Newcastle, 20,000; Rushville, 40,000; Muncie, 100,000; Frankfort, 30,000; Laporte, 30,000; Lafayette, 50,000; Richmond, 130,000; Bloomington, 10,000; Anderson, 40,000, and orders ranging from 10,000 to 50,000 from scores of other Indiana communities.

Beginning to Adapt Itself to New Conditions of Warfare.

London, Nov. 11.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Modern fighting strategy, at first rather helpless before the aerial and artillery factors, is beginning to adapt itself to the new conditions and along the great Aisne battle front many fertile brains have been busy devising schemes to meet these problems. Probably the most useful work of the aeroplane has been the location of positions and consequent direction of artillery fire often resulting in terrible losses to the attacked army.

According to a distinguished London surgeon, now serving as a volunteer in the army medical corps, the British troops have become adepts at building dummy trenches to attract the enemy's fire. These trenches are thrown up with great fidelity and dummy figures and guns are left in them patiently awaiting the German aeroplane scouts. Believing that he has discovered a new position the aviator signals to the nearest German battery, and a storm of shells fall upon the unoccupied trenches. It is usually only after a great waste of valuable ammunition that the trick is discovered.

Another favorite device is the invention of a British signaller whereby a heliograph can be operated at a distance of two miles by means of a telegraph wire. This heliograph begins to send out messages purporting to emanate from headquarters staff and believing they have located the brains of the British army the German artillery devotes its attention to the spot marked by the flashes from the heliograph. Sometimes the heliograph is destroyed, but usually the operator ceases work when the fire becomes so heavy that no staff in its senses would remain in the vicinity. A new apparatus is set up in some position where the staff would be likely to remove should it be driven from the first selected place.

Along the front where the opposing trenches are within a few hundred yards of each other the allies have devised a system of tormenting the enemy by keeping them awake at night. Regular skirmish details are selected each night and in a thin skirmish line they advance as close as possible and pour in a rattling fire. The response is almost instant and in such volume as to indicate that the Germans believe a general attack is beginning. Several times during the night these tactics are repeated.

The surgeon who has just returned from the front, reports that contrary to the usual belief the trenches are not very wet, but he believes that with the coming of the heavy winter rains conditions along the Aisne will become terrible. The tension is already so great that many have reached the snapping point until the insane ward at Netley is filled with officers and soldiers who have lost their reason when disease is added to the terror of battle.

One of the optimistic features of the situation is an improvement in the transport of the wounded from the battle front to hospitals in England. Two weeks ago it often was as long as three weeks to get the wounded from the scene of the fighting to Southampton and now the same trip is made in from three to four days. This speeding up has resulted in a great acceleration in the recovery of the dangerously wounded, for they reach the hospitals within the period of infection.

DRASTIC WAR ON CATTLE PLAGUE

State Authorities Plan to Make Urgent Measures State Wide.

Indianapolis, Nov. 11.—Plans for an organized fight against the foot and mouth malady were outlined yesterday at a conference attended by Governor Ralston, Dr. A. F. Nelson, state veterinarian; Dr. A. R. King, assistant state health commissioner, and H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner.

After the conference Dr. Nelson and Dr. King arranged for the appointment of veterinarians in 78 counties to act as deputy state veterinarians and assist county health commissioners. The names were suggested by Dr. Nelson and the state board of health will direct the various county health commissioners to designate at once the men as their deputies and to co-operate with them in the fight against the contagion. Veterinarians in the remaning counties will be appointed today to assist health commissioners.

The first work of the deputy state veterianarians and health commissioners will be to inspect the cattle and hogs which have been received in their respective counties from the Chicago stock yards. Names of farmers buying cattle at Chicago since the outbreak of the disease have been obtained and their herds will be inspected for suspicious cases.

A letter concerning the work to be done by the local officers will be sent by the state board of health to each of the county health commissioners. It will state that the foot and mouth disease, although primarily confined to cloven footed animals, is communicable to the human being and thus not only threatens to destroy the stock interests of the state, but directly to affect the health of citizens.

Governor Ralston has assured the state veterianarian that he will support almost any drastic measure he finds necessary to combat the contagion.

"I have been asked numerous times about treatment for cattle and hogs stricken with the foot and mouth disease," said Dr. Nelson. But I tell everybody that treatment of the disease while possible, is out of the question, because one sick animal will spread the contagion to an entire herd. Just as fast as the disease appears the afflicted animal and every animal in the herd exposed to the disease must be killed and buried.

"We think we have made some progress in the fight, though the disease, a most virulent one, has spread to many counties. The last of the infected animals in St. Joseph county was killed today and with guards placed over the healthy animals, we believe that the disease will not reappear there. The foot and mouth disease leaves cows in a lame condition, they lose flesh and give little milk. Their mouths and feet are covered with sores. The animal is of little value even if it be treated and it recovers, so that it is economy to kill every sick animal found. Farmers have asked me what they may do to keep the disease from spreading to their herds. I have told them to stop visiting, to keep neighbors and others away from their farms and their herds. I consider hunters as a menace and farmers would do well to keep them off their land while this epidemic prevails."

POINTS GREATER DANGER.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—The Indiana state board of health has received the following telegram from Dr. A. Z. Ziliak, a health officer at Princeton:

"Fourteen counties affected with the fool and mouth disease. Situation grave. Ninety-two counties affected with human tuberculosis. Situation serene. Nation and state value cows at sixty dollars each. What is the value of a human body?"

Dr. T. Victor Keene, president of the city board of health of Indianapolis, said today that "the state will lose three dollars to every dollar lost on the foot and mouth disease as a result of tuberculosis this year."

A degree team was inaugurated Tuesday evening at a meeting of Degree of Honor lodge, No. 29. Plans were discussed for the giving of a reception in honor of Mrs. Frances Guell Olson, of St. Paul, who will visit Fort Wayne next month. Mrs. Olson is superior chief of the order.

AT THE EMPRESS.

"Your show is a peach and the price is in reach of my purse, which is now rather slim. Your show is a dandy. It sure takes the candy and tell Mr. Vox I am wild about him. I'm coming again in sunshine or rain, a thousand of horses couldn't keep me away. And all of my pals along with their gals, agree in these things that I say."

One of the Empress patrons who has been particularly delighted with the dandy bill now on view at the Empress, has sent the foregoing poem to the Empress management. Naturally the management is much pleased with this lyrical expression of approval for the present bill.

MARY PICKFORD,

Charming Little Star Appears in a Highly Dramatic Sketch.

Little Mary Pickford, daintiest of all screen stars, and the most beloved figure in the world of cinematography, pays a very welcome visit to the Orpheum today in the title role of a highly dramatic sketch, "The Stronger Love." It is a photo-play that will mirror every trick and reveal every angle of the versatile art of this winsome lady, who, through the appeal of her distinguished personality, has created for herself a reputation unequaled in the kingdom of photography. The possibilities extended in this picture have all been realized by Miss Pickford, and she gives us a performance of splendid merit, acting the part with a depth of feeling and a gentle wistfulness of character that alternately brings tears of sympathetic understanding, and smiles of appreciative joy.

On the same bill with Miss Pickford we have Robert Garrick in "The Yellow Streak."

Victor Herbert is one of the contributors on today's musical program, Miss Lyon's giving his melodious "Gypsy Love Song." The orchestra will fill the intermissions with the strains of Sousa's famous "Hand's Across the Sea" march and one of the latest vaudeville classics, "You for Me, and Me for You."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Fiske O'Hara Comes in His New Play, "Jack's Romance," Tomorrow.

Fiske O'Hara, in a new romantic play, will be the attraction at the Majestic tomorrow evening. "Jack's Romance" is the title of the piece, which is from the skilled pen of Augustus Pitou, sr., who not only supplied the clever singing star with "In Old Dublin," but also gave Scanlan and Olcott their greatest successes during the last quarter of a century. The author has selected for his period, that just previous to the American revolution and the action of the play takes place in one of the most picturesque places in the County Wicklow, the greatest of Ireland's beauty spots. There is a car load of stage accessories used in the performance of "Jack's Romance."

Don't lay away your summer clothes until they are made moth-proof by our "Quality" naphtha process. Troy-American Dry Cleaning Co. Phone 6003.

Current One Will Be Supplanted Tomorrow.

Opening tomorrow afternoon the Temple will present a new program of short order amusement, supplanting the current bill which closes with tonight's performances. On the coming layout are Johnny O'Connor with Wilbing, Bentley and Willing in the great comedy success, "Smart Fooling." The sketch is a brand new novelty and should prove one of the most pleasing entertainments local vaudeville fans have enjoyed in months. The acto-author, Dan Mullaley and company, will present Mullaley's own skit, "Miss Thanksgiving," one of the best things this clever writer ever has penned. The half ton of girls and songs, McMaus and Don Carlos, Delmar and Delmar, celebrated aerialists, and the Cycling Brunettes complete the bill.

AT THE LYRIC.

"A Flight for Fortune" is a thrilling melodramatic offering on the Lyric's program for this afternoon and evening. In this picture for the first time in Fort Wayne a flying machine is employed as a regular actor in movie melodrama. The usual three vaudeville acts which have been delighting Lyric friends all week will be succeeded tomorrow afternoon by an entirely different bill.

There are but a very few people today who have not either read the story or seen the stage version of Augusta Evans' well known novel, "St. Elmo." It was only a matter of bidding among the different producers to see who would eventually produce the picturized version, for there were few of the producing companies who did not realize what a fine subject this would make for the camera. And the brilliant resultant production will prove the truth of that contention, for few stories have adapted themselves to the screen with the facility of this one.

As to the story of the film itself, it is much too well known to bear repetition and as a proof of its penetrative power it might be stated that this is the picture that drew the largest houses ever recorded at the Strand theater in New York.

We have heard words such as "incomparable," "perfect," "wonderful" being used by enthusiasts when discussing the Jefferson orchestra. However, these same words cannot overrate the ability of these fine musicians nor prove too elaborate when discussing the quality of the music rendered. Under the efficient direction of George Bathle, of the European School of Music, this splendid group of musicians have scored an instantaneous success, and their playing is always the occasion for an ovation.

JACK MILLER WATCHING HIS BRIDE-TO-BE SIGN THE LICENSE. FRANK SHANLEY IS ACTING AS MASTER OF CEREMONIES AND "CUPID" GRANT MUNSON WAITS WITH THE SEAL.

When the All-National and All-American star baseball clubs started out from Chicago there were thirteen brides and matrons in the party. Now it is a well known fact that ball players are superstitious, and no good was presaged for a trip when the party started away on account of that 13 "jinx."

But John Bernard Miller, the big first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, who was a member of the All-National outfit, declared he was going to break that jinx as soon as the teams arrived in San Francisco. Joe Bush opened his mouth wide enough to turn a taxicab around in. Joe could not figure how Miller could have courage enough to make such a statement to a predatory band of baseball pirates. The others were likewise surprised.

Miller made good with a vengeance. Accompanied by his bride, Miss Pearl Mitchell Thoroman, of Los Angeles, he waited on "Cupid" Munson, the San Francisco license clerk, and had the necessary "poipers" made out, sealed and delivered. Two hours later he was married, the members his team and the opposing club being in attendance.

Miller met his bride in St. Louis, where she declared his work on the diamond was "just too dear for anything."

Mrs. Miller makes the third bride on the trip. Joe Bush, the Athletic twirler, claimed a bride before leaving, and George Burns, New York Giant star outfielder, did likewise.

MAGNATES READY FOR PEACE TALK

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Leaders of organized baseball and a committee representing the Federal league will meet here Thursday in a conference to determine whether there is to be peace in the baseball world, James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, was the authority for the statement that the "peace" advocates will come to a final decision tomorrow. "We always have been willing to meet organized baseball half way," Gilmore said. "Our 'peace' committee has informed Chairman Herrmann, of the national baseball commission, just how far we would go and what concessions we would make to effect a compromise. Mr. Herrmann in turn told them what organized baseball is willing to do to end the unpleasantness.

"As neither side seems dissatisfied with the demands of the other, it appears as if a working agreement will be reached.

"There is no truth in the rumor that the Federal league will disappear if a compromise is reached. There will be a Federal league next season and it will be a major league. Of course we may have to rearrange our circuit if an agreement is entered in with the organized baseball."

Chairman Herrmann, of the National committee, and H. B. Johnson, president of the American league, and member of the commission, are to attend the conference as representatives of organized baseball, it was said.

Heilbroner Went to the Meeting All Primed for the Move.

For more than two months before he went to the meeting at Omaha of the national association, President Louis Heilbroner, of the Central league, was working quietly on a scheme to increase the circuit of his organization to eight clubs and he is all ready to submit propositions just as soon as peace is declared.

Mr. Heilbroner has a motto hanging in his office which reads, "Think twice before you speak, and then talk to yourself." He has been following this out closely but the newspapers in the cities which he visited were not as easy to control as he would have liked and there notices of his presence crept into their sport columns.

It would not have been wise for the president to have given out any of his proposed plans. He and his associates could not afford to rush into print, and there is no room to question his policy of secrecy. Wheeling is getting ready to join the Central league if it is asked, and at Canton a movement was recently started looking toward the formation of a stock company to put in a club there.

A newspaper article that recently appeared there indicated that there had been some communication with the Central league but it did not go into details further than to say that there is a chance to break again into organized baseball.

The old story about Youngstown and Erie has been published so often that it is growing stale and the only difficulty lies in the fact that a club cannot jump from Evansville to Erie between games, and it would be practically impossible to formulate a schedule without a jump of this kind.

Mr. Heilbroner has undoubtedly by this time laid his plans before his directors and they are watching the majors for their cue and will act just as soon as peace negotiations are completed. This will come about. War in baseball is just what a famed general said it was between armed bodies and a compromise is in the air and probably will be announced this week.

Negotiations will be rushed for the reason that some sort of an announcement is due to the national body of the minors and the magnates of the smaller leagues naturally want to know just how to proceed. Mr. Heilbroner has given out an interview at Omaha in which he says the Central will expand in event of peace and take only one more club on to fill out to six if the Federal and organized ball fail to get together.

Salary limits will be fixed at figures that will give the club owners a chance to recoup and the war may have the good effect of bringing about the proper ratio between the money coming in at the gates and that being paid out for salaries and other expenses.

If the baseball magnates had used good judgment in the majors several years ago this ratio could have been established and maintained and if there is a man in the world who can say "I told you so" on this proposition it is Dr. Frank R. Carson, of South Bend, who preached economy year after year and utterly failed to bring his directors to look at the game from his point of view.

San Francisco, Nov. 11.—"Tennis has taken the position of favorite pastime of women," announced Daisy Upham, one of the cleverest exponents of the sport on the Pacific coast.

"Swimmers may disclaim, dancers doubt and golfers question, but the fact remains that more girls are playing than ever before, the standard of skill is higher and the general public is displaying a warmer interest. In my opinion a vote would place tennis at the top of the girls' athletic tree by a large margin.

"Tennis trains the disposition as much as it does the muscles. Doubtful decisions by umpires, games lost by misfortune when victory had seemed well within the grasp, defeat by opponents of unquestioned superiority—all these experiences teach a girl to 'play the game of life' in a sportsman way when on the tennis courts.

"Many of those who oppose tennis as a sport for women contend that the girl player becomes afflicted with enlarged feet and a lopsided development. This is not true. I have been playing constantly for five years and my feet have not increased in size a particle and my right forearm is not noticeably larger than my left. Tennis played properly imparts a symmetrical figure. It is unnecessary to hit the ball with great muscular effort to drive it fast. Speed is secured by correct timing. The good shot is always graceful. When the forearm stroke is made the whole right side is relaxed, and the same thing applies to the left side for the backhand stroke. Thus no set of muscles are enlarged at the expense of the others.

"Tennis greatly improves one's dancing. The deft footwork so essential on the netted court makes it easy to acquire the latest steps on the ball-room floor. Also, the tennis player will readily admit that dancing is good training for tennis. If I neglect my racquet for a while, but continue dancing, I find on returning to the tennis court that my footwork is quite satisfactory, and it is only the hitting that requires brushing up.

"San Francisco has more first-class girl players than any city in the world. More women champions have come from here than from any other place. Australians and easterners who come here with reputations find they are unable to compete with the best players of this city. At the world's fair tournament that has been promised the tennis playing women, the girls of this city should be invincible."

HARVARD IS THE STRONGEST TEAM

(By Hugh S. Fullerton).

Out of the scrambled dope of football a few teams are commencing to emerge, but before any team in America can claim a clear championship title it will have to undergo a search to remove clouds.

Harvard, even while Brickleyless, stands out as the probable eastern champion. Its showing against Princeton, when it cut loose fiercely and showed its real strength, is convincing proof that the team did not play its hardest, or else was not pointed for either Penn state or Michigan.

Evidently the Harvard coaches were caught asleep by Penn state; a remarkable minor team, and it is equally evident that the coaches also underestimated Michigan and came dangerously close to a beating by their negligence in failing to get their team into best form.

It would seem, from Harvard's work against Princeton, that on the form of the team that day it could have beaten either Penn state or Michigan, in their form of a week and three weeks before, but Michigan also showed immense improvement against Pennsylvania over its form against Harvard—so there you are.

In the west Illinois now appears strongest, for Stagg's material is not of the best and he has been compelled to make important changes both in the line-up and in his style of play. Minnesota, with rich material, seems floundering, but has a chance to topple the leaders by an unexpected brace. Neither Chicago nor Illinois may claim a clear western title if they win in the conference, as Michigan will dispute that. It looks, though, as if either Chicago or Illinois could more than match Michigan.

The plan of President James, of the University of Illinois, to abrogate the rules of both sections and play a game for the championship, has its drawbacks. Prexy James wants the winners of the titles, east and west, to meet in the greatest stadium in the country—either in Chicago or New Haven, and play for the benefit of the Belgian war sufferers.

It cannot be expected that Michigan would greet this plan with any degree of warmth, since it would be practically ignoring Michigan as an element in western football. Because of the charitable purpose Michigan could not gracefully object.

However, Michigan and Harvard are tied up in agreements, and if Harvard is the eastern champion it would be rather embarrassing for Harvard to ignore Michigan and play Illinois, for instance, for the championship of the United States. Michigan would be inclined to look upon that as recognition by the east that the western conference represents all the football of the west.

IS A CANDIDATE.

Maupome.

Pierre Maupome, who this season plays for Philadelphia instead of St. Louis in the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard league, is a candidate for leading honors. He was caught off his game at the start but has steadied and is playing the angle game in magnificent form. His showing against Hugh Heal, the Toledo expert, proves that he is back in his stride.

FIRST REGIMENT IS COLLEGE CLUB

That's About All Friar Management Knows About Its Opposition.

"Oh, nothing in particular except that the First regiment A. C. football team is made up of college players and is a hum dinger."

"Not coming? That's the first I ever heard of it. I'm going to Chicago to get a certified check as a guarantee if I can induce the club to come across but I don't think it will disappoint us. You see, we play good football here and get dandy crowds and all the clubs want to play us. So long; if I get anything new I'll call you up."

Thus spake Frank Rinehart, publicity promoter of the Friar athletic board. He says he believes that the team booked for the Sunday game is of the same caliber that the others have been, and he sees no reason why it should not put on a good brand.

It would be too late to cancel at this time and get another club for the date and no effort has been made in that direction, according to the publicity man, and he has been in the game long enough to have a pretty good idea of what he is talking about when it comes to booking football teams.

In the meantime there is work going on in camp. Three defeats at the hands of high class independents has shown to the management and the coaches the weak spots of the home crew and the coaches are laboring hard to strengthen where strength is needed.

Playing against strong opposition is the best eye opener the Friars have ever had and they are profiting by what they have learned. There was a stiff workout last night in which especial attention was given to giving protection to the runner carrying the ball and to tackling along with rapid fire formations which are designed to befuddle the enemy.

THE CALL OF THE MOOSE.

(By George Jaap).

Life, like a river, moves swiftly along
To the Sea of Oblivion: the Ocean unknown,
And the Soul takes its flight, I know not where,
Into the Great Ocean: they call it the Air.
When all that is mortal has passed away
And we are reverently laid in the cold clay,
Our duty to mankind we never can shirk

Work, Work, Work; that is no sin,
We work out life to keep life in.
Blind faith has accomplished a great deal of good,
Hope is a thing not yet understood,
But the mantle of charity we throw over all.
Self charity, that is the Great Moose call,
To every P. A. P. I wish him good luck

Work, Work, Work, through the din and the strife,
For that to you is the great Key of Life.
The rich are the drones in the industrial hive,
And work is the thing that keeps them alive.
It is the thing that has peopled the earth;
It comes along with man at his birth,
And to every P. A. P. I say go and win,
And work out life to keep life in.

When the family ties are all torn loose,
The widow, she too, will hear his call,
We are all for one, and one for all,
If fortune, luck or fate ere come your way,
Remember the old Proverbial Rainy Day,

Berlin, Nov. 11.—Included in the information given out to the press today from official quarters is the following:

"The rout of the Russian battalion near Kenin (thirty-three miles northwest of Kalisz in Russian Poland) by a detachment of German cavalry appears to have been thorough, and while this engagement is without great importance, it shows the offensive spirit of the German troops."

No other news has been received from the eastern arena.

"Special dispatches received from Czernowitz, in Bukowina, report important movements of Russian troops are taking place in Bessarabia and east Galicia apparently inspired by the campaign against Turkey. The Vienna Fremdenblatt has published a dispatch from Czerowitz, saying that the Russians on Nov. 9 threw shells into that city, but their batteries speedily were silenced. An advance guard skirmish before Czerowitz ended in a Russian retreat.

"Constantinople reports the continuation of Turkish offensive movements on the Caucasian border in spite of the snow. Other reports received here from Athens declare Turkish operations against Egypt are progressing and that there is much military activity in Syria. The Turkish government declares with emphasis that the report in the Paris Temps of rioting on the part of Turkish Armenians is a flat lie.

"During the past week the specie reserve of the German Imperial bank increased 27,000,000 marks, while the circulation of notes decreased 86,000,000 marks.

"It is reported here from Athens that Bulgaria has refused to adopt the anti-Turkish attitude suggested by the triple entente powers in return for the promise of the addition of Adrianople to Bulgarian territory.

"The Bulgarian minister at Rome has said in an interview that Bulgaria demands the restitution of territory inhabited by Bulgarians. Bulgaria will keep neutral in the present war, the minister declared and under no circumstances will she fight Turkey.

"The president of the Turkish chamber of deputies, Haliel Boy, has arrived at Bucharest, Roumania, on a special mission."

One of the German prisoners of war in England has written a letter to the Frankfurter Zeitung in which he declares that, as a result of bad treatment, bad food, bad housing in cold barracks, forty-six out of 700 German prisoners died within one week of pneumonia and typhoid fever. There were no wounded men among these prisoners.

Lieutenant General Hellingrath, inspector of German military roads with headquarters at Cambrai, in northern France, is making public exhibitions of dum-dum bullets found on British prisoners and also of British rifles equipped with a contrivance to cut off and perforate the points of bullets.

GOOD CHEER FOR LITTLE FELLOWS

Good cheer for the children of Fort Wayne's poor will be dispensed very much after the same manner as it was last year through the medium of the Sentinel-Empress theater fund and an early start will enable the committees in charge of the affair to get into the markets while they are fresh and full in order to make the selections of the presents that will be purchased.

Although the weather department is supplying a brand that has no suggestion of a snow and jingling sleighbells that serve to make "it more like Christmas," the youngsters who were beneficiaries last year are beginning to take notice and are making inquiries so they can arrange their juvenile affairs in a way to permit them to attend the show and the distribution.

Funds will be received from now at the Sentinel office in spite of the fact that it is a bit earlier than such lists are usually opened, but it is hoped by this method to avoid the rush and confusion that is bound to follow delays.

This has a distinct advantage in giving opportunity to look over the lists that are to be supplied through every available channel, sorting out the duplicates that naturally occur and buying for each of the children such things as are best suited.

Practically the fund has been started. Twenty-five dollars to be invested in good, warm stockings for the little fellows was the opening offering and it comes from a young lady of Fort Wayne who is deeply interested in charity and who wanted to be the first to make a donation although she refrained from giving her name for publication.

As has been repeatedly said there will be plenty of deserving poor to be cared for at Christmas. Mothers who are working day and night to keep together the children sent to them, who eke out a bare existence, fathers of large families and small earning capacity and poor tots whose parents have been taken from them, send out a strong appeal this year.

There will be no embarrassment in the manner of giving. Tickets will be sent out as they were last year entitling the children receiving them to admittance to the show and a share in the distribution. No names wil be given out and every effort made to entertain the deserving without imposing any burden upon them by holding up their poverty to the public.

Last year people responded so cheerfully that the fund was ample before Christmas arrived and the boks were closed. This leads to the belief that it will be larger this year and an early start is being made with a view of carrying out the plan on a scale in keeping with the well-known charity of the people of Fort Wayne.

NOTES OF THE CITY HALL.

Arrangements were perfected Wednesday by the board of public works under which Harry McAfee and Ephriam Arter will deed to the city the property at the southwest corner of Lawton park for an approach for the proposed Fourth street bridge over Spy Run creek.

There was an assessment of $70 against the property but it was worth more money and they voluntarily offered to give it to the city and will make the proper conveyances.

Mr. Arter will also give a corner of one of his lots for the purpose of opening Herman street and connecting it with Sherman. There will be some assessments necessary to make the improvement and Engineer Randall will prepare a plan.

TO OUT-OF-TOWN CUSTOMERS

Fort Wayne is the metropolis of northeastern Indiana. It merits, ought to get and generally does get that part of the trade of the citizens of surrounding counties which cannot be supplied by their home stores. As an Indiana city it should have and generally does receive the preference over large cities out of the state.

Fort Wayne stores at all times—not simply for a week, but all the time—give special inducements to out-of-town trade. This store always gives this trade a 5 per cent. discount for cash. It packs all goods purchased without charge. Where the purchase amounts to $10 or more it prepays freight charges. We want our goods to cost the people of surrounding towns not a cent more than they cost our customers just around the corner from our store.

Former 60,000 Inhabitants Have Dwindled to Barely 10,000.

Malines, Oct. 30.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Barely ten thousand of Malines' former residents remain in this ruined city and thousands who are still here cannot stay after the beginning of cold weather unless outside funds are provided to repair shattered roofs and walls wrecked by the German field guns.

Before the German invasion Malines had 60,000 inhabitants and was an important art and manufacturing center. St. Rombold, one of the most interesting church buildings in Europe, dates back to the fifteenth century and contained an altar piece which was one of Van Dykes' masterpieces. St. John's church and the Church of Our Lady contained paintings of Rubens. The historic palace of justice was once the home of Margaret, of Austria.

Malines is half way between Antwerp and Brussels, on the principal stone road connecting the two great cities of Belgium. Like most ancient cities, Malines has narrow streets. The main traveled street, along which nearly all traffic moves, in passing northward toward Antwerp, is scarcely thirty feet wide from curb to curb and has many turns in it which make the passage of an enemy exceedingly difficult. Stone and brick businesss houses and residence three or four stories high, built in a continuous line, stood along this street. Many of these were battered down completely by the German artillery and the debris filled the street so completely that only enough has been cleared away in places to permit the passage of a single automobile.

Where fire did not spread to the wrecked buildings the ruined stocks of merchandise and the broken furniture of their living apartments in the upper stories may be still seen. Such food supplies as were useful for the army was taken by the German officers and soldiers are billetted in the houses which are still fit for habitation.

Malines is intersected by several arms of the river Dyle and is practically surrounded by a canal and wide boulevard. Visitors entering the city from the south are challenged by German soldiers standing guard at the canal bridge and are again stopped as they enter the great medieval stone arch forming the entrance to the main portion of the old city.

Factories along the river and canal shared the same fate as residences, business houses and churches. The great railway shops were ruined. Hat factories, tapestry factories, woolen mills and starch factories, which furnished employment to thousands, were wrecked by artillery fire. Trenches in the sandy beet fields which flank the highways leading into Malines and thousands of rifle pits show hof stubbornly the Belgians resisted the Germans. Many of the trenches are so long they resemble drainage ditches. They are from three to five feet deep and about three feet wide. In many places they are covered with planks and timbers upon which brush is piled to afford protection against shells. The rows of once beautiful elms that lined the highway were torn and shattered by the rain of bullets and shells. Where the trees were obstacles to artillery fire they were cut down and used as shelter by the soldiers. Hedges were mowed down by the Germans wherever they afforded a screen for the Belgians. The small fields, none of which contains more than ten acres, where the crops were not burrowed out by the entrenching army, were so trampled over by the rival forces that little remains of the potatoes, beets and cabbage which would have sustained Belgium this winter.

A few horses unfit for work remain in the fields and the faithful dogs, which are harnessed beneath the high two-wheeled cars of the peasants, are about the only domestic animals left. It is no uncommon sight to see a family of refugees on the Malines road with their bedding, a few household utensils and children too young to walk, loaded on one of these carts, pushed by a tired mother, assisted by the dog tugging patiently.

BIG AUDIENCE HEARS CONWELL

An audience that completely filled Westminster Presbyterian church heard Dr. Russell H. Conwell in "Acres of Diamonds," as the opening number of the Woman's league lecture course, Tuesday evening, and enjoyed two hours of rare delight.

The noted Philadelphia clergyman, for more than fifty years a platform star, preached again his gospel of opportunity close at hand and despite the fact that the lecture has been given again and again, it loses nothing of its perpetual charm and freshness. The keynote throughout is that it is man's duty to gain wealth, and that it is not only possible for everyone to do so, but to find it close at hand if the most is made of immediate surroundings. Dr. Conwell referred to his frequent visits to Fort Wayne in former years and while he complimented the city on its growth and advancement, he declared that it might have been much more pronounced had the spirit running through "Acres of Diamonds" been the actuating one through all these years. Despite his age Dr. Conwell is still a vigorous speaker with a tremendous message.

Rev. C. H. Snashall introduced the speaker. At the opening Rabbi Lovitch explained that the sale of tickets had not yet been sufficient to defray the expenses of the course of six lectures, and he urged extra effort in that direction. In the next number, to be given December 8 by Glen Frank, a change has been made inthe subject. Mr. Frank's theme will be "The Scapegoat."

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

PENNSYLVANIA'S NEW CABIN CAR

First Reconstructed Caboose on Order for 600 is Out of Shop.

Master Car Builder James A. Graham, of the Pennsylvania, has just completed and turned out of the shops the first reconstructed cabin car built on lines to meet the requirements of the new law bearing on cabooses used in the United States.

The standard caboose, or cabin car, on the Pennsylvania, has been a short box affair, with cupola, set on four wheels and there are 600 of these cars in service on the Western division. The new law requires that cabooses must have eight wheels, two trucks of four wheels each. As fast as the old cabin cars can be taken through the shops they will be reconstructed with solid steel underframes, two pair of four wheel trucks, a three foot platform on each end, with steps on each side, and numerous other improvements, making them practically new cars.

There are twenty men now engaged in the work of reconstructing the cabooses at the east shops and they will hereafter turn out about twenty-five of them each month. The reconstructed cars are classed N-6-A and bear on their side "Pennsylvania Lines," in large letters and in smaller letters the information that they are constructed according to the "United States Safety Appliance Standard."

No. 996,372, illustrated elsewhere in the Sentinel, was the first to be turned out of the shops and was run down to the old yards this morning for inspection by the division officials. The steel underframes of this car weigh 6,400 pounds and the completed caboose weighs 34,500 pounds. The main body is twenty-four feet long and the platforms are three feet wide, making the total length about thirty-two feet. The body is painted the standard caboose red, trimmed with black, while the trucks, air pump and other exposed parts are black.

The interior arrangement of the car is far superior to that of the old style cabin car, being much larger and containing greater accommodations for the trainmen. In one end is the conductor's bench, which also serves as a bed; a writing table, which is hung on hinges to the wall, is dropped down out of the way when not in use; cubby holes for papers, etc., and a stove. The latter is called the "Estate" stove and was designed especially for caboose use. It has two lids, an oven and ample firebox and each door and lid is locked so it can not be opened by the jar of the train, thus minimizing danger from fire while moving over the road or in a wreck.

In the center of the caboose are lockers on each side, a refrigerator and cupboard on one side and on the other side a closet with shelves and cubby holes for carrying waste or any other articles needed by the trainmen in their work. The other end of the caboose is fitted with four berths, two lower and two upper, for sleeping purposes. The upper berths can be dropped down when not in use, thus giving free access to the lower berths for seating purposes. All are upholstered in leather.

In the center of the cabin car is a commodious cupola with four upholstered seats, two facing in each direction.

The work of changing the cabin cars comes at an opportune time, for there is a scarcity, or rather an inclination to curtail car repair work, because there is little demand for them on the road. Reconstructing the cabin cars is being carried on as rapidly as the twenty men engaged at it can do it. This is as large a force as can be conveniently handled in that line of work at present.

DISINFECTING CATTLE CARS.

Pennsylvania Puts Gang Out on Line With Equipment.

Foreman O. E. Shaffer, of the car repair shops at the east yards, and ten men started out this morning with a specially equipped train to disinfect the 450 to 500 cattle cars on the Western division of the Pennsylvania, in accordance with the law which says that no stock car can be moved out of the state until it has been thoroughly disinfected against the foot and mouth disease. It is said that it will take thirty minutes to thoroughly disinfect a car and if this is true, Mr. Shaffer and his gang have a task on hand that will keep them busy several weeks. They will first operate between Fort Wayne and Clark Junction and then take the Crestline end of the division. Their train consists of an engine, a coach, a caboose and a box car. The latter is fitted up with tanks for the cresol compound, the disinfecting fluid, and with pumps for drawing water from the engine tender to be used in making the compound. As some of the tanks are being used, those that have been emptied can be refilled, thus allowing operations to proceed without delay. The train is in charge of Conductor S. A. Miller and Engineer Rufus Ormiston.

HORSES FOR ENGLISH ARMY.

Seven hundred and fifty horses, loaded at the National Stock Yards in St. Louis, passed through Fort Wayne at 9 o'clock this morning, over the Wabash road, en route for Montreal, where they will be loaded aboard steamers and sent to England for use in the armies of the allies. There are thirty cars in the train and it is handled on a fast schedule as Wells-Fargo express matter. This is one of the largest of the several shipments of horses for export to pass through this city since the war began.

FIFTY YEARS OLD.

Division No. 12, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is issuing invitations to a dance at Minnet hall, Friday evening, December 11. The division will be fifty years old on that date and the anniversary will be celebrated in this manner. Only invited guests will be admitted to the dance.

THE RADIATOR EXPLODED.

A high pressure steam radiator in the office of Claim Agents K. L. Sheeler and John P. Murray, of the Pennsylvania, exploded at 5:30 o'clock last evening. The room was not occupied at the time and Lieuts. Clark and Strasser and Clerk Carl Roembke, of the police department, had to break the lock to get into the room to turn off the steam. Only slight damage to pictures and furniture resulted from the steam, which filled the room.

TONY KELKER ILL.

Tony Kelker, retired Pennsylvania engineer, is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rodabeaver, at 412 Ross street. He has been ailing for some weeks, but until the past few days was able to be out on the streets. Mr. Kelker ran the first engine on this part of the Pennsylvania, when the road was under construction.

NEW STOREHOUSE MAN.

O. J. Baals, who resigned the position of storekeeper at the Pennsylvania round house some days ago, has been succeeded by E. B. Noble. The latter was formerly material distributor at the down town store house.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Division Engineer W. S. Danes, of the Wabash, is in the city today on business for the company.

Trainmaster H. W. Loomis, of the Lake Shore, was a Fort Wayne caller yesterday.

The vaudeville people at the Empress will have an extra sleeper on G. R. & I. train No. 5 tonight, en route to Grand Rapids.

W. F. Sprandle, Pennsylvania lineman, and his wife, are both sick. He has been unable to work for two or three days.

Hammersmith Harry Shives, of the Bass blacksmith shop, has gone to the country near Monroeville to visit relatives and to incidentally do some quail and rabbit shooting.

C. A. Contant, the expert locksmith and mechanic, went to Bourbon yesterday to unlock a safe which refused to respond to the usual methods. Mr. Contant opened the treasure box in a few minutes.

Barney Bangert, who is nearly seventy years old, resigned his position at the Wabash round house yesterday and has been succeeded by Timothy Murphy, who was furloughed about a year ago.

Next Monday the Nickel Plate will inaugurate a daily sleeping car service between Chicago and Boston. This car has been in service only six days of the week.

Seven seamless knitting machines were sold last week by the Wayne Knitting mills to a Philadelphia firm and new machines replaced them in the local plant, enabling the Wayne mills to turn out a better product.

Conductor A. L. Osborne, of the Nickel Plate, who has been spending the last two weeks in Ohio recovering from an injury to his leg, returned to Fort Wayne yesterday, but will not resume work for several days.

The proposed plans for a local sick and death benefit by the Barbers' union will be considered and possibly approved at a meeting of the executive board tomorrow night in the Werkman & Hudson barber shop.

Thieves removed from a cabin car in the Pennsylvania yards Monday three coats and a pair of new shoes belonging to a conductor. Two of the coats were of the type worn by passenger men when dressed in uniform.

Z. T. Dungan, Wabash claim agent, is the secretary also of the Huntington school board, which is at present considering a proposition to build a new high school building. Mr. Dungan is well known in every city, town and hamlet along the Wabash road.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Levington, who were recently married, were the surprised guests of honor at a party given at the home of Harry Leeper last night. There were about twenty guests and each took part in the presentation of articles so dear to the newly married people. Mr. Levington is a clerk at the Bass blacksmith shop.

The Pennsylvania Manhattan limited, eastbound, was in two sections today, the second section being occupied by delegates to American Federated Manufacturers' association and to the Investment Bankers' association, the former at Washington and the latter at Philadelphia.

Sunday a train load of cannons passed through Huntington, over the Erie road. They were consigned to the Beth Steel company, Vancouvre, B. C., where they will, it is believed, receive their attachments and then be sent to some part of Europe to do service in the war. The railway officials and others accompanying the consignment would not give out any definite information concerning the ultimate destination of the cannon, if they knew anything about it.

The body of A. E. Bugher, the telegraph operator, who was drowned at Howe a few days ago, passed through the city, accompanied by some of the relatives, on its way to Upland, where burial was made today. The death of this young man has resulted in some changes in the ranks of the G. R. & I. operators. D. J. Harrod was sent to Howe to fill the vacancy and W. A. Firestone has succeeded Harrod at the Spy Run tower.

Chief among the rooters for the Sons of St. George team in the contest for football honors with an Indianapolis Soccer team in this city Sunday will be the employes in the general testing room at the Fort Wayne Electric works, where Samuel Anglin, one of the players, is employed. Mr. Anglin, who attended the King's college at Dublin before leaving his native country, attained a reputation as a football player and some good work is expected from him.

POLICE BOARD DEFIED.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 11.—Notice has been served on Mike Wall, superintendent of police, by John Snyder, city clerk, that only $425.97 remains in the police and jail fund, which will be insufficient to pay November salaries, amounting to $492.

The salary of each member of the force was increased $10 a month, last March, by the police board over the protest of the majority faction of the council. The clerk refused to pay the increased salaries, but was ordered to do so on the ground that there was sufficient money available. The council refuses to appropriate money to meet the salary expense, and the clash of authority between the police board and the council will come to a direct issue in court.

OPPOSES RATE INCREASE.

Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce Has Filed Complaint.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Complaint was filed today with the interstate commerce commission by the Indianapolis chamber of commerce against an increase of proportionate rates from Indianapolis to Ohio river crossings on freight to points in the southeast.

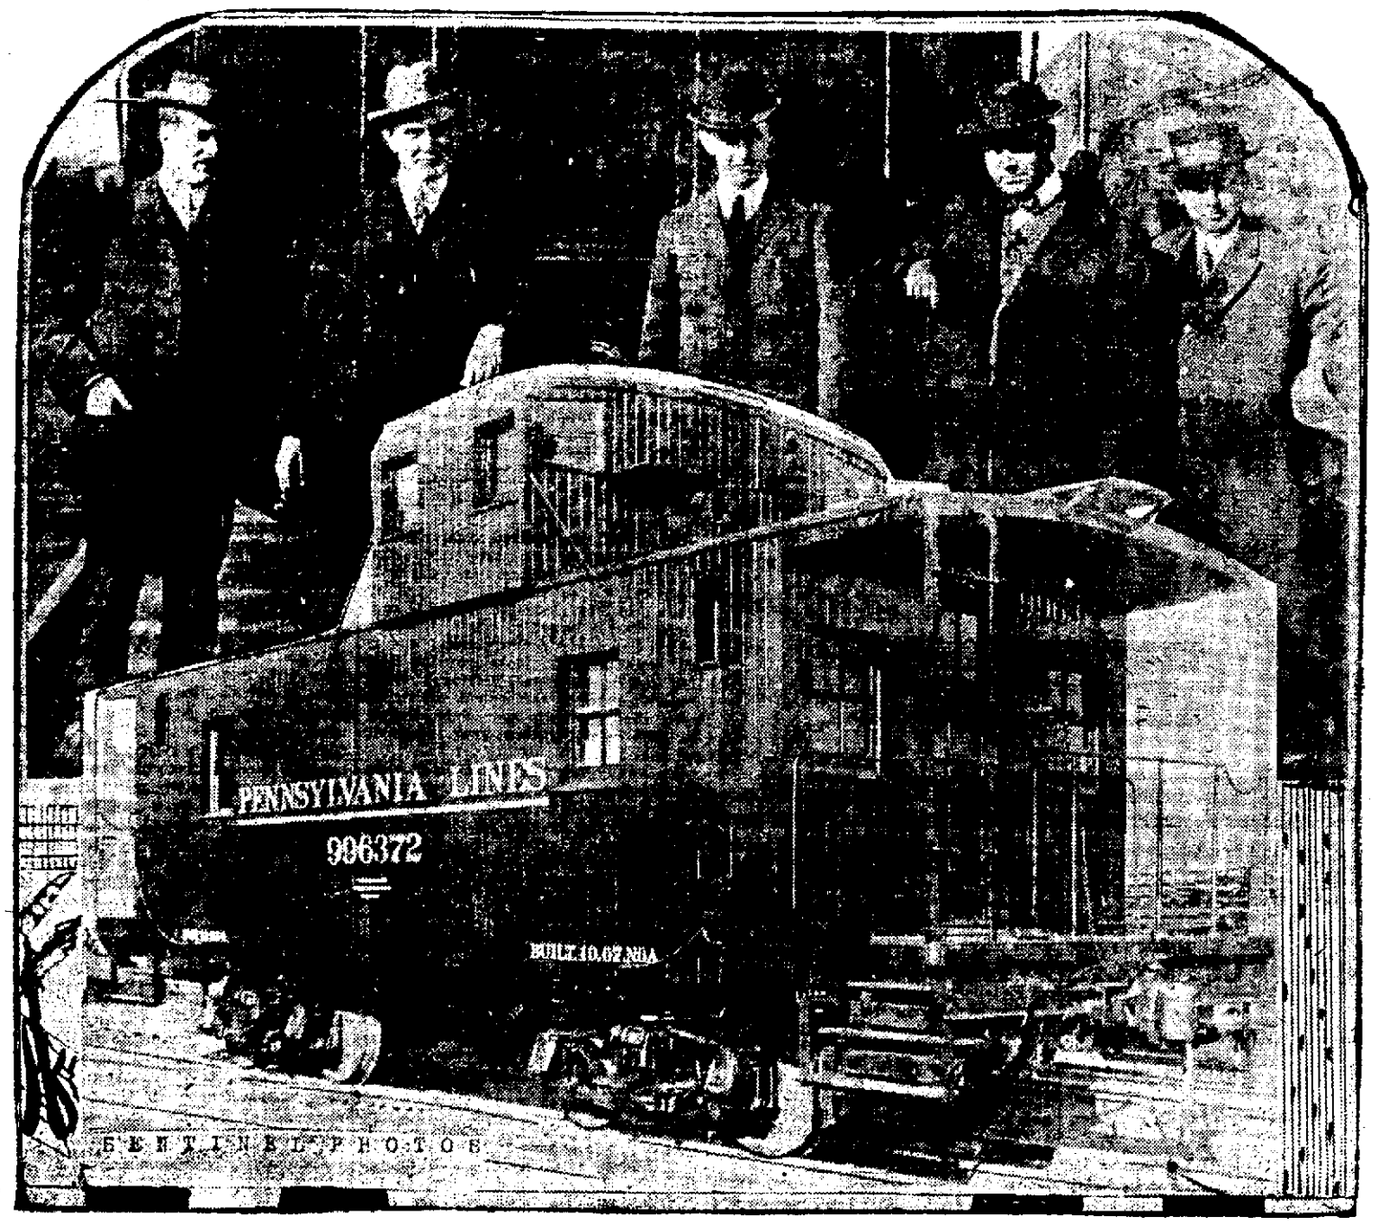
First Reconstructed Cabin Car Turned out of Pennsylvania Shops in Fort Wayne



A very important work at the Pennsylvania car shops, in the eastern part of the city, at present is the reconstruction of the old style four wheeled cabin cars to conform with the federal laws bearing on that subject. There are about 600 of these cabooses to be remodeled and the Sentinel presents above a picture of the first to leave the shops, No. 996,372, and some of the officials of the road and shops. The personnel of the group, reading from the left to the right, is: Supt. W. M. Wardrop, Master Car Builder J. A. Graham, Acting Master Mechanic E. E. Greist, Trainmaster C. L. Hamilton and Division Engineer Guy Scott.

ACTION WOULD CLOSE FACTORY

"If we are not permitted to empty our refuse into the St. Mary's river we will have to close down our plant."

The above statement was made to Deputy Wardens James Connell and George Wyatt by an official of the Beet Sugar factory at Decatur. To close down the plant at this time would throw hundreds of men and women out of employment right at a time when winter is near at hand. So it was a pretty big question for the two deputies—in fact, so big that they returned to Fort Wayne to consult with Chief Game Warden Rodney Fleming before filing any affidavits or taking any action whatever.

The game wardens are up against the question of whether the fish now inhabiting the waters of the St. Mary's river are more important than the work which is afforded to the hundreds of men and women by the operation of the Decatur plant.

Another reason why no affidavits were filed was because the judge of the Adams circuit court is in recess and it will be twenty days before court will convene. In the meantime the fish in the river are dying by the hundreds, all because of what the state chemist calls soured vegetation.

Thousands of gallons of water from the river are used by the Decatur plant to wash the beets and is then again emptied back into the river. It is the water which has been used in the washing process that is causing all the trouble, it is said.

PLACES BAN ON RABBITS.

Order Result of Diphtheria in Switzerland County.

Vevay, Ind., Nov. 11.—On account of an epidemic of diphtheria, which is killing thousands of rabbits in Switzerland county, Dr. L. H. Bear, local health officer, has issued an order, prohibiting any merchant in the county from selling rabbits, and has requested all citizens to refrain from eating game of any kind.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, has been asked to investigate.

MENEFEE WORKMAN DIES OF INJURIES

Alexander Posnovisky, a foreigner, who was seriously injured Tuesday noon at the Menefee foundry when he was caught in some unknown manner in a belt, died at the St. Joseph hospital Wednesday at 11:45 a. m., where he was removed immediately following the accident.

The unfortunate man, who was 32 years of age, lived with his wife and four children at 1138 Hayden street, and had been employed at the Menfee foundry for the last three years, and was well liked by all those with whom he associated. He was a member of the St. Hyacinth Polish Catholic church.

Posnovisky was assisting John Manier, another employe, in repairing a belt attached to the line shaft and in some manner unseen to any one else he was caught on the shaft and the belt wrapped about his body, whirling him around several times. His left leg was broken in several places and he suffered other injuries all over his body, rendering him unconscious. His condition was very critical and no hopes were given for his recovery from the first.

OFFERED TO ANGELL.

Chicago Man May Head University of Washington.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—James Rowland Angell, dean of all the faculties at the University of Chicago, has been offered the presidency of the University of Washington, it was learned today. The dean, who is a son of James B. Angell, president emeritus of the University of Michigan, is said to be in Seattle in connection with the offer.

Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago, said that while he could not speak for Dean Angell, the latter's refusal in the past to leave Chicago has led his colleagues to believe he would remain here.

NOT THE SALOON MAN.

Carl Wehrle, mentioned in connection with the raid of a gaming house on Calhoun street Saturday night, and fined under an assumed name in the city court on Monday, is not the saloon keeper of the same name with a place of business on Fairfield avenue. The saloon man's friends have been making inquiries that prompted him to ask this statement.

Mr. and Mrs. Van B. Rogers, 912 West DeWald street, are the proud parents of a nine and a half pound baby girl that was born early Wednesday morning.

REMAINS ARRIVE TONIGHT.

The remains of George Kreig, who died suddenly in Chicago, while his wife was here attending to her aged mother, who is sick, will arrive in Fort Wayne Wednesday evening at 7:50 o'clock over the Pennsylvania. The remains will be taken to the Klaehn & Melching undertaking parlors, where funeral services will be held later.

CITY BREVITIES

Shortly after 6 o'clock Wednesday morning the fire department made a run to the residence of Byron Hattersley, 427 Old Fort place, where some waste paper in the kitchen had accidentally become ignited. The blaze was quickly extinguished and aside from a hole that was burned in the floor there was little damage.

The fire department was called to the Wayne Knitting mills at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, where smoke from a hotbox in the machinery had prompted some frightened employe to turn in the alarm.

HUSBAND FAILED TO MEASURE UP

Said He Was Robust and Earned Big Wages and Had No Debts.

Helen R. Hazzard says in a complaint filed in the superior court today in which she asks the annulment of her marriage to Frank Hazzard that he didn't measure up to the standard he proclaimed during his courtship.

She alleges he told her he was robust in body and mind, earned $3 a day, was capable of working all the time and owed nothing. Instead, she charges he has weak lungs, is unable to perform sufficient labor to make the $3 a day he said he could make, is feeble in mind and body and is afflicted with "spells."

They were married July 1, 1914, and lived together until November 7. She was formerly Helen R. Miller, lives at 1202 Anthony boulevard and asked to have him restrained from annoying her or disposing of his possessions. Phil B. Colerick is her attorney.

Sues for Damages.

In a damage suit against Kenneth Archibald, Mabel Carpenter says that she was driving through Cedarville on October 8, of this year, when Archibald drove an automobile against her buggy, threw her out and inflicted serious external and internal injuries from which she has since suffered. She demands $1,000 damages. P. B. Colerick filed the action.

Angle Is Sentenced.

Sheridan Angle was sentenced in the circuit court Wednesday to from one to fourteen years in the Jeffersonville reformatory for grand larceny.

In company with his wife he stole last summer a horse and buggy from Robert Elliott at Monroeville and was caught after a chase by Sheriff Gladieux. His wife was with him at the time, but was released on account of the fact that she was in a delicate condition.

Divorce Matters Heard.

The divorce suit of Nellie Johns against Cedric Johns, filed some time ago in the superior court, has been dismissed.

Plans All on File.

All plans for the Harrison street bridge over St. Mary's river have been filed with the county commissioners and bids will be received up to November 16. Asa W. Grosvenor, Adams and Cummins, of Detroit, the National Concrete company and George Jaap have submitted plans.

Notes of the Courts.

James Taylor has sued for a divorce from Mabel Taylor, to whom he was married October 23, 1912, and from whom he separated October 23, 1914. Abandonment is charged. McAdams & Hartzell are his attorneys.

M. S. Wilson, prohibition candidate for state representative, has filed a statement showing that he expended $10.75 in the campaign.

Attorney Henry F. J. Reiter, progressive candidate for judge of the superior court, also filed a statement. He makes oath that he did not spend a cent and made no promises.

In superior court Carl R. Guyer entered suit against Anna Guyer for divorce. The couple lived together five months. They were married May 28, 1914 and separated October 31, 1914. McAdams & Hartzell represent him.

The case of Daisy Fryer against Pearl Fryer has been dismissed in superior court.

Elvin J. Wilkinson has filed an appeal bond of $2,000 in the circuit court. He was recently convicted in the city court of operating a second-hand store without a license. Jesse Brosius signed the bond. Attorney T. E. Ellison has filed a motion to dismiss the suit on the grounds that the complaint and affidavit do not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

After testifying that her husband had been abusive and had beaten her once so violently that she permanently lost the hearing of one ear, Clara L. Wester was granted a divorce from N. William Wester.

PAY WAR HONORS TO VANQUISHED

German Governor of Tsing Tau and Officers Retain Swords.

"Permitted to capitulate instead of surrendering unconditionally the former governor of Tsing Tau and his officers were, in compliance with the gracious wish of the Japanese emperor allowed to wear their swords and maintain soldier's honor. Captain Meyer Waldeck said:

"'Four or five days prior to the surrender of the forces the wireless station was destroyed, making it impossible longer to communicate with Peking. The successful storming of Bismark fort by the attacking soldiers, who recklessly hurled themselves at us by making human bullets of their bodies, sealed the fate of Tsing Tau. It then became evident the garrison could not longer hold itself against the shelling of heavy artillery. To have done so would have swelled the list of casualties and nothing would have been gained. That forced me to raise the white flag.'

"The German charge d'affaires at Peking says that Tsing Tau fell two weeks sooner than was expected.

"The governor with 2,300 officers and men will be transported to Japan as prisoners on Nov. 12.

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 11.—A three-story reinforced concrete building under construction here by George H. Lynas collapsed yesterday afternoon, carrying down fourteen workmen with the mass of gravel and timber which was precipitated into the basement, together with the concrete mixer installed on the third floor. Henry Shepard was killed when he was crushed under the concrete mixer. The seriously injured are: Edward Snokes, arm broken and leg cut; Robert McDill, colored, head cut, leg and hand crushed; John Call, head cut and arm crushed; Albert Jones, Andrew Simmons and Vallie Petrie, carpenters, each injured about head and back.

The accident resulted from overweighting the third floor with concrete materials, it is said.

Quantities of wet gravel to be used in making the concrete floor were hauled up and dumped in the middle of the building where the mixer stood. The supporting beams were not sufficiently reinforced and they gave way, precipitating the entire mass into the basement.

Directly under the falling gravel and timbers were two blacksmiths working on a wagon. They heard the timbers give and got out from under in time to escape injury.

George Lynas, the owner, was constructing the building under his own personal direction. He was on the third floor when the building collapsed, but clung to some timbers and escaped injury.

STEPS FROM NEW DANCES—THE "BEAUTIFUL MAXIXE."

Margaret Hawkesworth — Basil Durant.

The mazes of the maxixe are mystifying no longer.

Of course there are variations of the dance, such as the lulu fado, which only the advanced disciples of the modern dance are attempting, but the real regular maxixe will be easy for everybody this winter.

The first movement is the promenade, the second, the single arch; the third movement is the skating step, a long, sliding step; the fourth movement is the twining skating step. In the fifth movement, called la coquette, each partner dances a few steps to one side of the other while the hands remain clasped. The sixth movement is the double arch, where all four arms are raised; the seventh movement, the spinning step; the eighth and final movement, la maxixe itself.

BE PREETY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Adv.

FOREIGN TRADE IS NOW BIGGER

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—The demoralization of American commerce caused by the European war is now a thing of the past!

Facts and figures prove it. Your Uncle Samuel has again resumed his big job of selling his surplus products to other peoples—and that means more and more work for Americans; less unemployment, and fewer idle factories.

I have just secured at the department of commerce first estimate of American exports and imports for October. The figures are surprisingly cheering after hearing so many pessimistic prophecies of the "ruin of American commerce and industry."

Listen to these:

A jump in October export figures of approximately $44,000,000, bringing the balance of trade in favor of American shippers up to $60,000,000, is the estimate issued by officials of the department of commerce.

In August the value of imports exceeded exports by $20,000,000, but since the resumption of trade relations interrupted by the war the pendulum has been rapidly swinging back.

The growth of October exports is shown by the weekly figures of exports compiled for the ten principal ports of the country, on which the department's estimates are based. These are New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Galveston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Detroit, Seattle and Buffalo For the week of October 4 to 10, the exports from these ten ports were $34,890,000.

During the following week they decreased by $6,000,000.

In the third week of October they jumped to more than $38,000,000.

In the final week of the month they totalled $45,000,000.

The department estimates that the total exports for the month will amount to approximately $200,000,000, with imports amounting to $140,000,000.

If this proportion should be maintained, the October export figures will show an increase over those of May, when trade conditions were practically normal, of more than $25,000,000!

The detailed figures for all export ports will not be available before the middle of the month.

BEST COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

NOW WANT WOMEN IN LEGISLATURE

Gentler Sex Has Begun a Lively Crusade in California.

Los Angeles, Nov. 11.—"The inability of each sex to completely grasp the viewpoint, standards and ideals of the other makes it necessary that we have both men and women in our law-making body."

leading clubwomen of the state, the first woman's party of a political complexion has been organized to campaign in support of Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey's candidacy for the state assembly from Los Angeles.

Over 500 prominent women of various political persuasions and stations in life have enrolled in the organization.

"Every woman who has kept in touch with what has been done at the state capital feels it is high time to introduce women representatives in the law-making body," said Mrs. Francisco, who has taken a prominent part in establishing the nucleus of the woman's party here.

"There should be an unconscious consciousness of woman in the legislature—of feminine standards and ideals. I hope to see at least one-third of our legislators women by another session or two.

"This does not mean," she explained "that there will ever be a woman's party in California. That idea is abhorrent to every woman I know. But certainly our sex should have actual representation in the legislature.

"We feel that with one or more women sitting in the assembly and in the senate the feminine viewpoint will permeate our law-making bodies as subconsciously as the masculine viewpoint now holds it. We want the two standards blended.

ACID MOUTH—LOOSE TEETH CORRECTED.

Everyone should avoid exposing the teeth to extremes of temperature, says the London Chronicle. Hot and cold substances have a tendency to break the enamel, and when these cracks are exposed to dental microbes there is danger for the teeth, as infestments occur in which the tiny little animal microbes bore their way through the enamel, gradually eating big holes into the large molars. When the frontal teeth are attacked one may have to fill the holes with gold, which at once is a disfigurement and a source of dissatisfaction.

Teeth extraction is always to be avoided—pull a tooth and you make room for more tooth trouble. The teeth separate from one another or come together too closely for teeth comfort, gum separation, yellow coating of the enamel, blackened teeth inside the mouth bring on a train of troubles. You soon have bleeding gums, ulcerated teeth, distortions, sensitiveness to ordinary heat or cold, a desire to dig the teeth, protruding or receding teeth, and then come insanitary, uncleanly false or store teeth.

Now, all these conditions may be avoided if you will go to your druggist and get about four ounces of fluid ergan (you won't need more) and use a teaspoonful morning, noon and night, working it about the teeth for a minute or so. The gritty substances will be dissolved, the soreness will disappear over night, sensitiveness will soon depart, and the dirty yellow will be cleaned off and you will see the white of your own enamel, your teeth will be firm and strong—try your finger on them—and you won't have to pull the offending molar.

DESPONDDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa.: "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

GETS SIX CENTS FOR HOURLY PAY

In introducing testimony upon which Leroy Scott was held in the city court Wednesday under a bond of $1,000 to the circuit court on a charge of child neglect, it was shown that Agnes Scott, his divorced wife, works nine and a half hours a day for from 60 to 65 cents and that her weekly average is a little over $3.50.

She lives with her mother at 1442 Broadway and a child of four years is being kept by an uncle and one of three is in the Allen county orphans' home because she is not able to support it. She told the story of her small earnings in giving her testimony.

She said that she separated from Scott and secured a divorce and he agreed to pay $10 a month for the support of the children but that he had failed since last March to give one cent. A warrant for his arrest was served by Detectives Rundle and Brennan and he had no good excuse to offer for his neglect.

Polley Held for Week.

In order to make some investigations Cecil Polley was held for a week under a bond of $300 on a charge of loitering. He gives his residence as Akron and was arrested Tuesday by Detective Spillner and Pappert.

He gave a check for $15 at the Higbee restaurant and got part of the money. Later he is said to have obtained the check to get it cashed and failed to return to reimburse the proprietor who had advanced him a small sum. The police will find out whether or not the check is good.

The Other Cases.

Claude Oxx, agent for a Chicago picture enlarging house, was held on a vagrancy charge until Friday. Mrs. Albert Bacon, of Jefferson township, found him in her house Tuesday, she said, and he was arrested but had disturbed nothing. He flatly denied he had been in the house. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Courdevey and Mills.

Charles Urner confessed after he had applied for lodging at police station that he was an army deserter and was held for the authorities.

Claude Siples, charged with an assault upon Joe Vlatchi at the new Palace theater building, was let go with orders to report on Thursday morning. He hit Vlatchi in the mouth after he had been discharged.

George Bender, plain drunk, was let go and so was John McLieth, who was released after serving eleven days and proceeded to get drunk right off the reel.

RESENT FEDERAL CONTROL.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 11.—The feeling of the northwestern states that the federal control of natural resources places them at a disadvantage, received vigorous expression here today through Gov. Wm. S. Fry, of Utah, who addressed the governors' conference.

In fact the day was set aside for consideration of "state control of natural resources," and this part of the program was interrupted only by a luncheon at Lathrop hall, University of Wisconsin. Federal control, the western governor asserted, was inimical to the growth of western communities, as he said it discouraged individual enterprise.

SIXTY-SEVEN HORSES PERISH.

Fire Aboard Steamer Less Disastrous Than First Reported.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 11.—Sixty-seven horses were burned to death or smothered in the fire which turned the steamer Rembrandt to this port yesterday from her journey from Baltimore to France with more than 800 animals for the allies armies. The ship lay far out today with a guard about her, and further than that the loss of animals totalled 67 instead of several hundred, as had been reported and that the fire that damaged the ship originated in the forecastle, no information was given.

An agent of the French government arrived here today and it was said the remaining horses might be landed. An official who boarded the Rembrandt said that members of the crew declared some of the dead horses had been mutilated before the fire. Agents of the steamship company, however, denied it. All officials were silent as to the report that German agents aboard the ship had caused the damage.

FAMILY IN NEED BUT CAN'T HELP

With tears in his eyes and his voice trembling, a Fort Wayne Turk whose name he did not reveal, pleaded with the mail order clerks at the postoffice Wednesday morning asking that they send for him a money order to Turkey for his wife and children, whom he said were starving and in distress. But the money order was refused for money orders are not made out for Turkey at the present time.

While the European war has resulted in diminishing the volume of money order business in a majority of the postoffices throughout the United States it has had no telling effect at the Fort Wayne office. It seems that where business falls off with one country it is made up with some other. More orders are being sent from Fort Wayne to Macedonia than ever before as there are a great many foreigners here who have families living there in dire distress. The volume of business to Hungary has also greatly increased for the same reason.

Order is Returned.

The money order business with Russia has greatly fallen off. Only Tuesday a money order for $800 was returned to a Fort Wayne Russian resident of this city. Some days ago he secured a money order for $800, sending it to his old home in Russia. He intended to follow in a day or two and join the army there. In the meantime he changed his mind, thinking that he would be much better off in peaceful America than in trying to dodge bullets and bombs in Europe. So he asked the local postoffice authorities to secure his $800 for him and after some little difficulty it was finally returned.

The Fort Wayne office is issuing no money orders to Belgium, Egypt or Mexico, as the result of orders from the postal department at Washington. Even in time of peace it is seldom that a money order is issued here for points in Egypt or Mexico.

Most of the money orders out of Fort Wayne are going to Germany, Russia and Greece, and vast amounts of good America money is going to assist the relatives of America's foreign born citizens who are placed in dire need through the stress of the war.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—A man and woman registered as G. H. Neeley and wife, of Cushing, Okla., were found dead in the Terminal hotel at the union station here today. Apparently the man had shot his wife and then committed suicide. Nine bullet holes were in the woman's body and one in the man's.

Love letters from another man to the woman were found in the room and it was thought that jealousy prompted the crime. The letters which were signed "Bill," indicated the writer was planning to help the woman get a divorce. They indicated that Neeley and "Bill" were business associates in Cushing or in Tulsa, Okla.

The couple arrived at the hotel late last evening. Investigation showed they, or at least Mrs. Neeley had come from Richmond, Ind. The letters in the room were addressed to "Estelle B. Neeley, P. O. box 87, Richmond, Ind." and indicated that she had been visiting relatives there.

A telegram found in the room indicated Neeley was a salesman for the Petroleum Iron company of Sharon, Pa., and that he covered western territory under the direction of the Tulsa office.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—More active European demand for cash wheat tended today to strengthen the wheat market as a whole. After opening ⅝@⅞c off to a shade advance, the market rallied to above last night's level all around.

The close was unsettled, ⅝c to ¾c under last night.

Rumors of good sized exports gave a slight lift to the corn market. The opening, which varied from ⅛c to a sixteenth up, was followed by a general hardening of values.

In the oats crowd most of the dealings consisted of changes from the December option to May.

Provisions rose quite sharply on account of short covering.

Washington government will not argue that question further.

The understanding among officials is that President Wilson is willing to withdraw the American forces especially in view of the fact that a conflict of Villa and Carranza troops in that vicinity might raise further embarrassment and delicate questions for the United States.

The American troops will be withdrawn on the ground that the Agues Calientes convention ordered Carranza to issue the decree which has now been proclaimed and all factions are agreed to support the conditions set forth by the United States as a pre-requisite to evacuation.

The impression prevails in many quarters that the United States will await the determination of who is the executive of Mexico, Gen. Carranza or Gen. Gutierrez, before delivering the funds.

Brigadier General Funston with troops of the Fifth brigade and the marine regiments remaining has about 8,500 men at Vera Cruz. The evacuation would take about a week after the order is given, for time to move army transports and possibly charter merchant vessels. The Fifth brigade troopers may return to Galveston and the marine regiments probably will be distributed to the Guantonamo and other stations.

EVENTS MOVE SWIFTLY.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Events at Naco have moved with "unexpected rapidity," according to a report to the war department today from Brig. Gen. Bliss. Secretary Garrison summarized the situation in this statement:

"Heavy rifle fire all yesterday afternoon which Col. Hatfield interprets as an effort on the part of Gen. Hill's forces to prevent Gen. Maytorena from getting into position for attack. At 5:45 o'clock three guns firing shrapnel opened from the east and two from the southwest and continued firing until dark on Hill's position." Maytorena has informed Col. Hatfield that what he was doing was a defensive move and not an attack."

TRAIN SERVICE SUSPENDED.

MANY ENLISTMENTS.

During the last few days twelve applicants have been rejected at the Fort Wayne recruiting office of the United States navy. Word has been received at the local office that during the last week in October 1,831 men applied for enlistment in the United States navy and of this number 1,479 were rejected. Navy officials are very exacting with applicants. This has been especially true during the last few months.

proved. Again the lad was sent home and Attendance Officer T. A. Wilkinson was notified, who, fearing that the hoof and mouth disease may have broken out among human beings as well as animals, notified the county agent.

Man is Not Immune.

Man himself is not immune, according to Mr. Henry, and the frequency of the infection by coming in contact with the diseased animals themselves, is established by numerous observations. There is fever and difficulty in swallowing, followed by an eruption of blisters in the mouth and very rarely in similar ones on the fingers. The disease is very seldom fatal and chiefly restricted to children and to those adults who handle sick animals or drink large quantities of unboiled milk. Some veterinarians regard the human affection as by no means uncommon in counties where the foot and mouth disease prevails, but that the disturbance of health is usually too slight to come to the notice of the family doctor.

Vets Will Meet.

A meeting of the members of the American Veterinary association of this city will be held at the Wayne hotel Thursday evening. Members of the association from all parts of northern Indiana are expected to be in attendance. The meeting is called for the purpose of discussing the hoof and mouth disease.

Warning Farmers.

Mr. Henry received another letter Wednesday morning from T. A. Coleman, head of the county agents of Indiana at Purdue university, asking him to get in touch with every creamery in the county, who in turn are asked to warn the farmers to watch their stock very carefully and especially cattle fed hay that has been shipped in.

Emden, which was attacked by the Australian cruiser Sydney and driven ashore in the Cocos island, where she burned and Prince Franz Joseph, of Hohenzollern, one of his officers, are both prisoners of war and neither is wounded, according to an announcement by the admiralty this afternoon.

The admiralty adds that the losses on the Emden are unofficially reported as 200 killed and 30 wounded. No further details have been received. The admiralty has given directions that all honors of war be accorded to the survivors of the Emden and that the captain and his officers are not to be deprived of their swords.

The hundredth day of the war, which engages virtually half the world, both in respect to land area and the population, finds the Teutonic allies practically on the defensive, according to opinions expressed today by English students of the situation, at least temporarily, in both the main areas of hostilities.

This role is perhaps more pronounced in the eastern field of operation, where the Germans have been thrown back well behind their frontier lines at several points in East Prussia and Posen, than in the western field, although the successes of the past two weeks have enabled the forces of Great Britain, France and Belgium to inaugurate a vigorous offensive, the Germans are still disputing every foot of ground with bloody hand to hand fighting, which is proving more deadly than has any previous phrase of this most sanguinary war. The names of some towns and villages occurring with monotonous regularity day after day in the official reports, show how stubborn has been the struggle in the country centering Ypres.

Human Rabbit Warren.

Into this land the opposing armies have burrowed until it has become a veritable human rabbit warren.

The report of renewed tentatives for peace on the part of Germany which, however, has in no sense been confirmed, with the purpose of detaching Russia from the other allies as Germany is believed previously to have tried to detach France, is accepted in London as an indication that Germany is becoming aware of the difficulties of the task she has undertaken in prosecuting an offensive warfare against foes on two fronts and the supposed failure of those overtures, if any have actually been made is coupled with the continual movement to the east of German troops from Belgium.

Military men in London think it not improbable that unless the battle being fought at Ypres or further south takes an early turn in their favor the Germans will fall back to the prepared line stretching from Zeebruggee to the Meuse and assume a purely defensive role in the trenches along this line which have been so well strengthened, and the approaches to which are so thoroughly protected by well posted heavy artillery that they could be taken only after a long siege. This course, it is suggested, would enable the Germans to detach forces from the western arena to meet the Muscovite invaders in East Prussia and Posen and also to lend a hand to their Austrian allies. The Austrian armies it seems today have been cut off from contact with the German forces by the wedge pushed forward by the Russian commanders.

BIG DINNER ABANDONED.

Americans in London to Devote Funds to Belgian Relief.

London, Nov. 11.—3:20 p. m.)—The American society has voted almost unanimously to abandon its Thanksgiving dinner this year and devote the money which would have been spent to this end to the relief of the people of Belgium. A yearly Thanksgiving dinner in London is one of the principal functions of this organization.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Athens says: "It is learned that a conspiracy has broken out at Constantinople against the Germans and young Turks. The chief conspirators were arrested and shot.

"The population of the Ottoman capital becoming very excited as a result of the Turkish defeats on Sunday visited resentment on a number of German non-commissioned officers whom they attacked."

TAKEN TO VLADIVOSTOCK.

Russia Transporting War Prisoners to the Far East.

Peking, Nov. 11.—Reports reaching here from Harbin, Manchuria, set forth that Russia is transporting European prisoners of war as far east as Vladivostock.

The Austrian cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth, which took refuge at Tsing Tau before that port was invested by the Japanese had eight members of her crew killed during the Japanese attack on this German position. This news was transmitted by the commandant of the cruiser to the Austrian legation here. Japanese permission having first been obtained. The legation says that the Kaiserin Elizabeth was sunk by her crew after the ammunition on board had become exhausted.

GERMANS CHANGE COMMANDERS.

Paris, Nov. 11.—6:15 a. m.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Matin telegraphs the following: "It is reported that after a council of war, presided over by the kaiser, the crown prince was appointed commander in chief of all the German and Austrian armies operating against Russia, with Hindenberg commanding the left wing and Gen. Dankl the right.

RELEASED BY AUSTRIANS.

Sofia, Via London, Nov. 11.—3:56 a. m.—Another detachment of Macedonians has arrived here after being released by the Austrians, who captured them at Shabatz, where they had been enrolled in the Servian army. When the Macedonians expressed a desire to return to Bulgaria the Austrians released them and provided transportation.

The press here admits that Bulgaria is quite ready to pay the blood debt owing to Russia, but not until the triple entente gives ample guarantees that Bulgarian rights will be restored in Macedonia and that Bulgaria will be protected from the territorial designs of her neighbors.

THE DRUGGIST HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR WHOLESALE POINSONING THREATENED.

Bristol, Vt., Nov. 11.—Dr. D. A. Bisbee, the Bristol druggist, who is alleged to be responsible for the death of fifteen persons and the serious illness of several others, is in danger of violence at the hands of the people of this community.

Bisbee sold alcohol that contained poison. He admits putting poison in the liquor, but he says he did it by mistake.

SPREADS AMONG PRIZE CATTLE

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Spread of foot and mouth disease among the 836 prize dairy cattle under quarantine at the Chicago Union stock yards assumed such alarming proportions today that it was feared the infection could not be prevented from spreading to every animal in the herd. They are valued at $2,500,000.

Dr. S. E. Bennett, of the federal bureau of animal industry, said that forty new cases were discovered among the herd yesterday. The newly infected cows were separated in the isolated herd and taken to the veterinarian hospital were fifty-two other cases from the dairy show stock are under treatment.

Dr. Bennett said that consent would not be given to destroy the animals unless there is no hope of saving them.

WORSE AT PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—Conditions brought about by the epidemic of foot and mouth disease becomes distinctly worse today when it was announced that 300 cows, one of the finest dairy herds in Westmoreland county, had developed the disease and seven dairy herds in other parts of Western Pennsylvania were under suspicion. Some apprehension for the milk supply of Pittsburg was felt while hay dealers were wondering where they were to get supplies. The normal supply for the city is forty cars a day. Recently receipts have shrunk to half that number. Seven inspectors were sent to East Liverpool, Ohio, and Rochester, Pa., to fumigate straw and hay used in packing pottery and glass ware and at the Herrs Island stock yards it was said fumigation would be completed this week. No date for re-opening the yards has been announced by the government authorities.

POPE WILL SEEK PEACE.

Pontiff Soon to Issue Pastoral Letter, Says Cologne Dispatch.

London, Nov. 11.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen a correspondent of the Central News says: "A dispatch received here from Cologne affirms that the pope shortly will endeavor to initiate negotiations for peace through the medium of a pastoral letter.

"The German view of this is that any such action by his holiness would raise the question of the pope's temporal power and force Italy into taking an attitude against the proposal."

$1.30 DIFFERENCE IN SUPREME COURT

Washington, Nov. 11.—A difference of $1.36 was the basis of a suit which today reached the United States supreme court. It was started originally by the Macon County supply company, of Franklin, North Carolina, to recover $3.75 overcharges on a shipment of ranges from Piqua, Ohio. The Tallulah Falls Railway company offered to pay $2.30 in settlement. The difference was $1.36 and could not be adjusted.

The case was appealed to the supreme court from the North Carolina supreme court because a $100 penalty had been imposed upon the railway for failure to pay the claim within a prescribed period.

Frank Mann, prosecuting attorney, who said that the young men making the charge against Dr. Reasoner, several months ago, can not now be found. FIRE LOSS WILL REACH MILLION

Jeannette, Pa., Nov. 11.—The mammoth warehouse of the American Window Glass company here was destroyed by fire which started early today, with an estimated loss of $1,000,000. The warehouse, 1,000 feet wide by 100 feet long, is said to have contained in the neighborhood of 250,000 boxes of window glass, the greater part of which is believed to have melted or been broken.

The factory nearby was not damaged and the only men deprived of employment were the workmen in the warehouse, a comparatively small number. The origin of the fire has not been determined, but the police advance the theory that it was of incendiary origin.

RELEASED ON $10,000 BOND.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 11.—One of the five alleged holdup men who got $1,400 in a gambling house, and who is known as Thomas Burge, but is said to be Bertache, a brother of Barney Bertsche, of Chicago, has been released on $10,000 bond. The sheriff has the bond and is out of town. There is no record showing signatures on the bond. State's Attorney Hoyne, of Chicago, telephoned here at the time of the arrest to hold Bertsche for him, if he should get freedom from the Terre Haute jail.

Sheriff Shea says the bond is signed by men who own $25,000 worth of real estate, but the sheriff declines to make public their names. He says Burge was released last Wednesday night.

WOMAN'S WILE WINS OVER LAW

Miss Marguerite Ogden is Equal to Emergency in California.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 12.—When a woman seeks to evade the machinery of the law, send a woman after her!

That this is destined to become a popular method in civil procedure is to be gathered from the experience of Miss Marguerite Ogden, attorney, and law partner of Mrs. Annette Adams, recently named assistant United States district attorney here.

Mrs. Grace F. Chinn, a wealthy widow, had been somewhat lax in paying an undertaker's bill, as administratrix of her husband's estate. When Miss Ogden sent a boy to serve a citation, Mrs. Chinn sent word that she couldn't come to the door—she was still in bed. The boy couldn't serve the paper. When the boy returned later and still later, the woman was still "in bed."

A citation summoning Mrs. Chinn to show cause why she shouldn't be punished for contempt of court, met with the same reception.

Then Miss Ogden took a personal hand. She appeared at the Chinn home under pretext that she wanted to buy an interest in the property the widow held. And Mrs. Chinn appeared with alacrity.

The upshot of the affair was that the refractory administratrix was at once relieved on her control of the estate.

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Baby Astor in Training to Work for Living After While.

New York, Nov. 12.—John Jacob Astor VI. must work for a living when he grows up. Not that he can't get along comfortably on his $10,000,000 inheritance, but because it is the wish of his mother, the former Madeline Force, that her son be a trained business man, and not a "social idler."

"I am going to train my son to work, to be useful," says Mrs. Astor. "He must be more than an irresponsible rich man. He must be an asset to the country. He'll be a working man, trained to understand business and, if need be, to earn a living."

The two-year-old son of Colonel John Jacob Astor, who went down with the Titanic, has already commenced training for the strenuous life. Almost from the time of his birth he has slept in a cold room. He takes daily drives, regardless of the weather. His food is simple, and his play is planned to develop his muscle and his mind.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for Croup.

Croup scares you. The loud hoarse croupy cough, choking and gasping for breath, labored breathing, call for immediate relief. The very first doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will master the croup. It cuts the thick mucus, clears away the phlegm and opens up and eases the air passages. Harold Berg, Mass, Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." Every user is a friend.—Dreier Drug Co.—Adv.

LESS THAN "LIVING WAGE."

New Orleans, La., Nov. 12.—That 21 per cent. of the wage-earning women and children of New Orleans are working for $4 a week was one of many startling facts discovered by investigators of the Consumers' league in a survey of workshop conditions just completed.

An expert statistician, aided by a group of college girls, made the investigation. Of the 5,365 cases investigated it was found that 24 per cent. earn less than $4; 66 per cent. between $4 and $6; only 10 per cent. received $10, and only one per cent. $20.

The survey showed that neither faithfulness nor long-continued service has any appreciable effect in advancing salaries. Women employed twenty years in one line of work were getting no larger wages than the new employe.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

California Woman Knocks Out Two Very Husky Burglars.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—When Clara Roberts found two burglars looting her room in a hotel here, instead of screaming for help she grabbed each by the scruff of the neck and bumped their heads together and then turned them over to the police.

The men gave their names as Chapman Gray and Earl Wilson, and as a result of their encounter with the doughty Miss Roberts are the possessors of black eyes and badly bruised heads.

"What are you doing here," she demanded.

One of the men made a rush at her and she floored him with a punch to the jaw. A smashing jolt in the eye brought the other marauder down when he lunged at her. And when help arrived Miss Roberts was discovered bumping the heads of the two men together.

NOW BEWARE HIGH STEP.

It May Mean Aches and Doctor Bills, Say Osteopaths.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—The eighteen-inch street car step is an advance agent of death in disguise according to osteopaths in Chicago, who have commenced a crusade to pull the eighteen-inch car step down to six or ten inches of the ground.

"The high street car step is a menace to health," says Dr. Joseph H. Sullivan, who leads the "low-step" crusade. "If the public knew how much of its sciatica and lumbago was caused by that high step, public sentiment would soon lower the steps of the street cars, not only in Chicago, but the country over for other street car systems are just as bad in this respect as ours."

Dr. Sullivan declares that in taking the high step the upper part of the leg should not be elevated above a horizontal position. When it is, and the body's weight then placed upon it there is caused a slight dislodgement of the pelvic bone. The constant strain of mounting high car steps causes a permanent twisting of the joint, the regular flow of blood is interrupted, pain follows then comes lumbago and sciatica.

HUNGRY WAIFS FED.

Michigan Farmers Feast Delegation in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 12. Children in Chicago—the basement waifs, and the children of the tenements found out today what a real dinner tastes like.

They feasted on mashed potatoes, smacked their lips over boiled cabbage and they reveled in baked apples. And there'll be more fresh vegetables and fruit for dinner tomorrow, and for several days to come.

The vegetable feast was provided by the farmers 'round Three Oaks, Mich. They gathered up the vegetables that were rotting in the fields because cellars were overcrowded and there was no demand for them in the market. They filled a car and sent it to Chicago to be distributed among the poor. There were 1,200 half-bushel baskets of vegetables in the car and several sacks of flour and coffee.

Two more car loads, the remains of a "bumper crop," will be shipped to Chicago from Michigan this fall.

This Blunder Has Proved Costly

To Many Builders--and Some Architects

The strongest evidence that we can advance in support of our contention that every Building should be piped for gas during construction can be found in our records, showing that we are sooer or later called upon to furnish gas to occupants of most every building in the city.

We can prove that the builder who for special reasons leaves gas out of his specifications, eventually uses or rents his buildings for a purpose it was not originally built for.

When it is finally necessary to install gas, it means a lot of tearing up of floors and walls, and a loss of time and money to all concerned

For this reason it is clearly a matter of plain economy to have every building piped for gas during process of construction.

We will be pleased to send one of our engineers free of charge to consult with any architect or builder in regard to special requirements, proper appliance or installation problems.

BIG INTEREST IN BRIDGE CONTRACT

Many Bidders After the Harrison Street Job Thursday.

The prospect on Wednesday afternoon was that there would be from twenty to twenty-five bidders for the contract of building the Harrison street bridge over the St. Mary's river, when the board of commissioners of Allen county goes into session at 10 o'clock Thursday morning to receive proposals. Six sets of plans are in hand and it is expected that bids will be received on all of them. Plans have been submitted by A. W. Grosvenor, which are known as the "county plans," and by George Jaap, who submits three sets—one for stone veneer, one for plain concrete and one for another type of concrete. Adams & Cummins, of Detroit, and Daniel Bluten, of Indianapolis, also have plans in. The commissioners will select the plans upon which the best and cheapest bids are submitted.

NEWS OF THE COURTS.

Negresses, Charged With Grand Larceny, Forfeit Bonds.

Jessie Jones and Emma Williams, two Chicago negresses, charged with grand larceny, did not appear when called in the circuit court Wednesday, and their bonds of $350 each, with Walter F. Rosenwinkle as surety, were declared forfeited. The negresses enticed August Schultz, a young man, into an alley one night last summer and cleaned him up for $190.

Will Not Give Details.

Alleging that his wife has treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner, the details of which he considers improper to state in his complaint, James M. Brown has begun action in the superior court for divorce from Carrie Brown. They were married twenty years ago and he says her conduct became such as to compel him July 17, last, to leave home. He asks the custody of a son 16 years old, of whom he says the mother is unfit, by reason of her talk, manner and conduct, to have charge. He says she neglects the boy and permits him to run the streets day and night as he pleases. The plaintiff is a railway engineer.

Says Husband Drinks.

Helen Frieda Johnson asks the superior court to give her a divorce from Lester B. Johnson and charges in her complaint that he neglects the plaintiff and their children, spending his earnings mainly for drink and tobacco and in carousing with other young men. She says he has threatened to kill her and once struck at her with an open pocket knife. She says that on the night of November 13 last, when the separation took place, he was at the home of her father and drunk and that while playing on the floor with their children he drove his open knife with such violence into the floor as to break off an inch of the blade. The plaintiff expresses fear that he will do harm to the children, one of which is two years old and the other four months. She asks an allowance of $240 a year to support the children. The pair were married in February, 1912.

Notes of the Courts.

The Trentman Supply company has begun suit in the superior court against Clinton L. Hersh, Bertha Hersh and E. E. Fry to foreclose a mechanic's lien, demanding $60.

Andrew Donnelly has filed a petition in the circuit court to have a guardian appointed for Anna Donnelly, who is represented as being a paralytic and incapacitated both physically and mentally from managing her property.

In the superior court Judge Yaple has entered a decree granting a divorce to Elda Baxter from Cyril C. Baxter and awarding her alimony in the sum of $350, payable at the rate of $8 monthly. She is given the custody of a child over which there was a hard contest in the trial.

MAY PUT 18,000 MEN OUT OF JOBS

New York, Nov. 18.—Charges made in notices sent by labor unions to contractors engaged in subway construction work that they are violating a provision of the state labor law has resulted in one contracting firm stopping work on three sections of the new subway system and the probable stoppage of all rapid transit construction work in the city.

The public service commission officials in a statement made public today admitted the seriousness of the situation and express the fear that 18,000 men employed by subway contractors whose earnings total about $2,000,000 a month will be thrown out of work while the validity of the law was being tested.

The point of law at issue is a section of the law which provides that on public work "only citizens of the United States shall be employed." Although this has been the law for seventeen years, contractors have employed men of all nationalities and have maintained that it was impossible to get American citizens to do the work. Violations are punishable by fines of from $50 to $500 or by thirty to ninety days' imprisonment, or both, and forfeiture of contract.

WE HAVE GROWN IN EVERY WAY

Washington, Nov. 18.—Enormous growth of the United States in the last half century was shown in a report issued by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. While the report is for the period 1800-1914, the meager statistics for the first half of the century make them comparatively unimportant.

After pointing out that since 1850 the population of the country has more than quadrupled, being now more than 100 million, the report says:

"In the same period, however, foreign commerce has grown from 318 million dollars to 4,259 million dollars, and the per capita value of exports from $16.96 to $23.27. National wealth has increased from 7 billion dollars in 1870 to approximately 140 billion dollars; money in circulation from 279 million dollars to 3,419 million dollars, and New York bank clearings from approximately 5 billion to more than 98 billion dollars, while for the entire country bank clearings have grown from 52 billion dollars in 1887, the earliest year for which figures are available, to 174 billion dollars in 1913.

Schools Have Grown.

"Evidence of improved social conditions among the people also are found in the statistical record. For example, 18 million children are now enrolled in public schools, and about two hundred thousand students in colleges and other higher institutions of learning, and the total expenditures on behalf of education now approximate 500 million dollars a year, the result being a rapid increase in general intelligence and a marked decrease in illiteracy.

"More than twenty-two thousand newspapers and periodicals are disseminating information among the people, and the report shows a steady growth in the number of libraries in the country. In 1850 depositors in savings banks were 215,000 in number. Today this number is 11 million, with deposits, exclusive of those in other savings institutions, aggregating four and three-quarters billion dollars, or more than one hundred times as much as at the middle of the last century.

Farm Values Up.

"Increased activity on the farms, in the factories and in the transportation industries also has developed in the last half century. The value of farms and farm property increased from 4 billion dollars in 1850 to 41 billion dollars in 1910; the value of manufactures from one billion to more than 20 billion dollars, and the number of miles of railroad in operation from 9,021 in 1850 to 258,033 in 1912.

"In the last quarter century the number of passengers carried has increased from 492 million to 1,904 million, and the volume of freight handled from 632,000 to 1,845 million short tons. Nearly 20 billion pieces of outgoing mail matter are handled annually by the postoffice department, which disbursed in this important public service last year 262 million dollars, or $2.70 per capita."
